M-F 9:00-12:00, Mon, Tue, Thu 1:00-4:00, Fri 1:00-3:00

On Tuesday 8/15/2017 there will be no class in observance of the feast of the Dormition.

1. COURSE DESCRIPTION / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Intermediate Modern Greek I & II is designed for students with 12 credits of previous instruction in Modern Greek. Our goal is to build a firm foundation in the grammar, syntax, and core vocabulary of the language, strengthen conversation and composition skills, and explore the cultural context in which the Greek language has developed and is currently evolving (see also E. Course Learning Objectives below). The course consists of instruction, practice, and examination in speaking, reading, writing, and listening comprehension in modern Greek. The course offers 6 credits toward graduation and requires a minimum of 3 hours of study per day. The material to be covered includes Units 8-12 of the textbook (see also 4. Required Texts below) as well as a wide variety of modern Greek poetry, prose, and songs. Reading practice and grammar drills will focus on daily conversations and basic texts; all class material will be available in print and online. As this is an immersion class, the use of English will be limited to grammar presentations and translation exercises.

2. INSTRUCTOR

Panayotis League, Ph.D. (cand.), office hours: Wed 12:30-1:30, Fri 3:00-4:00 and by appointment, Rm. 114, (617) 850-1506, paddydos8baixos@gmail.com

6. COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Our goal in this class is to reach proficiency at the Intermediate High level as defined by the American Council for the Teaching of Foreign languages (ACTFL). Students are encouraged to visit <http://www.actfl.org> for a comprehensive overview of ACTFL standards. Broadly speaking, our learning objectives are the following:

1. Students will build a large and varied vocabulary in modern Greek and master advanced grammatical and syntactical concepts.
2. Students will increase conversational, writing, and reading fluency in modern Greek.
3. Students will further their beginning-level sensitivity to the cultural context of the modern Greek language and strengthen their own voice in the language.

2. Students are expected to be on time, participate in every class, and contribute to class exercises to the best of their ability.
3. All noise-making electronic devices should be silenced during class.

4. The operation of electronic devices in class other than phones is allowed only for taking notes. The instructor reserves the right to ask students to turn off any electronic devices that are not being used according to the above guidelines. No phones are allowed in class.
5. Recording of all or part of the class is allowed only with instructor's (and classmates') permission.

9. AWARDS

A $500 prize will be awarded to the student(s) who excelled academically in the course.

10. DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and Title III of the American with Disabilities Act guarantees that students with disabilities are entitled by law to reasonable academic modifications. If you are a student with a disability, consult with the Office of Spiritual Formation & Counseling Services (2nd floor administration building, room #203) at the beginning of the semester to obtain the appropriate Academic Modifications Documentation. Without proper documentation the instructor will not be able to grant any type of academic modifications or accommodations.

11. PLAGIARISM

Hellenic College places a very high value on academic integrity. Plagiarism (using the words or ideas of others without proper attribution) is a most serious violation of this principle. It is strictly prohibited and subject to automatic disciplinary action by the College. It may even result in suspension or expulsion from Hellenic College. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the section of the Hellenic College course catalogue that provides detailed information about plagiarism and the serious consequences for students who engage in plagiarism. Students who have questions regarding appropriate acknowledgment of sources should speak with their instructor for clarification.
