On Tuesday 8/6/2013 classes will begin at 11:00 in observance of the feast of the Transfiguration. Also, there will be no class on Thursday 8/15/2013 in observance of the feast of the Dormition of the Theotokos.

1. COURSE DESCRIPTION / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION
Intermediate Modern Greek I& II is designed for students with 12 credits of previous instruction in modern Greek. Our goal in this intensive class is to achieve Intermediate High level of proficiency in modern Greek (by ACTFL standards) through cumulative acquisition of speaking, listening and writing skills (see also 7. Course Learning Objectives). Instruction consists of a 3-hour per day master class focusing on grammar and syntax as well as conversation and translation and of a 3-hour per day language lab session practicing the newly acquired material. Students will be expected to work 4-5 hours per day on the lesson introduced the same day and to apply themselves with enthusiasm and creativity. Please note that this is an immersion class and that any use of the English language will be kept to a minimum.
