A. COURSE PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course aside from an interest in the Greek language and willingness to work hard!

B. COURSE DESCRIPTION and C. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Beginning Modern Greek I is designed for students with little or no previous instruction in Modern Greek. Instruction consists of a 3-hour per day master class studying elementary aspects of the modern Greek language based on introductory readings (focusing on grammar and syntax as well as conversation and translation) and of a 3-hour per day language lab session practicing the newly acquired material. The course offers 6 credits toward graduation and requires a minimum of 3 hours of study per day. The material to be covered includes Units 1-4 of the textbook (see also E. Required Texts below) as well as a wide variety of excerpts from modern Greek poetry, prose, and songs. Reading practice and grammar drills will focus on daily conversations and basic texts; all class material will be available in print and online. As this is an immersion class, the use of English will be limited to grammar presentations and translation exercises.

D. REQUIREMENTS / EXPECTATIONS

1. Beginning Modern Greek I adheres to HCHC attendance policies as stated in the Student Catalog (if you need a copy of the Student Catalog please visit hchc.edu or the Registrar's Office). Further:
2. Students are required to attend class and class activities with no exceptions. All unjustified absences will be penalized (grade reduction will be counted towards your class participation grade).
3. Absolutely no make-up tests and/or exams (grade reduction will equal percentage of test, if indicated in syllabus. Grade reduction for other missed tests and quizzes will be counted towards your class participation grade).

4. No credit for late homework (gladly accepted for review).
5. Extra credit work, when assigned, will be the same for all students.

I. AWARDS

A $500 prize will be awarded to the student(s) who excelled academically in the course.

J. DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and Title III of the American with Disabilities Act guarantees that students with disabilities are entitled by law to reasonable academic modifications. If you are a student with a disability, consult with the Office of Spiritual Formation & Counseling Services (2nd floor administration building, room #203) at the beginning of the semester to obtain the appropriate Academic Modifications Documentation. Without proper documentation, I will not be able to grant any type of academic modifications or accommodations.

K. PLAGIARISM

Hellenic College places a very high value on academic integrity. Plagiarism (using the words or ideas of others without proper attribution) is a most serious violation of this principle. It is strictly prohibited and subject to automatic disciplinary action by the College. It may even result in suspension or expulsion from Hellenic College. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the section of the Hellenic College course catalogue that provides detailed information about plagiarism and the serious consequences for students who engage in plagiarism. Students who have questions regarding appropriate acknowledgment of sources should speak with their instructor for clarification.
