HCHC MISSIONS WEEK
October 27-31, 2014

CHANGING THE WORLD
Transformation Through Missions

With Project Mexico and St. Innocent Orphanage as a Model

Annual EFOM Missions Lecture
7:00pm Thursday, October 30th
Archbishop Iakovos Library Reading Room

Fr. Nicholas Andruchow, the Associate Director of Project Mexico and St. Innocent Orphanage, and his wife Pres. Merilynn (HC graduate 1992), will be on campus throughout HCHC Missions Week October 27-31. They will speak each night in the chapel, teach in several classes and meet with small groups throughout the week.

Fr. Nicholas served in the US Peace Corps for two years in the Dominican Republic, where as a business consultant he helped start 12 businesses for women’s groups. He then worked at Project Mexico for three years, establishing a pig farm and teaching the boys in the orphanage entrepreneurial skills. Following graduation from St. Vladimir’s, Fr. Nicholas and Pres. Merilynn built up the Holy Cross Mission Church in Flagstaff, AZ for nine years. Since 2011, the Andruchows have continued their work at St. Innocent Orphanage and Project Mexico. They have three children.

Tuesday, Oct 28 - Preaching Class at 9:10am
Tuesday, Oct 28 - Ethics Class at 6:40pm
Tuesday, Oct 28 - Women’s Group at 7pm
Wednesday, Oct 29 - 7:00pm Missions Meeting
Thursday, Oct 30 - Missions Lecture 7:00pm