The Missions Institute of Orthodoxy Christianity
Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

SPRING BREAK
MARCH 7-15, 2014

THE MAYAN INDIANS IN GUATEMALA AND THEIR ENTRANCE INTO THE ORTHODOX CHURCH

This Guatemalan Spring Break Missions Trip, from March 7-16, 2014, will be limited to 6 students from HC/HC. The cost is $1000 for travel and all expenses. (You can fund raise for this trip if you like.)

If you are interested in applying for this Spring Break experience, please respond to each of the following questions and email them to Fr Luke Veronis at veronis@verizon.net by no later than December 1, 2013. You also need to have two recommendations sent to Fr. Luke, one from your spiritual father and a second from a professor.

1. Name, School, Year of Study

2. Which missions courses have you ever taken? What have you learned from them, and/or how have these courses helped in your spiritual development?

3. Have you ever been on any other type of mission trip before (OCMC, Project Mexico, other)? Describe your experience and the impact it had on you?

4. What expectations would you have for this Spring Break trip?

5. Please write a two page spiritual autobiography, focusing on your spiritual journey in life. When did you take an interest in spiritual affairs? What and/or who most influenced your spiritual journey in life? How did you decide to come to seminary? Where do you see yourself going and how will you serve the Church?