

JEW, CHRISTIANS, & MUSLIMS INTERACTING

AN INTER-RELIGIOUS COURSE

bringing together Jewish, Christian, and Muslim students to interact, share, learn, and engage theologically on fundamental theological topics important to all three religious traditions.

The course will address five foundational themes important to all three faith traditions:

What we know about God and how we know it;

What it means to be God's chosen people;

What is required to live a holy life;

How we deal with outsiders to the faith; and

What is the goal of human history in terms of resurrection, life after death, and last judgement.

The course is limited to 15 students, and efforts will be made to have a representative balance of students from each of the three religious traditions.

The course is open to all BTI students.

The course is made possible through a generous grant from the Association of Theological Schools.

WHEN

Tuesday evenings 6-9pm
Spring Semester, 2018

Where

Holy Cross

Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Rm. 221, Classroom Building
50 Goddard Avenue
Brookline, MA

The first class will meet

Tuesday, January 16, 2018

INSTRUCTORS

Rev. Dr. Emmanuel Clapsis

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Rabbi Or Rose

Hebrew College

Iman Taymullah Abdur-Rahman

COURSE CODE

INDS 7015: Jews, Christians & Muslims Interacting: An Inter-Religious Course

For more information please contact the Registrar at Holy Cross SOT, jostrosky@hchc.edu.