

A Greek Orthodox family's story about addiction, recovery and faith.

Anita Baglaneas Devlin,

the daughter of a Greek Orthodox priest and co-author with her son Michael Devlin, Jr., of S.O.B.E.R.* will speak on her experiences with drug addiction and recovery.

Monday

MAY 8, 2017

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

Library Reading Room

“Anita and Mike provide a rare glimpse of the spiritual rollercoaster that an entire family is forced to ride as a single member struggles with addiction. For those who have lost faith in others, this book reminds us of the power of love, most especially the love between a mother and her child. A modern-day public confession, S.O.B.E.R.* reveals how each of us can exorcise our demons through the liberating power of faith, hope, and love.”

*V. Rev. Dr. Nathanael Symeonides
Director, Inter-Orthodox, Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations
Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America*