WHAT

Workshop series designed to help college students answer their call to serve.

While this series is designed for Hellenic College students and Boston-area Orthodox Christian Fellowship students, everyone from the wider Hellenic College and Holy Cross community (students, staff, faculty, families) is welcome to attend. All workshops are free of charge, thanks to Lilly Endowment and Leadership 100 grants to the Office of Vocation & Ministry.

ANSWER THE CALL TO SERVE

TOOLS FOR THE

exploration of vocation

GOD HAS CALLED ALL OF US to the vocation of being holy. As God has created each of us with unique gifts and talents, so the way we each live our vocation will be different.

This week-long series provides students with some of the tools necessary to discover and pursue the arena in which they live their vocation in Christ, whether in clergy or lay vocations.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 6

12:00 pm – Dowd Hall

Finances & Stewardship

Managing one's finances is often a daunting task, especially for students. This workshop will provide direction as to how to create and sustain a student budget, begin to plan one's finances, and be a good steward. Come learn from Dn. Anthony Payne, a financial consultant, Certified Public Accountant, and Chief Financial Officer of two organizations in the Worcester area. Please contact Daniel Belonick for the complimentary luncheon.

7:00 pm – Reading Room

Preparing for Graduate School

For students pursuing a masters-level degree in any profession, academic field, or at Holy Cross, this seminar/luncheon should not be missed. Learn how to tackle the GREs, applications, and interviews with Rita Dove, Assistant Director of Cooperative Education and Career Services at Gordon College, and Greg Floor, Director of Admissions at Hellenic College/Holy Cross. Please contact Daniel Belonick to sign up for the complimentary luncheon.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7

7:00 pm – Reading Room

Conversation on Women and Work

This workshop, geared for undergraduate women, but open to everyone, will feature a panel of women who are part of the Hellenic College faculty, staff, and community. The panelists will share stories of how they uniquely navigate issues of work, family, and career as women of faith.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8

12:00 pm – Dowd Hall

Getting the Job

Prepare yourself to hone the important skills of cover letter writing, resume writing, and interviewing. For those Hellenic College students looking to enter the workforce upon graduation, or for simply securing a great summer job, this workshop gives you essential tools from a seasoned professional. Benny Belvin, Assistant Director of the Diversity Resources and Career Counseling Career Center at Boston College, will lead this session. Please contact Daniel Belonick to sign up for the complimentary luncheon.

7:00 pm – Reading Room

“Climbing the Ladder”

A Senior Vice President at Bank of America, Dn. Seraphim Solof will contrast the ascent up the corporate ladder with that of the ladder of divine ascent. With more than twenty years experience in the business world, and as a seminary graduate and deacon in the Orthodox Church, Dn. Seraphim will offer key insights as to how an Orthodox Christian may navigate both ascents.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9

12:00 pm – Dowd Hall

Alumni Panel

A panel of dynamic Hellenic College/ Holy Cross alumni will be joining us for lunch to discuss their personal vocations. Don't miss this tremendous networking opportunity. Please contact Daniel Belonick to sign up for the complimentary luncheon.
