CROSSROAD ALUMNI RETREAT POLICIES

We expect all staff and participants to act in a manner that is in accordance with Christ's commandments and the moral precepts of our Orthodox Christian Church. Below are the CrossRoad program's policies for staff and participants of the CrossRoad Alumni Retreat, which we feel are necessary for maintaining a spiritually beneficial and safe environment. In order to complete your registration, please indicate your commitment to abide by these policies by signing below and returning to the CrossRoad office. Thank you!

Rooming

Females are not allowed in male rooms or vice versa. Participants are expected to remain with the retreat throughout the duration of the program in the interest of creating and maintaining a retreat community.

Controlled Substances & Weapons

The following are forbidden:

- Possessing, distributing or consuming alcoholic beverages or illegal / non-prescribed drugs at the retreat location (St. Nicholas Ranch & Retreat Center) and any attached or associated property, including private vehicles parked on the property.
- Using, possessing, or distributing any illegal substance.
- Possessing or using weapons and dangerous articles, including but not limited to guns, knives, and fireworks.

Behavioral Misconduct

There are certain behaviors in which no staff, participant, or guest during the duration of the retreat should be involved. They include: engaging in any physical touching of any kind, including but not limited to, public kissing, petting, caressing, or any other sexual contact intended for sexual gratification. Also, engaging in vulgar, obscene, suggestive, or profane talk or behavior is strictly forbidden.

***Failure to follow and comply with the stated policies may lead to immediate action by CrossRoad, including but not limited to, dismissal and removal from the retreat, and when necessitated, contacting the appropriate authorities in the area.

Agreement

By signing this, I indicate that I have read and agree to abide by the above policies for the duration of the CrossRoad Alumni Retreat on March 5-7, 2010.
