A New beginning for Hellenic College – Holy Cross as School Year Starts

By Theodore Kalmoukos

BOSTON – Hellenic College and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox University celebrated its 75th anniversary last Sunday, September 25th, with a breakfast of Stuffed Grape Leaves, Greek cheese, Greek coffee, Baklava, and other traditional Greek foods. The breakfast was sponsored by Kontos Foods, Inc.

The breakfast marked the beginning of the 2011-2012 academic year for students, faculty, and other members of the Hellenic College-Holy Cross community. The morning event was followed by the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the establishment of the Hellenic College-Holy Cross. The event included a lecture by the school’s new Dean, Dr. Demetrios Katos, on the history and future of the institution.

Dr. Katos spoke about the history of the school and its role in the education of Greek Americans. He mentioned that the school has been an important part of the Greek American community for 75 years and that it continues to play a vital role in educating Greek American students.

The breakfast was attended by students, faculty, and other members of the Hellenic College-Holy Cross community. It was a great opportunity for people to come together and celebrate the school’s anniversary.

Katerina Valiotis Weds

Katerina Valiotis and John Bardis were married at their wedding in the Church of Agia Marina in Lagonisi, near Athens, Greece. Friends and family danced at the reception in the Garden Restaurant.

The couple is planning to live in Athens and continue their studies of Greek culture. They are also looking forward to the future and to sharing their love for Greece with others.

The couple is grateful for the support of their family and friends and for the love and support they have received throughout the years.
