The Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania And a Practicum in Albania

A SUMMER COURSE, MISSION TRIP, AND PILGRIMAGE IN ALBANIA

May 23 - June 10, 2016

COURSE DESCRIPTION
The Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania and Practical Evangelism in Albania will be a 3 credit summer class through Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. The course will study in depth the life, missiology and writings of Archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania and examine how he has practically lived out this missiology through his ministry in the Church of Albania. The course will look at the foundation and calling of missions. We will consider the resurrection of the Church of Albania over the past 25 years, examining and analyzing the successes of how the church has succeeded in living out the missiology of the Archbishop, and where the church has not yet lived up to this missiology. Part of the course will be devoted to a mission practicum where the students will travel to Albania for twelve days, witnessing the resurrection of the Church of Albania, meeting missionaries and the indigenous leaders of the Church, and participating in a evangelism program within the country.

COST OF COURSE/TRIP
The Mission Institute of Orthodoxy Christianity will subsidize the cost of the trip. Students will contribute $1000 towards the overall cost of the trip (which includes airfare and three credits offered). Students will have the option to pay this money either on their own, or can fundraise monies through the OCMC and the Missions Institute. OCMC Mission Trip Grants may be available for seminarians!
