Summer Academic Program

May 18–June 8, 2015

Kallinikeion Institute

July 27 – August 21, 2015
The Summer Academic Program at Hellenic College and Holy Cross offers courses at the graduate level in Greek and theology. Faculty of the School of Theology teaches all courses. Courses meet Monday through Friday, three hours a day per course.

---

HELLENIC COLLEGE

- Missions Special Program: Trip to Albania (For more information please contact Rev. Luke Veronis at veronis@verizon.net)

---

HOLY CROSS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

ECGK-5301 Liturgical Greek (3 credits)
Dr. Evie Holmberg
Room 110 (9 a.m. - 12 p.m.)
The objective of this course is to begin a study of Liturgical Greek as a foundation for further studies in Septuagint and Patristic Greek. The students become familiar with various genres of biblical literature with a concentration in Septuagint Greek and the liturgical texts of our Church. The emphasis is on vocabulary building and the fundamentals of syntax and of new forms of poetic expression. The texts are studied within the framework of the development of the language and of the various forms of literary style extending from the third century B.C. to the fifth century A.D. The interrelation with Ancient and Modern Greek is also traced.

Pre-requisite: New Testament Greek I and II

OLDT-7003 Preaching the Sunday Gospels (3 credits)
Rev. Dr. Eugen Pantleuc
Bouras Room (9 a.m. - 12 p.m.)
The course is a selection of Sunday Gospel periscopes in interpretive conversation with pertinent texts from the Old Testament. The starting point of discussion is the text of the Gospel periscope. However, New Testament Greek terms and concepts will be discussed in light of Old Testament Hebrew lexicon and theology. Special attention will be given to the Semitic background of Jesus' sayings. This class is rather a workshop where instructor and students are engaged in a dynamic dialogue with the sacred text looking always at new ways this text, recording God's revelation, may be offered as a gift to a world longing after God's eternal word.

OLDT-7100 Old Testament Exegesis: Hosea (3 credits)
Rev. Dr. Eugen Pantleuc
Bouras Room (1 p.m. - 4 p.m.)
A general introduction to the study of biblical exegesis is followed by a detailed exegesis of selected passages of the Book of Hosea. Emphasis will be given to theological themes such as redemption and reconciliation found in Hosea, and the pastoral application of these themes.
OLDT-5045 Biblical Hebrew I (3 credits)
Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc

An old rabbi once said, “Reading the Bible in a translation is like kissing your bride through the veil.” Biblical Hebrew I empowers students to lift the veil and study the Old Testament in the original Hebrew. The goal of this course is to make students acquire a basic knowledge of Hebrew grammar using one of the best textbooks on the market, Thomas O. Lambdin’s, Introduction to Biblical Hebrew.

Elementary Syriac (3 credits)
Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc

Students will be introduced to basic grammar and syntax.

Only one of these language classes will be offered pending enrollment.

PAST-7210 The Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios of Albania
Rev. Luke Veronis

The course will study in depth the life, missiology and writings of archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania, focusing on the foundation and calling of missions, and the practical living out of missions. We will consider the resurrection of the Church of Albania over the past 20 years, examining and analyzing the successes of how the church has succeeded in living out the missiology of the Archbishop, and where the church has not yet lived up to this missiology. We will also participate in practical missionary outreach in Albanis.

For more information, please contact Rev. Luke Veronis at veronis@verizon.net.

MUSB-6222 Byzantine Music for Clergy (1.5 Credits)
Dr. Grammenos Karanos

Room 114 (9 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.)

This course is specially designed for students who are exploring the possibility of ordination to the holy diaconate and/or priesthood. The material that will be taught includes dismissal hymns and kontakia for Sundays and major feast days, hymns for hierarchical services, hymns for sacraments, etc. Additionally, special emphasis will be placed on training the ekphonic recitation of liturgical petitions and the gospel pericopes. Pre-requisites: Byzantine Music I-IV

MUSB-6551 Service Rubrics (1.5 Credits)
Dr. Grammenos Karanos

Room 114 (10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.)

This course is a systematic study of service rubrics, in accordance with the Typikon with the Great Church of Christ. Students will thoroughly familiarize themselves with the liturgical books and study the services of the Orthodox Church with an emphasis on Vespers and Orthros for Sundays and major feast days. We will also study how the yearly cycles of movable and immovable feasts work in parallel with the weekly cyclical system of the Octoechos and how their co-existence affects the structure and individual components of liturgical services.
Kallinikeion Institute

Summer Program

July 27 – August 21

MDGK-1201 & MDGK-5201 Beginning Modern Greek I (6 credits)
Stamatia Dova, Ph.D.
Room 222 (9-12 a.m. – 1-4 p.m.)

Beginning Modern Greek I is designed for students with little or no previous instruction in Modern Greek. Our goal in this intensive class is to achieve Novice Mid proficiency in Modern Greek (by ACTFL proficiency guidelines) through cumulative acquisition of speaking, listening and writing skills. Instruction consists of a 3 hour per day master class focusing on introductory readings (focusing on grammar and syntax as well as conversation and translation) and of a 3 hour per day language lab session practicing the newly acquired material. Students will be expected to work 4-5 hours per day on the lesson introduced the same day and to apply themselves with enthusiasm and creativity. Please note that this as an immersion class and that any use of the English language will be kept to a minimum.

Instructor: Stamatia G. Dova, Ph.D.
Professor of Classics and Modern Greek Studies at Hellenic College

MDGK-2301/2312 & MDGK-6301/6312 Intermediate Modern Greek I & II (6 credits)
Mr. Panayotis League
Booras Room (9-12 a.m. – 1-4 p.m)

Intermediate Modern Greek is designed for students with 12 credits of previous instruction in modern Greek or equivalent. Our goal in this intensive class is to achieve Intermediate High level of proficiency in modern Greek (by ACTFL proficiency guidelines) through cumulative acquisition of speaking, listening and writing skills. Instruction consists of a 3-hour per day master class focusing on grammar and syntax as well as conversation and translation and a 3-hour per day language lab session practicing the newly acquired material. Students will be expected to work 4-5 hours per day on the lesson introduced the same day and to apply themselves with enthusiasm and creativity. Please note that this as an immersion class and that any use of the English language will be kept to a minimum.

Instructor: Panayotis League, Ph. D. cand.
Instructor of Modern Greek and Music at Hellenic College