THE COMMUNITY
At Hellenic College and Holy Cross, students, faculty, and staff form a Christian community dedicated to a shared vision of nurturing personal and academic excellence. Low student-teacher ratios allow faculty to offer personalized attention, and the cooperative spirit on campus encourages students to support one another academically and socially.

THE SCHOOL
Hellenic College is a four–year, undergraduate liberal arts college.

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology is a graduate school of theology with degree programs open to men and women, seminarians and non-seminarians. Hellenic College and Holy Cross are accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

HELLENIC COLLEGE

Study Trip: Introduction to Orthodox Christian Spirituality  (starts May 30, 2011)

Pilgrims on this year's Spiritual Odyssey may opt to earn 1.5 credits through Hellenic College by registering for the "Introduction to Orthodox Christian Spirituality" offered by Fr. Christopher Flesoras, PhD.  Requirements for the course include: an introductory paper detailing the student's understanding and experience of Orthodox spirituality, expectations for the Spiritual Odyssey and thoughts on pre-departure readings; daily one page reflections on travel and assigned readings; participation in discussions on assigned readings; and a final paper synthesizing aspects of Orthodox spirituality framed within the Spiritual Odyssey.  The course option will be offered at an additional cost of $750. Interested students may contact Fr. Christopher at frchris@gmail.com or 916-772-9372. (1.5 credits: $750).

HOLY CROSS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

FLED-6101 & FLED-6152 Hospital Ministry Dn. Markos Nickolas (3 credits)

Booras Room  May 23 – June 27 (Mondays 6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.)

Ministry to the sick and the suffering usually fulfilled during the second year of studies at area hospitals and coordinated by the course instructor.

ECGK-5301 Liturgical Greek (3 credits)

Dr. Evie Holmberg  Room 110 (10 a.m. – 12 p.m.)

The objective of this course is to begin a study of Liturgical Greek as a foundation for further studies in Septuagint and Patristic Greek. The students become familiar with various genres of biblical literature with a concentration in Septuagint Greek and the liturgical texts of our Church. The emphasis is on vocabulary building and the fundamentals of syntax and of new forms of poetic expression. The texts are studied within the framework of the development of the language and of the various forms of literary style extending from the third century B.C. to the fifth century A.D. The interrelation with Ancient and Modern Greek is also traced.

Pre-requisite: New Testament Greek I and II
OLDT-7003 Preaching the Sunday Gospels (3 credits)

Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc
Bouras Room (9 a.m. – 11 a.m.)

The course is a selection of Sunday Gospel periscopes in interpretive conversation with pertinent texts from the Old Testament. The starting point of discussion is the text of the Gospel periscope. However, New Testament Greek terms and concepts will be discussed in light of Old Testament Hebrew lexicon and theology. Special attention will be given to the Semitic background of Jesus’ sayings. This class is rather a workshop where instructor and students are engaged in a dynamic dialogue with the sacred text looking always at new ways this text, recording God’s revelation, may be offered as a gift to a world longing after God's eternal word.

OLDT-7100 Old Testament Exegesis: Hosea (3 credits)

Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc
Bouras Room (11 a.m. – 1 p.m.)

A general introduction to the study of biblical exegesis is followed by a detailed exegesis of selected passages of the Book of Hosea. Emphasis will be given to theological themes such as redemption and reconciliation found in Hosea, and the pastoral application of these themes.

OLDT-5045 Biblical Hebrew I (3 credits)

Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc
Bouras Room (1 p.m. – 3 p.m.)

An old rabbi once said, “Reading the Bible in a translation is like kissing your bride through the veil.” Biblical Hebrew I empowers students to lift the veil and study the Old Testament in the original Hebrew. The goal of this course is to make students acquire a basic knowledge of Hebrew grammar using one of the best textbooks on the market, Thomas O. Lambdin’s, Introduction to Biblical Hebrew.

Elementary Syriac

Rev. Dr. Eugen Pentiuc
Bouras Room (1 p.m. – 3 p.m.)

Students will be introduced to basic grammar and syntax.

Only one of these language classes will be offered pending enrollment.

Summer Program
August 8 – September 2

MDGK-1201 & MDGK-5201 Beginning Modern Greek I (6 credits)

Stamatia G. Dova, Ph.D.
Room 110 (9-12 a.m. – 1-4 p.m.)

Beginning Modern Greek I is designed for students with little or no previous instruction in Modern Greek. Our goal in this intensive class is to achieve remarkable proficiency in Modern Greek through cumulative acquisition of speaking, listening and writing skills. Instruction consists of a 3 hour per day master class studying elementary aspects of the Modern Greek language based on introductory readings (focusing on grammar and syntax as well as conversation and translation) and of a 3 hour per day language lab session practicing the newly acquired material. Students will be expected to work at least 2-3 hours per day on their own on the lesson introduced the same day and to apply themselves with enthusiasm and creativity. In return, they will become competent in conversational fluency, reading/listening comprehension and essay/sermon composition in Modern Greek.

Instructor: Stamatia G. Dova, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Classics and Modern Greek Studies at Hellenic College, (617) 850-1506, sdova@hchc.edu. Office Hours: Tuesdays & Fridays 4 – 5 p.m.

Textbook:
1. Greek Today: A Course In The Modern Language And Culture, by Dimitri Gondicas, John Rassias, Andromache Karanika, Chrysanthi Yiannakou-Bien, Peter Bien (Editor)
2. Greek Today Workbook by Dimitri Gondicas, John Rassias, Andromache Karanika, Chrysanthi Yiannakou-Bien, Peter Bien (Editor)

MDGK-2301/2312 & MDGK-6301/6312 Intermediate Modern Greek I & II (6 credits)

Mr. Panayotis League
Booras Room (9-12 a.m. – 1-4 p.m.)

Intermediate Modern Greek is designed for students who have completed the beginning level of Modern Greek and wish to extend their knowledge beyond the intermediate level. Instruction will consist of a 3 hour per day master class studying advanced aspects of Modern Greek in grammar, syntax, conversation and translation and of a 3 hour per day lab session practicing the newly acquired material. Students will be expected to work at least 2-3 hours per day on their own on the lesson introduced the same day and to apply themselves with enthusiasm and creativity. In return, they will see (and hear) their Greek improve dramatically in conversational fluency, reading and listening comprehension as well as essay/sermon composition. This is a six credit course (20 days x 6 h/day = 120 hours of instruction.) Pre-requisite: Beginning Modern Greek II. Beginning Modern Greek 2b, or equivalent.

Textbook:
