Hellenic College

Vision

Hellenic College is the undergraduate division of Hellenic College Holy Cross, the only fully-accredited undergraduate and graduate Orthodox Christian institution of higher learning in North America. The vision of Hellenic College Holy Cross is to be the intellectual, educational, and spiritual center of the Greek Orthodox Church in America, stimulating, developing, and sustaining ordained and lay vocations for service to Church and society based on faith.

The Mission of the College

Hellenic College, an Orthodox Christian institution of higher learning, cultivates the intellectual, spiritual, and moral development of its students so that they might serve and contribute to society and the Church. To that end, Hellenic College fosters intellectual development in its students, engaging them in liberal arts and professional curricula that demand rigorous inquiry and academic scholarship. The College promotes spiritual and moral development by incorporating students into the practices, teachings, and liturgical life of an Orthodox Christian community. The College offers also the opportunity to its students to become aware of the universal intellectual and cultural values of the Hellenic cultural heritage. The College encourages its students to respond to their unique vocations by committing to education, faith, and service in all aspects of their professional and personal endeavors.

Accreditation and Affiliation

Hellenic College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc., through its Commission on Institutions of Higher Education. Inquiries regarding the accreditation status by the New England Association should be directed to the administrative staff of the institution. Individuals may also contact: Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, 209 Burlington Road, Bedford, MA 01730-1433, (617) 271-0222, e-mail: cihe@neasc.org.

Non-Discrimination

Hellenic College is in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 with the Internal Revenue Service Procedure 75-50. The college and graduate school do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, or sex in the administration of their employment policies, admission policies, or recruitment activities. Hellenic College complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

FERPA Rights

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) was designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their educational records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students have the right to file complaints with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act office concerning alleged failure by the institution to comply with the Act.

Contract Statement

The provisions of this catalog are not intended to constitute a contract between the student and the college. Hellenic College reserves the right to make changes at any time within the student's term of enrollment. Courses and faculty are subject to change through normal academic channels.

Students are responsible for meeting in full the requirements for graduation set forth in the school catalog upon date of entry. The student advisor assists in the planning of a program, but the final responsibility for meeting the requirements for graduation rests with the student.

Admissions Information

Applicants to Hellenic College are committed to faith, education, and service and have a special interest in developing personally and professionally in preparation for serving the Church and community. This commitment to spiritual growth and human service unifies the diverse student population at Hellenic College.

Early Action Admission

If Hellenic College is your clear first-choice college, you are strongly encouraged to apply for early action. Designed to provide freedom and flexibility for students seeking an early indication of their chances for admission, early action continues to serve students well. Those admitted early are free to apply to other colleges and compare financial aid offers from other institutions.

Benefits of Early Action:

- Early consideration for scholarships and financial aid
- Earliest consideration for on-campus housing
- Peace of mind

Regular Decision Admission

Applications submitted under regular decision will be reviewed on a rolling admission basis. Once all application materials have been received, the College will notify you of its decision within ten regular business days.

How to Apply

Hellenic College accepts students of all races and creeds. The College admits qualified first-year and transfer students to all programs in September and January. In evaluating applicants for admission, the Admissions Committee looks at the whole person. Admission is based on each candidate's academic record, application, personal essay, recommendations, extracurricular activities, and test scores.

APPLICATION PLAN	DUE DATE
Early action – Freshman	December 1
Priority deadline	February 1
Regular deadline	March 1
Enrollment deposit deadline	May 1
Spring deadline	November 1
Spring enrollment deposit deadline	January 1

General Requirements

All of the following are taken into consideration in judging qualifications for admission:

- Completed application form*
- Personal Essay (choose one of the Hellenic College questions or submit your Common Application essay)
- Official copy of all transcripts (all high schools and colleges you have attended)
- Evaluations from two instructors/employers*
- ACT or SAT test scores (waived for transfer students with over 24 credits of college work)
- Interview with the director of admissions (in person, on phone, or via Skype)
- Health report and immunization verification* (required for enrollment, not acceptance)

*Forms included in application packet.

In addition, the following applicants must submit:

Seminarian Applicants

Hierarchy's evaluation*

Priest's recommendation*

International Applicants

Immigration status declaration*

Affidavit of support*

TOEFL test scores

Hellenic College Code #: 9794

Transfer Applicants

Submit course descriptions or course catalog from previous colleges/universities

*Forms included in application packet.

Results from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); Hellenic College requires a minimum score of 550 on the paper-based test or a minimum score of 79-80 on the new Internet-based testing.

Students wishing to transfer to Hellenic College from regionally accredited colleges must normally have a minimum 2.00 grade point average in their previous college work. Students transferring credit must have earned at least a C in the course from an accredited institution. Both an official transcript and a course catalog that lists course descriptions must be submitted for review. Courses are accepted that correspond to courses offered by the college or are related to them. A two-year residence is required, and one-half plus one credits must be earned from their program to be awarded a degree from Hellenic College.

Once application materials are submitted to Hellenic College, they become the permanent record of Hellenic College and may not be returned to the applicant.

Special Students

One may apply for admission as a special student. Normally, this is a student who does not technically fulfill all of the requirements for admission as a full-time or part-time candidate for a degree. Special student status may be held for only one academic year. Following this, a student must request either full-time or part-time status or must withdraw. Students with special student status are ineligible for federal financial aid as required by the Department of Education. Students with special student status are also ineligible for institutional scholarships.

International Students

Students who are applying from foreign countries must obtain an F-1 student visa in compliance with sections 101(a) F(11) of United States law.

Hellenic College international students are responsible for keeping their own passports valid beyond the expiration date by six months. International students are required to report their addresses to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) on Form I-53, available at any U.S. post office on or before January 31 of each year.

Proficiency in English to pursue a course of study equivalent to that normally required of an American applicant must be demonstrated through the TOEFL scores. To be eligible for admission as an international student, you must meet the following criteria:

- Must be a degree-seeking student.
- Meet admission criteria for freshmen, for transfer students, or you must possess a second bachelor's degree, which ever is applicable.
- Pass the TOEFL test with a minimum score of 550 on the paper-based test, or a minimum score of 79-80 on the internet-based TOEFL.
- File a HCHC Financial Statement that indicates that your sponsor has sufficient finances to support you for the duration of your stay in the United States. Downloaded financial statements must be mailed to us because signatures are required.
- Maintain full-time enrollment in order to comply with federal regulations.

When registering for the TOEFL exam, please note the Hellenic College TOEFL code number is 9794.

To be in compliance with federal law, international students must maintain full-time status (12 minimum credit hours).

In addition to the admissions requirements for all students, international students must submit an immigration status declaration form and an affidavit of support. Support from churches, organizations, individuals, other outside parties, etc., must be documented in writing and indicate monetary amounts thereof.

International students are required to be in full compliance of all laws and regulations regarding their studies and immigration status. Failure to do so is basis for dismissal.

Conditional Acceptance

Hellenic College occasionally accepts students who marginally meet the requirements for acceptance under certain conditions that are designed to support academic success. These conditions include, but are not limited to, reduced course load, enrollment in Eisodos (Hellenic College's freshman seminar equivalent), close monitoring of academic performance, and periodic academic advisement. The student must achieve a GPA of 2.0 or higher (a grade of C or better in each class) to gain full status. At the end of that period, the College will reexamine the student's performance and accordingly accept or dismiss the student. A student under conditional acceptance may not be eligible for financial aid.

Learning about Hellenic College

The Office of Admissions encourages qualified students who are interested in pursuing a well-rounded liberal arts education to apply for admission. To learn more about Hellenic College and its programs, visit our website at www.hchc.edu or contact the Office of Admissions toll-free at 866-HCHC-EDU (866-424-2338), 617-850-1285, or by fax at 617-850-1465. You may also write: Office of Admissions, Hellenic College, 50 Goddard Ave., Brookline, MA 02445; or email: admissions@hchc.edu.

Campus Visits

An important part of choosing a college is the campus visit. Candidates can tour the campus Monday-Friday at 11:00 a.m. or 2:00 p.m. as well as meet with the director of admissions, Hellenic College faculty, and staff members weekdays throughout the year between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Prospective students are welcome to attend classes during their campus visit. Campus visits and meetings must be arranged in advance by contacting the Office of Admissions or by visiting www.hchc.edu/admissions. Prospective students wishing to spend the night on campus must schedule their stay at least two weeks in advance and must be accompanied by an adult or submit a signed waiver if under the age of twenty-one.

Financial Information

See the financial aid section for basic fees, payment policy, and financial aid details.

Academic Information

Registration

Registration takes place in several steps, all of which must be completed before registration can be considered valid. To register, students should:

- Obtain financial clearance from the finance office
- Pick up registration packets
- Choose their courses
- Have their registration forms reviewed and signed by their advisors
- Submit the form to the registrar's office
- Obtain class schedule
- Make course adjustments during the designated drop/add period at the beginning of each semester
- Complete the writing placement examination. All incoming students are required to take a placement examination in English composition administered by the Literature and History program.

Confidentiality

The registrar's office gives students the opportunity to prevent personal information from being released to friends, relatives, or interested persons who inquire at the registrar's office and to delete the student's name from the student directory, in order to comply with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (The Buckley Amendment). This is accomplished by completing a form that is available in the registrar's office or on registrar's webpage. See the student handbook for more information.

Late Registration

Any student who fails to register at the appropriate scheduled time is charged a late registration fee of $100.

Course Adjustments

A drop/add form must be obtained from the registrar's office, signed by the appropriate professor(s) and the academic advisor, and returned to the office within the designated time period. Any course dropped after this time is considered a withdrawal. Applicable refunds are outlined within the Financial Information section.

Course Load

Usually five 3-credit courses are taken each semester. Some students may also be required to enroll in one 1.5-credit course and/or an additional 3-credit course in certain semesters according to their program. Students who wish to take an additional course in any semester must receive the permission of the dean. The minimum course load for full-time students is 12 credits. Any student taking more than 18 credits per semester will be required to pay additional tuition. During the midterm and final examinations, a student may petition the faculty to reschedule examinations in the event that a student is scheduled to take more than two exams on one day.

Class Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class promptly and regularly, to prepare assignments with care, to turn in their papers on time, and to take an active part in class discussions. At the beginning of each course, the professor will make it clear to his or her students that excessive absences will necessarily affect their actual progress and achievement in learning and will be taken into account when their work is evaluated. Each professor will, at that time, define the term "excessive" as meaning in excess of 150 minutes of absence from a class. The dean will be consulted in case of extraordinary circumstances.

Course Auditing

Any student intending to audit a course (and earn no credit) is required to note this on the registration form and to receive the permission of the course instructor. Auditors are expected to attend all regular classes. A student who first registers for a course for credit may change to auditor status only during the drop/add period. A student who first registers for a course for auditor status may change to credit status only during the drop/add period. Courses audited are not included in determining the total credits earned. The charge for courses that are audited is 50% of regular tuition rates.

Directed Study

Directed study is an opportunity for an outstanding student to work closely with a full-time faculty member in a special field of study that complements the student's major program. The student will have the opportunity to pursue research of a scholarly nature or to complete a special term project. Directed study offers the student a chance to study content that is not part of the regular curriculum. It is not a substitution for, nor individualized tutoring in, courses regularly offered. The College is not obligated to provide directed studies.

A student may undertake a course as a directed study by drafting a proposal in cooperation with the appropriate instructor. This proposal should be prepared on a form available in the registrar's office. It must carry the signature of the faculty member and the chair of the department and then should be submitted to the dean of the College for final approval. Directed study is reserved for juniors and seniors. The student must have a GPA of 3.0. Generally only one directed study per year is allowed. Each participant is normally allowed two directed studies toward his or her degree.

Tutorials

A tutorial is one-on-one instruction in a course that is currently in the Hellenic College catalog. Such tutorials are only offered in instances when a course is required for graduation that semester and course enrollment does not permit the regular scheduling of that course. The College is not obligated to provide tutorials.

Cross-Registration

Students can further broaden their intellectual horizons by taking advantage of cross-registration opportunities with Boston College and Newbury College. Students who wish to cross-register must have the approval of their program chair and have completed one semester of course work at Hellenic College. Students should have a GPA of 3.0 or above and be in good academic standing (no probation or disciplinary issues); they are permitted a maximum of one cross-registration course per semester unless granted permission otherwise by the dean.

Seniors and juniors may also petition to register for courses in Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. Students must have a GPA of 3.5 or above and may only register for first-year core classes or lower-level electives for which all prerequisites have been completed. If a student chooses to apply those credits toward his or her undergraduate degree requirements and subsequently matriculates in the School of Theology, those courses may not be applied toward his or her graduate requirements. To register, students must have the signature of the associate dean of academic affairs.

Incomplete Course Work

Students are expected to complete course requirements by the date established by the instructor. A student may petition for an extension in the event that requirements are not completed. A form for an extension request must be obtained from the registrar's office and the request must be approved by the instructor, who will grant the incomplete if it is deemed appropriate. Completed and approved petitions must be filed in the registrar's office no later than the last day of class. All course requirements must be completed within thirty days from the last day of the semester, after which all incompletes are converted to grades. Only one request for an extension will be granted each semester per student, unless otherwise recommended by the program chair and approved by the dean.

Withdrawal from a Course

Withdrawal takes place after the confirmation of registration. A student should (1) obtain a course change authorization form from the registrar's office, (2) have it approved by his or her professor and advisor, and (3) return it to the registrar's office. Withdrawals before the designated period will be recorded as W. This notation has no bearing on the calculation of the grade point average, but students who withdraw are not eligible for academic honors that semester. Applicable refunds are outlined within the financial information section. The last day to withdraw from a course is the last day of class. Students who withdraw from class merely by being absent will be given a WF, which is equivalent to a grade of F, and they will incur full financial obligation to the college. Students are not allowed to withdraw from more than one course per semester without the recommendation of the program director and approval of the dean.

Grading System

The grades assigned the student at the end of each term, together with the equivalent grade points, are as follows:

Grade	Grade Points	Equivalent
A	4.00	93 and above
A-	3.67	90–92
B+	3.33	87–89
B	3.00	83–86
B-	2.67	80–82
C+	2.33	77–79
C	2.00	73–76
C-	1.67	70–72
D	1.00	65–69
F	0.00	Failure
I	Incomplete
P	Pass
Au	Audit
W	Withdraw
WF	Withdraw	Failure

Good Standing and Honors

All students must maintain a grade point average of 2.00 (C) per semester in order to be considered in good standing. A grade point average of 2.00 is required for graduation.

Students with a grade point average of 3.8 or higher are placed on the President's List.

Students with a grade point average of 3.5 or higher but less than 3.8 are named to the Dean's List.

Students with a grade point average of 3.00 or higher but less than 3.5 are placed on the Honors List.

Contesting Grades on Exams or Assignments

During the semester, if a student would like to contest the grade of an exam or assignment, the following process is observed:

- The student discusses with the professor the contested grade as soon as practicable. The professor explains why the student received that grade.
- If the student believes that the grade was arbitrary, he or she will petition the dean.
- Upon review, the dean will determine whether the grade remains or if the matter should be reviewed by two other faculty members.
- After consultation with the reviewers, the dean will make the final determination.
- In the event that the instructor in question was the dean, this process shall be followed by the associate dean.

Contesting Final Grades

Final grades are final. A student may challenge a final grade only by demonstrating that an error was made in computation or that an assignment was overlooked. Students must contact the registrar and the instructor within thirty days of the end of the semester. The registrar and the instructor will review their records to determine whether an error was made and respond within a week.

Course Transfers, Waivers, and Advanced Credit

A student may be exempted from a particular course provided that he or she can demonstrate to the faculty a reasonable competence in the elements of the course by achieving a satisfactory score on a College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exam in the related subject matter. Students should consult the program chairs for guidance in determining the appropriate exams and requisite scores.

Students who served in the military may have received training for which they may receive college credits. Military students may obtain their transcript through AARTS and submit it to the registrar for evaluation by the Degrees, Policies, and Procedures Committee (DPPC).

Students who took AP courses in high school and received a score of four (4) or higher may submit those courses to the registrar for evaluation and potential credit. The DPP Committee will evaluate the courses and transcripts and will render its decision.

Students may transfer up to 60 credits, in courses with a grade of C or higher, from another accredited college to be

DPP Committee to evaluate whether or not the courses may be counted for credit within a student's program. The DPP Committee will inform the dean and the registrar of its decision and will grant all credits deemed appropriate.

Students seeking to transfer credits from an unaccredited institution must demonstrate that course content and the qualifications of instructors meet the standards of an accredited institution by submitting additional documentation (e.g., course syllabi, faculty biographies, etc.). In addition to the review by the DPP Committee, the department chair must approve the courses.

Matriculated students desiring to take courses outside Hellenic College must complete a Transient Enrollment Form, available in the registrar's office.

Contesting Transfer Credits

In the case of contested transfer credits the following process is followed:

- The student petitions the DPP Committee to reconsider the number of courses and credits accepted for transfer, offering additional or clarifying information about such courses/credits.
- The DPP Committee convenes to discuss the petition and render its decision.
- The DPP Committee informs the student of its decision.

In the event the student is contesting a decision originally made by the DPP Committee, the student will petition the associate dean who will review the matter and additional information, and determine whether a second review is warranted by either the DPP Committee or another appropriate faculty committee.

Leaves of Absence

A leave of absence will be granted for up to a total of two semesters. No student may have a leave of absence longer than two semesters during his or her years at the college, subject to review by the academic dean. A request for a leave of absence for a semester or for a full academic year should be filed with the registrar's office before the end of the semester preceding the leave.

Withdrawal from Hellenic College

A student desiring to withdraw voluntarily from Hellenic College must (1) secure an application for withdrawal from the registrar's office, (2) obtain the required signatures, and (3) file the application with the same office. The mark W will be entered on his or her transcript, and credit will not be granted if withdrawal takes place after the eighth week of instruction. A student who fails to withdraw in the prescribed manner stated above will not be entitled to an honorable dismissal or to any refund.

Withdrawal will not be permitted without the written consent of the parent or guardian in the case of a minor. Readmission after withdrawal must be made through the Office of Admissions.

Readmission after Withdrawal from Hellenic College

Students that have withdrawn voluntarily from Hellenic College and have received an honorable dismissal may seek readmission through the Office of Admissions. They must submit the following documentation:

- A petition for readmission form
- A letter addressed to the director of admissions detailing reasons for seeking readmission
- A one- to two-page update to the original autobiographical statement recounting activities since leaving Hellenic College
- Official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken since leaving Hellenic College

International petitioners must submit anew the following forms: affidavit of support, immigration status declaration, and dependent family visa request and affidavit (if applicable).

All communications with Hellenic College must be conducted through the Office of Admissions. Petitions must be completed by June 25 for the fall semester and October 25 for the spring semester. The Readmission Committee will decide on the petition after reviewing the original application dossier together with the student's record and the autobiographical statement update if it has been two years or fewer since the student withdrew. The Readmission Committee and the Admissions Committee will need to approve the student's return if the student has been away for more than two years and up to five years. The student will need to reapply if he or she is returning after more than five years. Students whose petitions have been denied may submit a complete application after two years.

Probation and Academic Dismissal

Less than a 2.00 (C) grade point average automatically places a student on academic and financial aid probation.

Students, academic advisors, and the Financial Aid Office will be informed in writing of the student's probationary status by the registrar in January for the spring semester and in June for the fall semester, provided that all the student's grades have been received by the registrar's office.

Students on academic probation may only register for twelve (12) credits the following semester. During that semester they are required to meet with an advisor periodically to discuss their progress; they are also encouraged to seek any tutorial assistance that might be necessary. Students may register for more than twelve credits only once they have proven that they can complete twelve (12) credits in a given semester with a grade of at least C in each class (no C-s, withdrawals, or incompletes).

Students who are on academic probation for two semesters, consecutive or not, will receive from the registrar notification of automatic academic dismissal and will be required to discontinue their studies at Hellenic College. See below for further instructions on reinstatement and/or readmission.

Students who have a grade point average of less than 1.00 (D) shall receive an automatic academic dismissal. See below for further instructions on reinstatement and/or readmission.

The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose academic work falls below its standards, who violates its rules and regulations, or whose continuing presence constitutes a risk to the well-being of others or the community as a whole.

Reinstatement or Readmission after Academic Dismissal

Within two weeks of being notified of academic dismissal, a student may formally petition the faculty for reinstatement by submitting to the dean's office a petition explaining any mitigating circumstances concerning the academic dismissal. If reinstated, a student will be ineligible for federal financial aid until satisfactory academic progress is proven and confirmed by the dean.

In the event the petition to be reinstated is denied, a student may petition to be readmitted in one of the following two semesters. The following documentation must be submitted:

- A petition for readmission form
- A letter addressed to the Director of Admissions detailing reasons for seeking readmission
- A one- to two-page update to original autobiographical statement recounting activities since dismissal
- Official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken since dismissal

International petitioners must submit anew the following forms: affidavit of support, immigration status declaration, and dependent family visa request and affidavit (if applicable).

All communications with Hellenic College must be conducted through the Office of Admissions. Petitions must be completed by June 25 for the fall semester and by October 25 for the spring semester. The Readmission Committee will decide on the petition after reviewing the original application dossier together with the student's record and the autobiographical statement update. Students whose petitions have been denied may submit a new, complete application after two years have elapsed. Students who do not submit a petition for readmission within the allotted time period must submit a new application should they decide to seek readmission at a later date.

Academic Expulsion

If a student is found guilty of a serious academic violation, the College may expel the student. Expulsion is a permanent and irrevocable dismissal of a student from the College.

The dean will appoint an ad hoc committee to examine questions of academic impropriety. Following the committee's review, the case is referred to the dean to be adjudicated by the faculty.

Academic Honesty

As part of their scholarly development, students learn how to work cooperatively in a community of scholars and how to make fruitful use of the work of others without violating intellectual honesty. They learn the parameters of collaboration and the proper forms of quoting, summarizing, and paraphrasing. Faculty advisors and other faculty members will give additional information and instruction in this area.

A student is subject to disciplinary action if found in violation of the accepted norms of student accountability in his or her academic work. All work submitted to meet course requirements (homework assignments, papers, examinations) is expected to be the student's own work, designed and presented for one course only. In the preparation of work submitted to meet course requirements, students should always take care to distinguish their own ideas from information derived from primary and secondary sources. The responsibility for learning the proper forms of citation lies with each individual student. All paraphrased material must be acknowledged.

Some Specific Types of Academic Dishonesty

- Data falsification: the fabrication of data or the alteration of data included in a report
- Plagiarism: taking another's statements, ideas, or information without full and proper acknowledgment and presenting them as one's own
- Collusion: assisting another student by allowing him to copy one's own work, the use of purchased essays or term papers, and unauthorized cooperation in assignments or during an examination

Hellenic College insists upon the highest standards of academic integrity in all student work, both written and oral. A full discussion of the responsibilities of students and faculty in this matter can be found in the student handbook.

The following steps will be taken in the event of plagiarism:

- The faculty member will present evidence of plagiarism to the student. The faculty member will inform the dean and arrange a meeting with the student, the dean, and, if necessary, other involved parties if plagiarism is confirmed by the student or is indisputable on account of the evidence.
- The student will be placed on academic probation if the above meeting results in agreement that plagiarism has occurred. Hellenic College faculty members for courses in which the student is enrolled will be informed of the student's plagiarism. The dean and the faculty member who initiated the process of assessing the student's plagiarism will proceed with disciplinary measures that reflect the severity of the act. Those measures may include, but are not limited to: failing the course where plagiarism occurred, withdrawing from said course without reimbursement, and/or redoing the assignment(s) for a lower grade.
- The process will be repeated if said student commits a second offense of plagiarism. The second academic probation will result in more severe consequences if plagiarism is confirmed. Additional measures may be taken, such as those listed above, and the student may also be expelled from the College.
- The student may appeal the decisions of the dean and the faculty member by petitioning the Disciplinary Committee.
- In the event that the reporting faculty is also the dean, the process will be mediated by the chair of the DPP Committee.

Student Life

The Office of Student Life (OSL) provides a holistic, integrated, and responsive approach to co-curricular education within the context of a nurturing and formative Orthodox Christian community life that addresses the moral, intellectual, and spiritual development of HCHC students and prepares them for roles of service-oriented leadership. To that end, OSL serves the HCHC community in many capacities and supports student initiatives for improving community life. OSL also assists students and their families with problems for which they have been unable to find adequate resolution elsewhere.

The dean of students oversees the following student activities: the Student Government Association (SGA), Campus Activities Board (CAB), the seminarian program, HCHC community events, disciplinary procedures, the student directory, the Synaxis (gathering of the student body) schedule, guest speakers, retreats, special needs of individual students and their families, and diakonia (community service) assignments.

Student Organizations and Activities

Student Government Association – The purpose of the student government is to act as the legislative, unifying, and enforcing representative of the student body. SGA is the parent organization of all student organizations, including the Campus Activities Board, Married Student Association, Hellenic Student Association, Spiritual Life Committee, and Athletics. These organizations, along with a representative from each class in both Hellenic College and Holy Cross, work together to strengthen religious, intellectual, and social responsibilities of the community and coordinate the shared desires of the students.

Campus Activities Board – CAB is the community's center for campus fellowship. CAB sponsors events throughout the year that are geared for all members of the HCHC community, including a Fall Festival, a fall and spring Panigiri, The Chamby's Awards Show, Boat Cruise, Tournament of Champions, and Graduation Dinner Dance. CAB also provides events once or twice a month to give students a break from academics.

Byzantine Choir – The choir is named for St. Romanos the Melodist, a saint known for his gift for sacred music. The choir, which sings and performs ecclesiastical music in the Byzantine tradition and traditional Greek music, is often invited to perform at special occasions in the Greater Boston area and elsewhere. The St. Kassia Byzantine Choir, a women's choir composed of students from both schools, operates in conjunction with this program.

Married Student Association – MSA provides a forum for the interaction of married students and resolution of issues particular to their situation, performs philanthropic work, and assists in various community activities. MSA is open to married students and their spouses residing both on- and off-campus.

Orthodox Inter-Seminary Movement – The Orthodox Inter-Seminary Movement helps to improve relations among Orthodox seminarians of all jurisdictions throughout the United States and Canada. Weekend encounters are held at the various member seminaries during the academic year. Emphasis is placed on spiritual, intellectual, and social activities among the representatives of all the member seminaries.

Intramural Sports – Throughout the school year, a wide variety of coed intramural sports are offered to provide our students with an opportunity for physical exercise and healthy competition. Typically, flag football and indoor soccer are offered in the fall semester, while basketball and volleyball are offered in the spring.

Missions Committee – The Missions Committee works to promote a mission consciousness at HCHC, increasing awareness and exposure of the work of Orthodox Christian missionaries worldwide. The committee supports missions through an annual missions week, regular service projects, and short-term mission trips.

Orthodox Christian Fellowship – OCF works to support Orthodox fellowship on college campuses through witness, prayer, service, and study. HCHC, housing the OCF headquarters on campus, is often able to come together with students from other OCF chapters in the Boston area, hosting service, prayer, and fellowship events throughout the year.

HCHC Ambassadors – The Ambassadors are a group of carefully selected students from both Hellenic College and Holy Cross who are trained in youth ministry throughout the academic year. Implementing these skills, the Ambassadors travel throughout the country to run programs for Orthodox Christian youth and educate them about HCHC.

Psychology Club – Providing programs and information regarding graduate schools and career opportunities, the Psychology Club is led primarily by students in the Human Development program. Students explore psychological conferences and presentations and work closely with the psychology faculty at HCHC.

Hellenic Student Association – Spreading Hellenic culture and language, HSA hosts cultural events and activities throughout the academic year.

Spiritual Life Committee – Working to promote spiritual growth on campus, the Spiritual Life Committee hosts PROSCHOMEN, a weekly Bible study, and Synaxis, a weekly book club, allowing students to come together and discuss what they have read in light of Orthodox spirituality. The committee also hosts regular movie nights, service projects, and pilgrimages.

Other Committees and Activities – Various special committees and clubs organize particular programs for the school and respond to the special interests of students. Clubs can be started at any time with sufficient student interest.

Office of Chaplaincy

The Chaplaincy Office exists to assist students, faculty, and staff in their spiritual growth on campus. In particular it offers the following ministries:

- Coordinates the liturgical life on campus
- Oversees the chapel on campus
- Schedules services and serving clergy
- Supervises the various ministries in the chapel, such as the ecclesiarch, altar groups, chant groups, decorators, and ushers
- Educates in the liturgical life by producing liturgical texts and guides and by offering seminars
- Assists the President and the Department of Spiritual Formation and Counseling in overseeing the seminarian program
- Offers spiritual counsel
- Assists the spiritual father program on campus by encouraging students to establish and maintain relationships between the spiritual father and his spiritual son or daughter
- Coordinates various retreats

Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services

Our Mission

Students and families of students are invited to call upon the HCHC community's resources in the areas of spiritual formation and counseling to strengthen and enhance their personal growth. The Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services (SFCS) supports the mission of HCHC by nurturing the spiritual and psychological well-being and development of all students and their families, working in conjunction with the faculty, alumni, and the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. These programs are available to all students and family members. The Pastoral Care director and Psychological Care director coordinate the various services offered: spiritual fathers program, spiritual and psychological assessment, and counseling and referrals.

The Seminarian Program

Christian leadership requires a combination of love, knowledge, intuition, and faith – strengthened by self-confidence, tempered by humility, and modeled on the conciliarity of the Holy Trinity. Important as books are, liturgical and pastoral skills are best learned through the intangibles afforded by example and experience. The HCHC community is a parish in addition to being an educational institution.

Seminarians are required to participate regularly in daily chapel services, scheduled Synaxes (community gatherings called by the president), diakonia (community service) assignments, on- and off-campus retreats, and other community events. In addition, all seminarians are required to participate in annual events such as the Greater Boston Greek Independence Day celebrations and graduation ceremonies. As future leaders of the larger community, seminarians must first show themselves to be self-motivated and responsible to the HCHC community. Although the responsibilities to the HCHC community may sometimes be hard to balance with the demands of academic life, in many ways one's future service to the Church and society will require a similar balance.

The president is ultimately responsible for students' admission to and participation in the Seminarian Program. The president is also responsible for overall implementation and effectiveness of SFCS, which affirms a holistic view of formation. All students interested in the Seminarian Program must complete a separate application and complete the preadmission requirements as detailed in the Seminarian Program checklist. The candidate's dossier must be completed before being considered for the program. More information about the Seminarian Program is found in the student handbook.

The SFCS co-directors also advise the president on students' readiness for Church ministry (including, but not limited to, the participants of the Seminarian Program). Participation in activities promoting spiritual and psychological formation and development is expected of the seminarians and seminarian candidates.

Spiritual Fathers Program

In keeping with the tradition of the Orthodox Church, students and families of students are encouraged to establish and maintain an ongoing relationship with a spiritual father. The SFCS staff can help in selecting a spiritual father if necessary. The spiritual father guides his charges in development of Christian character and provides guidance in striving—askesis—toward spiritual development.

Maintenance of a relationship with one's spiritual father is essential to participate in the Seminarian Program. For the seminarian, his spiritual father will be his sponsor and signer of the symmartyria to be read at ordination. Additionally, students are referred by the spiritual assessment provider to their spiritual father to discuss strengths, areas of growth, and pastoral concerns.

Academic Support and Disability Services

Students struggling academically can receive academic support in the form of organizational and time management skill building, while students with diagnosed learning disabilities are eligible to receive specialized services and accommodations under state and federal laws. These may include testing accommodations (extended time, separate locations, etc.), use of assistive technology, priority course selection, or consultations with on- and off-campus learning disability specialists. Furthermore, subject peer-tutors are available free of charge to all HCHC students who need one-on-one academic assistance.

Counseling and Referrals

SFCS counselors assist students and their families in resolving a wide variety of problems. Our counselors provide short-term counseling with referrals (as needed), crisis intervention, and educational seminars to the students and their families. In most cases, students contact a counselor directly by calling (617) 850-1289 or dropping by the office. In some cases, a spiritual father, faculty member, or staff member may refer students for assistance. In other cases, seminarian candidates may be referred for counseling subsequent to their psychological evaluation.

Spiritual Assessment

Using instruments, interviews, and reflective assessments, students will have opportunities to address their spiritual and pastoral concerns. The assessment is ongoing, occurring before and during the Seminarian Program. While required for the seminarians, any student may inquire about using this service.

Psychological Assessment

This resource exists to strengthen and enhance the students' emotional growth. While any student may ask about using this service, it is required for those entering the Seminarian Program. Please contact the SFCS staff for information regarding accessing on- and off-campus psychological assessments.

Office of Vocation and Ministry

The mission of the Office of Vocation and Ministry (OVM) at Hellenic College is to train, educate, and inspire the future leaders of the Orthodox Church and society. It provides opportunities for growth in Orthodox Christian vocation and leadership through theological inquiry, ongoing reflection, and service activities to college students, high school students, and those who serve them.

OVM defines vocation as one's unique and ongoing response to Christ's call to love God with heart, soul, mind, and strength and love one's neighbor as oneself. It seeks to encourage all participants to consider their life as vocation and to nurture the next generation of leaders who are called to full-time ministry in the Church, whether to the ordained priesthood or to lay ministry.

OVM seeks to be theologically and faithfully Orthodox Christian; to be excellent stewards of the resources of its grants from Lilly Endowment Inc., The Archbishop Iakovos Leadership 100 Endowment Fund, the Virginia H. Farah Foundation, and individual benefactors; to work with integrity, energy, and creativity; to provide engaging and rich programs through effective administration; to publish resources to share learning; and to utilize collaborative inquiry for ongoing program planning and evaluation.

In January of 2003, Hellenic College became one of eighty-eight accredited universities in the United States to receive a five-year grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. The purpose of the grant is to (1) help undergraduate students relate faith and vocational choices, (2) increase the number of qualified candidates for Christian ministry (lay and ordained), and (3) enhance the capacity of a school's faculty to teach and mentor students in the vocational arena. From 2003–2011, approximately one-quarter of Lilly Endowment grant funding to OVM supported vocation-related efforts of Orthodox Christian Fellowship, the North American campus ministry effort under SCOBA. In May 2006, Lilly Endowment awarded Hellenic College a sustainability grant to continue these programs through July 2012. Today OVM has officially "graduated" from Lilly Endowment support and is now supported by our greater Orthodox community of philanthropists and foundations, including Leadership 100, Old Neighborhood Foods, the Virginia H. Farah Foundation, the Cottonwood Foundation, the Gerondelis Foundation, the Novak Family Foundation, and numerous individual benefactors.

OVM offers vocational exploration programs for Hellenic College undergraduates, a summer institute for high school students known as CrossRoad, and opportunities for faculty at Hellenic College and Orthodox faculty nationally to develop their vocations through the Orthodox Scholars Initiative. In addition to OVM's programs, OVM publishes resources to share Orthodox perspectives on vocation and related topics. The OVM-initiated publication Christ at Work: Orthodox Christian Perspectives on Vocation (Holy Cross Orthodox Press, 2006) serves as a guiding text.

Programs for Hellenic College Students

Housed in the Skouras Classroom building, Room 220, OVM is a busy hub with students and faculty frequently gathering for conversation around the coffee pot. OVM's programs, offerings, and individual meetings with students invite them to apply their understanding of vocation in a concrete way to academic, career, and ministry endeavors.

- Incoming Retreat: to introduce new Hellenic College students to vocational reflection
- St. Photios the Great Faith and Learning Symposium: open to all Orthodox college students in the Boston area
- The Round Table: monthly discussion forum for undergraduate juniors and seniors on vocation and contemporary issues, hosted off-campus by a staff or faculty member in his or her home
- Exploration of the Priestly Vocation: mentoring sessions for undergraduates interested in the priesthood
- Women in Leadership and Service: mentoring sessions for undergraduate women, exploring roles and careers in ministry

Service Learning Course: a year-long course (1.5 credits each semester) called Introduction to Community Engagement, which allows students to engage in service as they explore and discern vocation and career paths.

Programs for Hellenic College Faculty and Orthodox Faculty Nationally

Since its inception, OVM has provided the leaders at Hellenic College unique opportunities for integrating the exploration of vocation into the very life of the school through curriculum review, revision of the College mission statement, and retreats for faculty, staff, and administration. The Orthodox Scholars Initiative began in June 2008 as a broadening of OVM faculty programs at Hellenic College. It aims at enhancing the capacity of (a) Hellenic College faculty and (b) Orthodox Christian faculty nationally to:

- Inform and expand their own sense of vocation as scholars and teachers in the various disciplines of higher education
- Teach and mentor undergraduate students around the topic of vocation
- Contribute scholarly work on the Orthodox Christian theological exploration of vocation
- Contribute scholarly work on the relationship between Orthodox Christianity and higher education

OVM is preparing a volume of collected essays from notable Orthodox scholars on the topic “Orthodox Christianity and Higher Education” and hosts a database of Orthodox scholars from all disciplines at www.osi.hchc.edu.

CrossRoad, a Summer Institute for Orthodox Christian High School Students

CrossRoad is an academic summer program for high school juniors and seniors held on campus at Hellenic College. In 2008 the program doubled in size and now hosts two ten-day sessions, accommodating sixty Orthodox high school juniors and seniors each year. The program is for students who would love:

- Classes in Orthodox theology
- Discussions on vocation and calling
- Daily chapel services
- Service to the community
- Unparalleled fellowship for Orthodox Christian youth

In addition, CrossRoad annually hosts a retreat for its alumni every Lent during the Sunday of the Cross and publishes an alumni magazine. See www.crossroad.hchc.edu for more information, and let us know if we can send informational material to a high school student you know!

Publications on the Orthodox Christian Exploration of Vocation

In addition to its programs, OVM seeks to publish resources to share what it is learning. The following are available through the Holy Cross Bookstore, OVM, and/or online at the OVM websites (www.vocation.hchc.edu, www.crossroad.hchc.edu):

- Reflections on Mentoring at Hellenic College (ed. Bezzerides, Holy Cross Orthodox Press, 2010). Essays on mentoring by Stamatia Dova, Demetrios Katos, Ellen Lanzano, Maria Mackavey, Alice McIntyre, Timothy Patitsas, Eugen Pentiu, Kathleen Ryan, and Theodore Stylianopoulos.
- Christ at Work: Orthodox Christian Perspectives on Vocation (ed. Bezzerides, Holy Cross Orthodox Press, 2006). Essays on vocation by Paul Nadim Tarazi, John Barnet, Theodore Stylianopoulos, Khaled Anatolios, Demetrios Katos, Paul Meyendorff, Deborah Belonick, and Stanley Harakas. Accompanying Christ at Work Study Guide also available.
- Vocation and Parenting: An Audio Resource. Addressing the topics “The Vocation of Parenting” and “Parenting for Vocation,” this resource is geared for the parents of Orthodox Christian high school and college-age youth but has relevant wisdom for all Christians. Key talks by Thomas Hopko, Albert Rossi, and Nicholas C. Triantafyllou.
- Our Youth and Their Vocation: Holy Decisions at the Crossroad of Life. This resource outlines some of the vocational challenges faced by today’s youth and offers suggestions for parents to help children and adolescents navigate decision-making. By Ann Bezzerides, Nicholas Belcher, and Mary Long.
- Down the Road, the CrossRoad alumni newsletter, available at crossroad.hchc.edu. Further written and audio talks can be found online at www.vocation.hchc.edu.

The staff of the Office of Vocation and Ministry always welcomes conversation on the theological exploration of vocation and Church ministry. Call or email us to make an appointment and join us for coffee!

Financial Information

Basic Fees

The academic year is divided into two semesters. The following are the expenses for each semester of the academic year 2015–2017 and are subject to change.

Payment

To obtain financial clearance from the bursar's office:

- A student must settle any balance remaining from the previous semester.
- Prior to the start of classes each semester, a student must pay or show valid evidence that payment is forthcoming for the full amount of the current semester's net charges. Valid evidence should include documentation of bank loans, scholarships in process, financial aid, etc.

In special cases as approved by bursar, temporary deferred payment arrangements may be made provided that the balance is paid in full before the end of that current semester.

- Every graduating student must settle and pay all financial obligations to the institution twenty (20) business days prior to graduation in order to participate in graduation exercises and receive a diploma or transcript.

Refunds

Tuition and Room and Board refunds are determined by the number of weeks a student has attended class or has been in residence, as outlined below:

Week 1:	90% refund
Week 2:	80% refund
Week 3:	60% refund
Week 4:	30% refund

There are no refunds given after the fourth week of the semester.

Additionally, a student who withdraws from the school and fails to do so in the prescribed manner will not be entitled to any refund.

Financial Aid Overview

Hellenic College Holy Cross offers financial assistance to those students who qualify. Financial assistance may be offered in the form of scholarships, federal and state grants, assistantships, federal student loans, and employment. Awards are based on academic performance, special skills, demonstrated need, and the availability of funds (100% of our students receive some form of financial aid). The Office of Financial Aid will be glad to discuss how a student's particular needs can be met.

Student loans provide students with the opportunity to borrow against future earnings. Several loan programs supported by the federal government are available on the basis of financial need. Work/Study opportunities on and off campus make it possible for students to defray the cost of their education through part-time employment.

All students are expected to contribute to their education. All financial aid awards are considered supplemental to the contribution of the family and the student. To be eligible for federal funds a student must be accepted by the school; enrolled in a degree program; a citizen or permanent resident of the United States; in good academic standing and make satisfactory academic progress as outlined by school and federal standards. The student must complete all necessary applications on a timely basis. All forms are available in the Office of Financial Aid.

Vocational Grants (Leadership 100 Loan and Seminarian Funding)

Students who are enrolled at Holy Cross, have declared in writing their intention to be ordained as priests in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, and meet certain academic and performance-based standards are eligible for Leadership 100 loans. Leadership 100 loans are only given to Master of Divinity seminarian students. Once the student becomes ordained in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, the Leadership 100 loan is forgiven.

The amount funded under each student loan is determined by the amount of available funding and the number of participants. The average Leadership 100 loan for the academic year addresses approximately 85% of the seminarian's tuition bill.

The amount of funding received by each student shall be deemed a loan. Upon the student's ordination to the priesthood, the loan is forgiven. If a student leaves the school before graduation for any reason (except with written permission of the school president), or otherwise decides that he does not want to pursue ordination, the loan will become payable. The school may utilize outside third-party resources to administer and collect against such loans. All qualifying students will be required to sign a Declaration Agreement in order to receive such funding.

Alumni Scholarship

Students who are dependent children of alumni of Hellenic College Holy Cross may receive a 50% discount of the tuition rate or may choose to take advantage of better school scholarship offers. The 50% alumni scholarship may not be combined with other school offers and does not become the base to which other school aid is applied. Students who are candidates for the Holy Priesthood must accept vocational funding before becoming eligible for this scholarship.

Employee Scholarship

Students who are dependent children of a full-time employee of Hellenic College Holy Cross may receive a 50% discount of the tuition rate or may choose to take advantage of better school scholarship offers. The 50% employee scholarship may not be combined with other school offers and does not become the base to which other school aid is applied.

Teacher Assistantship Program

The Teacher Assistantship Program provides students with part-time positions assisting full-time members of the faculty. These assistantships are restricted to full-time, upper-class students whose cumulative grade point average is at least a 3.00 or B and who demonstrate financial need. Candidates are selected by individual faculty members in conjunction with the Office of Financial Aid.

Work Study Program

The Work Study Program offers a variety of part-time employment opportunities on campus. Students are selected based on demonstrated financial need and depending on the availability of positions. Work study jobs are assigned by the Financial Aid Office.

Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grant

Limited federal funds are available to students under the Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG). Grants are awarded according to School and federal guidelines, and are based on financial need.

State Scholarships

Many states offer scholarships and/or loans to their residents who wish to attend schools in their state. However, some states offer scholarships to their residents to attend schools in another state. The following states offer such “portable” aid programs: Connecticut; Rhode Island; Vermont; Pennsylvania; and the District of Columbia. Students may obtain further information from their high school guidance department or directly from the state agency responsible for such programs. Massachusetts residents may also write to the Hellenic College student Financial Aid Office.

Federal Direct Loan Program

The Federal Direct Loan Program provides students with the opportunity to borrow money from the Department of Education in order to pay for their education. The total annual amount that a student may borrow is based on a student’s status and year of study and varies from year to year according to federal guidelines.

All Federal Direct Loans are repaid by the students. Under the Subsidized Loan Program, students begin their repayment six months after they complete their programs of study. The federal government subsidizes the interest while the student is in school. The interest on unsubsidized Federal Direct Loans is not subsidized by the federal government and can either be paid by the student during his or her program of study or may be deferred until six months after the student finishes school. If the student chooses to have the interest accrued, it will capitalize, and the principal of the loan will increase significantly.

Applying for Financial Aid

Hellenic College encourages its present and prospective students to research the financial aid picture to keep abreast of any new funding programs. Realizing the expenses involved, every effort should be made to pursue any local awards that may be offered in your community. Hellenic College requires all students who wish to be considered for financial assistance to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov). A FAFSA is used to determine your eligibility for federal financial aid and/or grants. Once an Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) has been determined, the form is sent to Hellenic College to be used in determining eligibility for all financial aid programs. The student must also complete the Hellenic College financial aid form.

HELLENIC COLLEGE FEDERAL CODE FOR FAFSA APPLICATION: 002154

The Five Domains of Learning at Hellenic College

The General Education Requirements, combined with the requirements of each major and various co-curricular activities, offer learning opportunities in five designated domains.

I. LIBERAL ARTS AND HELLENISM

Students will graduate with a broad knowledge of the wider world by surveying the various disciplines of the arts and sciences. They will develop strong and transferable intellectual and practical skills, as well as analytical and problem-solving strategies. With a spirit of idealism, students will be prepared to become active citizens of the world.

II. PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE AND MASTERY

Students will graduate with competence in a specific field of study and the practical skills to enter their professional lives. Students will demonstrate personal integrity, effectiveness in defining and attaining goals, and a collaborative spirit in all endeavors. They will demonstrate a commitment to their professional development, including a focus on mentoring others.

III. SELF-KNOWLEDGE

Students will graduate with self-knowledge that is developed through participation in a campus community that affords opportunities to grow intellectually, forge meaningful relationships, participate in service-oriented projects, and experience the integration of faith in everyday life. Students will gain a keener sense of self-awareness and a deeper appreciation for their strengths, weaknesses, talents, and gifts.

IV. FAITH

Students will graduate with an ability to articulate the teachings of the Orthodox Christian faith. They will evaluate, incorporate, and synthesize those teachings into their own worldview. They will reflect on how those teachings could impact their vocational choices. They will participate in the worship and spiritual life of the Church and apply their education to serve the Church and society with love and discernment.

V. SERVICE

Students will graduate with the ability to distinguish between helping and serving. They will demonstrate an understanding that service is a relationship of equals and that they serve from a place of wholeness and a desire to connect with the wholeness in others. Service rests in the basic premise that the nature of life is sacred and they serve life not because it is broken but because it is holy.

Degree Requirements

Hellenic College confers the degree of Bachelor of Arts upon those students who have successfully completed the requirements that have been established by the faculty. Candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete the following general requirements:

- We require a minimum of 122 credits, but many programs require more. Students must achieve an overall grade point average of 2.00 or above. According to the present requirements, 59 of the credits are in the area of General Education, 42 of the credits are in Human Development and Religious Studies (B), 54 are in Classics, 42 in Elementary Education, 30 in Liberal Studies, and 57 in Religious Studies (A). The remaining credits are in elective courses.
- The standard period of time required to earn the bachelor's degree is four years (eight semesters) of full-time study. A minimum of four semesters of residence at Hellenic College is ordinarily required in the case of transfer students.
- The dean and the academic advisors are available to assist students in their academic progress. However, each student is ultimately responsible for the completion of the proper courses related to his or her course of study and for meeting all the degree requirements. Any divergence from the General Education curriculum must be approved by the program chair and the dean.
- Students are expected to maintain at least a C average throughout their college career.

Program Minors

Students may choose to pursue a minor in any program offered by Hellenic College by completing a sequence of 15 credits of work as prescribed by the minor requirements of each program.

Requirements for a Minor:

- A major and a minor cannot be taken from the same department.
- A minor shall consist of no fewer than 15 credits in a program of study as prescribed by the program or planned in consultation with a departmental advisor.
- General Education courses cannot be used to fulfill the minor requirement.
- A Declaration of a Minor form must be filled out and returned to the registrar's office; these forms are typically completed in the sophomore year but must be completed no later than the registration period in the spring semester of the junior year.

Hellenic College Honors Program

The Honors Program is an interdisciplinary endeavor of the College to support and acknowledge academic excellence. Through the Honors Program, honors students are united in their active approach to learning and their desire to go beyond formal requirements for their degree. An important aspect of the Honors Program is the opportunity to develop collegial and intellectually stimulating faculty-student relationships. The mentoring relationships that are fostered in the Honors Program are formed in the context of an appreciation for learning and a mutual respect for people's gifts, talents, and contributions to the teaching-learning process.

The heart of the program is the yearly seminar. The courses work together to provide a comprehensive overview of the intellectual and social forces that have shaped the modern world. Each semester is devoted to an integrated study of art, history, literature, music, the natural and social sciences, philosophy, and religion.

SAMPLING OF HONORS COURSES

HNRS 4927: Fieldwork and Community-Based Learning (Dr. McIntyre)

HNRS 4928: Christianity in Late Antiquity (Dr. Katos)

HNRS 4929: Honors Research Seminar (Dr. McIntyre)

The capstone of the Honors curriculum is the senior thesis project, an extended research project prepared under the individual guidance of a faculty mentor in one's major field. Graduate and professional schools, as well as prospective employers, recognize the thesis as a clear indication of a student's ability to do independent work at an advanced level.

Honors students complete a minimum of 15 credits in Honors courses. The Honors curriculum includes 6 credits for the thesis project and 3 credits for a seminar on the research and writing of a thesis.

APPLICATIONS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Students typically apply for the Honors Program in their sophomore year. The program is selective and requires the completion of an application form available in the Office of Admissions.

Writing Program Requirements

All incoming students who have not already received a grade of C or above for English Composition I taken at another college or achieved a score of at least 4 in AP for English Composition I must take the Writing Proficiency Test (WPT) given in the same classroom and at the same time assigned for the first day of class for ENG 1101.

Classics

Mission Statement

The mission of the Classics program at Hellenic College is to train young scholars in the languages, literatures, and civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome while also preparing them for graduate degrees and, ultimately, careers in the humanities, teaching, theology, and law. The Classics curriculum at Hellenic College combines a rigorous Ancient Greek language program with courses on the literature and culture of ancient Greece, Latin language, and Roman civilization (through cross-registration with Boston College). It also offers to its students the opportunity to study classics in Greece through the College Year in Athens program. Through program courses and activities, Classics majors at Hellenic College will develop advanced-level proficiency and translation skills in Attic Greek as well as the ability to engage critically and creatively with a variety of literary and non-literary ancient Greek texts. As a result, they will be able to identify and analyze the classical roots of Western civilization.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate advanced proficiency in Classical Greek and advanced knowledge of ancient Greek civilization
2. Demonstrate intermediate proficiency in Latin and intermediate knowledge of Roman civilization
3. Read and analyze texts critically and creatively, applying the methodology of classical philology and the principles of literary theory and literary criticism
4. Identify and analyze the classical roots of Western civilization

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate strong translation skills in Classical Greek (ten courses in Greek language and literature, plus electives)
2. Demonstrate intermediate translation skills in Latin (four courses in Latin language and literature, plus electives)
3. Apply their ability to read critically and creatively to a variety of texts, including ancient Greek and Roman literature (four Classics electives, 6-credit capstone project)
4. Engage in academic discourses that connect contemporary cultural contexts to ancient Greek and Roman history (four Classics electives)

Greek Studies

Mission Statement

The mission of the Greek Studies program is to introduce students to the many aspects of Greek language and culture and to provide a special service to students of Religious Studies at the College and the School of Theology. The wide range of courses offered, all levels of Greek, and the minors (see below) allow students to get fully immersed in the richness of Greek history, literature, and civilization. Additionally, the program offers a Certificate in Teaching Modern Greek to students interested in teaching at Greek day or afternoon schools in the Greek Archdiocesan School System.

Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies Minor

Students in other programs of Hellenic College may choose to minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies. Per the academic policies of Hellenic College, students may not use courses already taken in fulfillment of General Education Requirements toward the minor requirement. Students pursuing a minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies are required to complete a sequence of 15 credits of work selected from courses offered in the program.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate proficiency in the Greek language
2. Demonstrate wide knowledge of Greek history and culture
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the significant contributions of the Greeks to Western civilization
4. Identify and explain important dates and events that serve as landmarks of Greek history and culture

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates with a minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies are respectively expected to:

a. Minor in Byzantine Studies

1. Demonstrate a deep knowledge of Byzantine history and culture
2. Have a good understanding of Byzantine music and Byzantine art
3. Apply above knowledge in analyzing current events and offer cogent critique and comments

b. Minor in Modern Greek Studies

1. Demonstrate a solid knowledge of Modern Greek language
2. Demonstrate a deep knowledge of Modern Greek literature, history, and culture
3. Demonstrate advanced skills translating English into Modern Greek and superior skills translating Greek into English

The Kallinikeion Institute

The Kallinikeion Institute at Hellenic College and Holy Cross is an intensive modern Greek language program sponsored by the Kallinikeion Foundation. The program offers two courses in modern Greek, one at the Beginning and one at the Intermediate level. Each course meets for an average of five hours per day, Monday through Friday, in August, offering 102 hours of instruction in modern Greek and six credits towards graduation.

The Kallinikeion Institute provides its students with an abundance of opportunities to explore Greek culture, music, and literature, through program activities and HCHC resources; in the inspiring Boston academic environment, Kallinikeion students combine their study of modern Greek with museum visits, traditional Greek music concerts, Greek poetry recitation, and other educational events.

All Hellenic College Holy Cross full-time students are eligible for a full scholarship covering tuition, room and board, and all the other benefits of the Kallinikeion Institute. The program is open to outside students as well, depending on availability. If you are planning to enroll in the Kallinikeion Institute, please visit the Kallinikeion website (http://www.hchc.edu/academics/summer_courses) or contact the HCHC Registrar for more information on registration deadlines. Also, please note the following:

- Students wishing to enroll in Intermediate Modern Greek I & II at the Kallinikeion Institute must have a grade of B- or higher in Beginning Modern Greek IIb, Beginning Modern Greek II, or equivalent
- Due to scheduling issues, Holy Cross students (and especially GOA seminarians) are advised to enroll in the Kallinikeion Institute the summer before their second year of studies.
- Two $500 Kallinikeion Academic Excellence Awards, one for Beginning Modern Greek I and one for Intermediate Modern Greek I & II, are awarded to the students who excel academically in their course.

Liberal Studies

Mission Statement

The mission of the Liberal Studies program is to provide students with the opportunity to gain knowledge in the arts, humanities, philosophy, religion, and the social and natural sciences. Engagement in this process requires intellectual inquiry, reflection, collaboration, and the exploration of relationships among the disciplines, society, and our own humanity. The Liberal Studies program emphasizes the connection between theory and practice as essential to the development of students who serve their communities as informed and inquiring members of society.

Elementary Education Program

All students accepted into the Elementary Education program must major in Liberal Studies. In conjunction with the General Education Requirements, the Liberal Studies major provides students enrolled in the Elementary Education program with the chance to explore a range of subject areas that complement and incorporate the 36 subject area credits needed to meet the Massachusetts Department of Education requirements.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Progressively develop the ability to think critically and imaginatively, formulate their own understanding, and effectively communicate ideas in a variety of social and intellectual contexts
2. Enhance academic experiences through participation in various internships
3. Understand and articulate connections between the Liberal Studies program and the mission of Hellenic College
4. Understand and articulate the relationships among the various disciplines, internships, society, and their own humanity

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of course content within specific academic disciplines of the Liberal Studies program
2. Demonstrate critical thinking skills
3. Read and respond in an informed and discerning way to written texts from different disciplines of the Liberal Studies program
4. Coherently communicate through oral and written presentations.

Elementary Education

The Elementary Education program offers an integrated course of study that leads to a Bachelor of Arts with a concentration in Elementary Education. It enables students to obtain licensure as elementary school teachers (grades 1-6) in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. In addition to preparing teachers for teaching in public schools, the program also prepares teachers who wish to serve community schools within the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese.

The Elementary Education program has a strong multicultural component. Students in the program become familiar with current developments in curriculum and instruction, understand the role of schools and teachers in society, and are prepared to meet the needs of students from diverse racial, socioeconomic, linguistic, and cultural backgrounds. The program culminates in a fifteen-week intensive Student Teaching Practicum in diverse school sites, including Boston and Brookline public schools.

The interdisciplinary nature of the program enables future teachers to gain a broad vision and appreciation of what it means to be a teacher. In accordance with the mission of Hellenic College, the program prepares caring professionals who view teaching as a calling and nurtures in them an impassioned commitment to the teaching/learning process. All courses and field experiences are designed to meet the Professional Standards for Teachers required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for licensure. The program is accredited by the Massachusetts Department of Education.

In addition to completing an application to be accepted into Hellenic College, all students interested in the Elementary Education program must complete a supplemental application form. If accepted, they can transfer 6 credits into the program. Those credits must have been acquired by taking education courses that are comparable to the education courses offered at Hellenic College. No courses will be waived without the approval of the director of the program. All full-time student teaching experiences must take place in state unless there are extenuating circumstances, which will be reviewed by the director of the program.

All students accepted into the Elementary Education program must major in Liberal Studies (see course listings below). The Liberal Studies major (36 credits) provides students with the opportunity to gain knowledge in the arts, humanities, philosophy, religion, and the social and natural sciences. In conjunction with the General Education Requirements, the Liberal Studies major provides students enrolled in the Elementary Education program with the chance to explore a range of subject areas that complement and incorporate the 36 subject area credits needed to meet the Massachusetts Department of Education requirements. Some of the coursework in the Liberal Studies major may also count toward the General Education Requirements.

Literature and History

Mission Statement

The mission of the Literature and History program is to equip students with a broad understanding of the ways in which literature and the historical aspects of different fields in the humanities intersect. Canonical literary works, supplemented by the philosophical and religious history of world cultures, still comprise the major portion of our mental past. The program is designed to introduce students to the debates about literature and culture that shape our intellectual lives and cultivate humane influence in the process of effecting change. Literature and History is a writing intensive program of study, and as such its mission is to enhance the skills of critical thinking, articulation, and research.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Acquire an overview of the historical importance of literature
2. Demonstrate that the critical study of literature has helped them to think carefully and express themselves well
3. Demonstrate preparedness to enter the world with critical acumen, compassion born of wide reading, and the skills needed to carry their convictions into action, no matter what line of work they pursue
4. Be prepared for graduate study in a wide variety of fields, including education, law, policy studies, social work, and journalism, among many others

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate analytical skills in reading literature with depth and insight by writing incisive, cogently argued essays
2. Demonstrate awareness of the historical context that shapes literary culture in particular times and places
3. Demonstrate familiarity with major authors, works, genres, and movements in literary tradition
4. Demonstrate knowledge of critical theory and documentation methods

Human Development

Mission Statement

The Human Development program guides a holistic, systems approach for understanding human growth and development, addressing biological, psychological, sociocultural, and religious spheres. This program enables the highly motivated student to examine the interdependence of these areas and prepares students for graduate work and professional careers in human services. Culminating in a practicum experience within a professional setting, the Human Development program provides a rigorous and challenging educational experience to develop a foundation for direct service and establish a solid base for students' future role in professional and academic settings in health services.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of foundational theories in human development
2. Demonstrate research skills and apply professional standards in the disciplines of medicine, psychology, and religion
3. Achieve acceptance in a self-selected professional health care setting that will serve as the Human Development Internship (Field Practicum).
4. Apply classroom learning in the professional setting under the direction of a licensed professional in the healthcare and human services and practicum instructor.
5. Participate as a member of a team in a self-selected professional setting.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Gain a foundational knowledge of the human growth process through study in the following courses: General Psychology, Child Development, Adolescence, Adulthood and Aging, Theories of Personality, Abnormal Psychology, Counseling Psychology, Counseling and Psychotherapy, Spiritual Discernment and Differential Diagnosis, Physiology, Statistics, and Research Methodology.
2. Complete a capstone research project (30-50 pages) in an integrative course of Spiritual Discernment and Differential Diagnosis, drawing upon medical, psychological, and theological resources as integrated in their chosen biographical study.
3. Participate as a team member in a professional clinical setting in health and human services, engaging in an internship and participating in a school-based practicum program.
4. In the Field Practicum, analyze their learning experiences through the Human Development Journal (50 to 100 pages), demonstrating their learning experience in Human Development in a professional setting.

Human Development Course Requirements

Students who wish to major in Human Development are ordinarily required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education Requirements:

Management and Leadership

Mission Statement

The mission of the Management and Leadership program is to prepare students to effectively and ethically manage and lead in healthcare organizations, businesses, nonprofits, and the public sector with passion, purpose, and integrity.

Program Objectives

Graduates will acquire:

1. Knowledge of core concepts in management, leadership, and business (including healthcare organizations)
2. Effective communication
3. Conceptual and analytical skills
4. Ethical awareness and Christian values
5. Proficiency with technology

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of core concepts in management, leadership, and business (including healthcare organizations)
2. Be effective communicators
3. Demonstrate conceptual and analytical skills
4. Be knowledgeable about ethical awareness and Christian values
5. Demonstrate proficiency with technology

The Internship Program

The internship program is an integral part of learning and offers Management and Leadership students an opportunity to put classroom learning into practice. Reflection on how experience links theory with practice is an important part of the internship program. Management and Leadership majors spend over 225 hours at the internship site in their senior year. The internship program is designed to help students develop a foundation of knowledge and skills about working and leading in organizations. Students are supervised by experienced professionals in the healthcare industry and private, public, or nonprofit organizations. Internships are approved and overseen by the program director. Under special supervision, students may also undertake internships abroad for a semester.

Management and Leadership Course Requirements

Students who wish to major in Management and Leadership are ordinarily required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education Requirements:

Introduction to Management or Healthcare Management	3 cr.
Organizational Behavior	3 cr.
Principles of Accounting	3 cr.

Total	55.5 credits

Students are encouraged to pursue a minor in one of the other Hellenic College programs and are required to complete a sequence of 15 credits selected from courses offered in that program (students may transfer up to 6 credits/two courses out of 15 credits).

Management and Leadership Minor

A student pursuing a minor in Management and Leadership at Hellenic College is required to take a total of 15 credits chosen from upper- and lower-level courses, depending upon the student's area of interest. The minor in Management and Leadership offers an opportunity for students in other majors to diversify and expand their knowledge and skills in management and leadership of their businesses and institutions. Through the program, students will develop skills in managing human resources, managing operations, and ethical responsibility, as well as the ability to understand the financial and economic aspects of the businesses, institutions, healthcare organizations, and other nonprofit organizations they will be called to manage and lead.

The minors in Management and Leadership each consists of five courses (15 credits) that provide students with the opportunity to familiarize themselves with some of the key areas in the field of management.

Student Learning Outcomes

Religious Studies

Mission Statement

The mission of the Religious Studies program is to teach students Orthodox Christianity and how to appreciate critically – with fairness and respect – its distinctiveness in relation to other Christian and religious traditions by providing students with a curriculum in the study of the Bible, Christian theology, and religion. Students enrolled at Hellenic College as seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America will also complete an additional curriculum of courses in language, sacred chant, and theology to be eligible for the three-year Master of Divinity program offered by Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology.

Program Objectives

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of Orthodox Christianity
2. Engage intelligently and respectfully with other religions or Christian traditions in written or oral communication
3. Apply their understanding of Orthodox Christianity to other academic disciplines or ministry
4. Be prepared for graduate degrees in theology, for either ministry or academic study

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate the impact of the Bible on Orthodox Christian theology
2. Apply various critical and historical approaches to the study of religion and integrate Orthodox Christian theology with the mosaic of the world's religious traditions
3. Engage in theological discourse within the historical trajectory of Christian theology in general and Orthodox Christian theology in particular
4. Demonstrate theological thinking that equips them to advance the gospel entrusted to the Orthodox Church, while respecting the diversity of viewpoints within the Orthodox Christian tradition and in the academy

Students with a minor concentration in another discipline will relate their knowledge of that secondary concentration to their work in Religious Studies for their academic or professional development

5. Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese will demonstrate the requisite proficiency in Modern Greek language, New Testament Greek, and Byzantine chant to be eligible for the three-year Master of Divinity program of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Religious Studies Course Requirements

Students who wish to major in Religious Studies are ordinarily required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education Requirements:

Bible

Biblical Heritage I	3 cr.
Biblical Heritage II	3 cr.

Christianity

Introduction to Orthodoxy	3 cr.
Great Christian Thinkers	3 cr.

Religious Studies

World Religions	3 cr.
Great Religious Ideas	3 cr.

Religious Studies Electives

Five Electives (see Elective Requirements)	15 cr.
--	--------

Total	33 credits
--------------	-------------------

Elective Requirements

Students must complete at least two Religious Studies electives in two different divisions (Bible, Christianity, or Religion). The fifth required elective may be taken in any division. Students must complete a minor (a minimum of 15 credits) in one of the other programs available at Hellenic College. This minor requirement is optional for seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. Seminarians must complete the Seminarian Requirements (see below). To allow for the extra course requirements for seminarians, two Religious Studies electives (6 credits) are waived. Seminarians are required to complete three Religious Studies electives (9 credits) of their choice from at least two different divisions.

Religious Studies Minor

Students in other programs of Hellenic College may choose to minor in Religious Studies. Per the academic policies of Hellenic College, students may not use courses already taken in fulfillment of General Education Requirements toward the minor requirement.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate a facility in the use of categories and technical vocabulary essential to Orthodox Christian studies
2. Demonstrate effective communication skills in Orthodox Christian studies
3. Express the meanings and values of the Orthodox Christian ethos

The minor requirements are listed below:

Bible

Biblical Heritage I or II 3 cr.

Christianity

Great Christian Thinkers 3 cr.

Religious Studies

World Religions or Great Religious Ideas 3 cr.

Religious Studies Electives

Two Electives (in any division) 6 cr.

Additional Requirements for Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese

Many Religious Studies students graduate from Hellenic College and continue their studies in the Master of Divinity program of Holy Cross. Undergraduate seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese receive special preparation for their future ministry in the churches of the Archdiocese by taking extra courses in theology, Byzantine chant, and Greek language and culture (48 credits). Seminarians who have completed the following requirements are eligible for admission to the three-year Master of Divinity program at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology:

Modern Greek language 24 cr.

New Testament Greek I – II 6 cr.

Byzantine Music I – VI 9 cr.

Greek culture or history course* 3 cr.

Scripture requirements 6 cr.

Total

48 credits

* E.g., Ancient Greek History and Culture, Byzantine History, History of Modern Hellenism, Greek American Experience, etc.

All students are required to complete either Introduction to the Old Testament and Old Testament Exegesis or Introduction to the New Testament and New Testament Exegesis.

Modern Greek Language Requirements for Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Seminarians

Modern Greek language preparation is a central element in training for ordained ministry in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. To that end, seminarians complete 24 credits in Modern Greek language preparation. The typical course of study is as follows:

Beginning Modern Greek I – II	12 cr.
Intermediate Modern Greek I – II	6 cr.
Advanced Modern Greek I – II	6 cr.

Proficiency exams offered each spring will determine whether students have attained the necessary degree of competence to move to the next level of Greek or if a remedial course is required (current dates and fees of the remedial course are available from the Office of the Registrar and the Office of Financial Administration). Students with prior knowledge of Modern Greek will take a placement exam to determine the level at which their studies will begin, and they will complete their 24 credits of Modern Greek in domain-specific (e.g., culture, literature, history), post-advanced level courses that will be offered as needed.

Music Minor Program

Mission Statement

The Music Program of Hellenic College allows students to make music a profound part of their lives. Ensembles, lessons, and classroom instruction nurture each student's innate musicality. By the time students have finished their studies as music minors, they will have had access to serious professional training as well as the ability to pursue a wide range of musical topics and performance opportunities. Courses are open to all students. Students have the opportunity to engage in a concentrated, intensive program according to their abilities or fill musical gaps in their education. The music faculty is available to the student for any assistance needed to fulfill their personal objectives in the courses offered in this program.

Program Objectives

The Music Minor provides graduates with:

1. An understand of the fundamentals of Byzantine and Western music
2. The opportunity to develop skills in music performance and analysis
3. Exposure to a wide variety of musical traditions from around the world

Student and Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Music Minor, graduates will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the fundamentals of Byzantine and Western music
2. Perform and analyze selected representative works from various musical traditions
3. Appreciate a wide variety of music from around the world

Music Minor Course Requirements

Students pursuing a Music Minor are required to complete a sequence of 15 credits of work selected from courses offered in this program. The Music core subjects listed below are required, and three electives must be selected for the completion of the 15 credits needed for a Music Minor.

Core Courses—Required for 3 credits each:

- History of Western Music
- Survey of Byzantine Music
- Fundamentals of Western Music Theory

ELECTIVES—Select any two (2 credits each):

- Voice Class
- A Western Approach to Byzantine Chant
- A Survey of Traditional Greek Music
- World Music Survey
- Piano Keyboard
- Music Composition/Arranging
- Modal Music of the Middle and Near East from a Byzantine Perspective

Course Descriptions

All courses are 3 credits except where indicated otherwise.

ART

ARTS 3102 History of Art

This course presents a survey of Western art from ancient civilizations through the Renaissance to today, with emphasis on the major artists and works of art of the Byzantine period.

Fall

Steinmetz

ARTS 2345 Painting I: Foundations

This is an introduction to the materials, methods, and vocabulary of painting in both historical and contemporary contexts. The course uses observation and learning to see as the cornerstone for painting, but involves expression and abstraction as well as representation form and space in pictorial compositions. Students are expected to paint in the studio during class and to complete their projects for increasing knowledge of the use of color as it pertains to painting.

Qose

ARTS 2551 Painting II

A continuation and expansion of the skills acquired in Painting I. Students are introduced to a wider range of experimental painting methods, using acrylic-based media for the human body and portraits, and will be working in large- as well as small-scale formats. The context of painting in classic and contemporary art will be particularly emphasized in this course.

Spring 2016

Qose

ARTS 2163 Iconography

This course will begin with the preparation of the board and continue with the basic technique of egg tempera painting and the varnishing of an icon. Students will experience the entire process by using drawing forms, constructing with smoothly painted passages of light and essential quality of graphic line. Through this process, they will learn the theological underpinnings of the icon. Based in traditional language of iconography, students will continue their studies finding an appropriate proto-type for creating their own drawing, painting, and finished icon. Completion of Drawing and Painting II or equivalent is required before taking this course.

CLASSICS AND GREEK STUDIES

Language Placement

Students may be placed in appropriate Ancient, New Testament, or Modern Greek language courses according to performance on the examination taken at Hellenic College. To be placed into an advanced language course, a student must achieve a minimum grade of B+. A student may be granted advanced placement credit. However, if the student decides to enroll in the language course for which advanced placement credit was granted, the advanced placement credit is nullified. Students whose native language is Greek do not qualify for Modern Greek advanced placement credit.

Ancient Greek Language and Literature

ANGK 1011 Beginning

Ancient Greek I This course, designed for students with no previous instruction in ancient Greek, constitutes a thorough introduction to the Ancient Greek language. Our goal in this class is to acquire an elementary vocabulary and to internalize basic concepts of grammar and syntax through intensive study of introductory texts and translation exercises.

Fall

Dova

ANGK 1022 Beginning Ancient Greek II

The course, designed for students with 3 credits of previous instruction in Ancient Greek or equivalent, completes the introduction to ancient Greek grammar and syntax with special emphasis on vocabulary expansion and translation skills.

Spring

Dova

ANGK 1042 Attic Prose I and II

The objective of this course is to begin a study of Ancient Greek as a foundation for upper-level courses. It covers the basics of grammar, syntax, and vocabulary building. Students learn to understand Greek passages and translate from Greek into English. This is a two-semester course. During the first semester (fall) this course follows the same curriculum as NTG401 since the basis of grammar, syntax, and vocabulary are similar. In this way the students are exposed to more passages in the original Greek than if they were to follow a standard beginning Ancient Greek method. During the second semester (spring) the text used is Classical Greek (readings from Xenophon's Anabasis). Additional forms in grammar and syntax are also taught during this semester.

Spring

EDUC 4312 Methods of Teaching Language Arts II

This course is the second part of a two-semester course that has been designed to provide students with theoretical and pedagogical information necessary to become effective teachers of language arts. Throughout the course students will explore a variety of literacy theories and practices through discussion, demonstration, and other strategies. Students will be encouraged to reflect on and practice various teaching strategies. At the completion of the course, students will be able to describe how language arts can be encouraged and supported in school and home settings. Students will also be able to recognize, describe, and support learners’ strengths and select and utilize materials to maximize literacy instruction. In addition, students will better understand how cultural and linguistic differences affect literacy development and be able to implement literacy instruction that motivates learners. The focus of the second semester is on the following areas of a balanced literacy program: characteristics of content-area reading, development of children’s writing, exposure to a variety of literary genres, and deepening students’ knowledge of both assessment and instructional planning and design. Field experience is a required aspect of this course.

SPAN 2001 Spanish I

Using the text Spanish Two Years and CDs, students will be introduced to numbers, telling time and dates, and will then move on to simple sentence structures and beginner's vocabulary. Students are expected to express themselves in Spanish from day one, at first in a slow and limited fashion, but with more confidence and mastery as the semester progresses. Through films, songs, and CDs of both South American and Spanish speakers, students will discover the rich heritage of both Spain, the mother country, as well as Mexico, Central America, and South America, including the celebration of the Day of the Dead with the making of masks and decorated pots with indigenous designs. Verb tenses covered include present, present progressive, present subjunctive, preterite, future, and conditional, as well as commands. Additionally, students will master indirect and direct object pronouns. Students are expected to complete and turn in for grading about seven pages of written homework per class. Each class begins with an oral exam on assigned work. The course is taught entirely in Spanish.

Fall

SPAN 2220 Spanish II

After a review of concepts taught in the first semester, the students' vocabulary is expanded through a series of dialogues in which they are expected to show increasing mastery of the language, including idiomatic expressions. The skills of speaking and listening are emphasized in semester one of the course; the second semester emphasizes reading and writing in addition to these first two skills. Frequent practice in listening to CDs outside class will be expected. Verb tenses covered in the second semester include past and perfect subjunctives and the indicative perfect tenses. Students will be encouraged to express themselves on an assigned subject in Spanish for ever-increasing lengths of time. Again, students are expected to turn in about seven pages of written homework per class. Each class begins with an oral exam on past lessons and more recently assigned work. RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Religious Studies Core Courses

RELG 2014 Introduction to Great Religious Ideas

When science looks at religion, what does it see? From the viewpoint of rational reflection, what purpose does religion serve in the social, personal, and mental life of man? Or is it rather the case that religious faith concerns a realm beyond the access of the scientific mind? This course examines four great rational systems for the understanding of religion, those created by Sigmund Freud, Karl Marx, Emile Durkheim, and Clifford Geertz. Each system has been influential in the intellectual life of the modern world, and some can even claim to have changed world history. By studying each theorist, and then applying his universal theory of religion to a particular faith, we will be able to decide for ourselves what these theories have to teach us about religious faith. The four religions to be studied will be Sunni Islam as practiced by al-Qaeda, Greek Orthodoxy on the island of Kalymnos, Protestantism and Roman Catholicism in the U.S. Marine Corps, and Shintoism in Japan.

RELG 3690 War and Peacemaking in the Orthodox Christianity

The purpose of this course is to study the concepts of war and peace in Eastern Christianity. Despite its compelling record of pacifism, the Eastern Church had occasionally derailed from this position due to heretical attitudes in defining and identifying “the enemy,” as well as due to pressures from political authorities. In the first part of this course, a focused literature review of patristic writings, liturgical compositions, canon law, and selected contemporary writings will be conducted for the purpose of identifying the core, structural position of the Eastern Church(es) on violence and peacemaking. In the second part of the course, phenomenological themes such as “evil” and “dualism” will be analyzed for the purpose of comprehending heretical attitudes that emerged during times of war (e.g., demonizing of enemies), while political themes such as just war and nationalism will be explored for the purpose of identifying instances when members of the Church sanctioned defensive violence and fostered a version of nationalism that contradicted Christian universalism. The third part of this course will explore peacemaking methods developed throughout Eastern Christianity in light of the tripartite dimension of violence (against oneself, against God, and against another human being), when managing human passions towards “fighting the good fight.”

PSYC 2202

General Psychology II: Personality Dynamics

Why do we behave as we do? What roles do biology, environmental influences, and unconscious processes play? What are personality disorders and what causes them? How can we achieve greater well-being? Emphasis will be given in this course to an integrated biopsychosocio-spiritual perspective that emphasizes the centrality of relationships in motivation, emotion, cognition, behavior, development, diagnosis, and treatment. Theory will be illustrated through case studies.

PSYC 3102 Abnormal Psychology

This course focuses on the descriptive study of abnormal behavior in both normal and pathological states, together with theories of causation and treatment.

Spring Mavroudis

PSYC 3302 Adulthood and Aging

This course deals with current themes on adult development and the process of aging. The research findings in these areas will be examined and their implications considered. Both theory and everyday questions concerning these topics are examined. Prerequisite: PSYC 2052.

As needed TBA

PSYC 4510 Scriptures and Psychology

This course examines central themes shared by the disciplines of psychology and religion, addressing personalities, relationships, and interactions described in the Bible. This course examines similarities and differences in how both psychological and spiritual perspectives render an interdependent understanding of the scriptural message. Prerequisite: General Psychology and one religion course.

Spring Chirban

PSYC 4351 Clinical Psychology III: Counseling and Psychotherapy

This course is designed to deepen the student's skills in the theory and practice of counseling, applying diagnostic criteria. Theory and practice are emphasized equally as students demonstrate interventions in clinical counseling situations. Special topics and problems in counseling and psychotherapy are addressed. Prerequisite: PSYC 2046

Fall Chirban

PSYC 4540 Psychological and Theological Aspects of Dying

This course examines the meaning and experience of death from psychological and theological perspectives and looks at death and dying as they are interpreted at different stages in one's life cycle. Special attention is given to the subject of care for the dying and their loved ones. Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 and a religion course.

Spring Chirban

PSYC 4551 Clinical Psychology II: Spiritual Discernment and Differential Diagnosis

This course examines basic themes of psychological and spiritual development, e.g., holiness, love, faith, illness, and sin, identifying criteria and markers of psychological and spiritual health and illness. This course assesses psychohistory and case studies of saints, leaders, and lay people to understand the interface of psychological and religious perspectives. Prerequisites: two courses in psychology and two courses in religion.

Fall Chirban

PSYC 4451 The Role of Faith in Health

This course addresses the relationship of the Orthodox tradition to modern medicine. In addition to considering recent research in body-mind studies, students will participate in experiments of behavioral medicine. Prerequisites: PSYC1101 and a religion course.

As needed Chirban

PSYC 4902 Field Practicum

This course constitutes a field experience in a setting selected by the student in conjunction with faculty. The practicum may be an internship in a nursing home, an agency for troubled adolescents, a state or federal agency dealing with social problems, or in a setting addressing issues relevant to student's primary service-area of interest. The program is tailored to each student's needs. The practicum provides supervised learning experience in human services culminating the student's learning in human development. The course also includes a weekly conference with the major professor and peer group meetings to review and critique the student's experience and progress.
