DIRECTIONS

The Hellenic College Holy Cross campus is just a few miles from the center of Boston and readily accessible by most means of transportation. General directions are given below. If you are coming by car and would like more detailed directions, enter your address as the starting point and 50 Goddard Avenue, Brookline, MA 02445 as your destination in your GPS device.

FROM ROUTES 95 AND 128:
Take Route 128 to Exit 20A (Route 9 East). Once on Route 9, count nine sets of lights. At the ninth light, turn right onto Lee Street. Take Lee to the end and turn left at the light. Stay in the left lane and bear left almost immediately at the fork onto Goddard Avenue. Shortly after you pass the Park School on your left, less than a mile from the fork, look for the entrance to our campus on your right.

Note: If you are coming from the Mass. Turnpike, exit onto Route 128 South and follow the directions above.

FROM LOGAN AIRPORT:
Follow the signs for the Callahan Tunnel/Boston. Once through the Callahan Tunnel, follow the signs for Storrow Drive. Exit onto Storrow Drive and follow it to the Kenmore/Fenway exit (this is a LEFT exit). Bear to the left (Fenway). At the light, turn right onto Boylston Street (outbound). At the fourth set of lights, bear left onto Brookline Avenue. At the seventh set of lights, turn left onto the Jamaica. At the third light, turn right onto Perkins Street. Go through one set of lights and continue past Jamaica Pond until you see the campus entrance on your left.

FROM PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION:
Please call the campus operator at (617) 731-3500 and ask for the Office of Student Life, which can, with sufficient notice, arrange for shuttle transportation from any of several nearby subway, bus, or trolley stops.

ANTI-HARRASSMENT AND NON-DISCRIMINATION
Hellenic College Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology is committed to establishing and maintaining a campus free of all forms of harassment and discrimination and will not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, color, national or ethnic origin, marital status, veteran status, religion, age, or disability.

We seek to provide opportunities and experiences for all students on an equal basis. HCHC is in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, with the Internal Revenue Service Procedure 75-50, and complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. We strongly encourage reporting any incident of harassment or discrimination and/or misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

This section of the Guide lists and defines the policies and disclosures practiced at HCHC that ensure the school’s compliance.

Please refer to the Table of Contents for specific disclosures and policies.
SEXUAL MISCONDUCT/TITLE IX POLICY

PROHIBITION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
HCHC strives to provide a learning and campus environment free from all forms of sexual misconduct. HCHC accordingly prohibits conduct which constitutes sexual harassment, sexual assault and violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking as those terms are defined below.

In support of this commitment, HCHC takes steps to increase awareness of such misconduct, eliminate its occurrence on campus, provide support for survivors, diligently investigate all reports of sexual misconduct, and deal fairly and firmly with offenders. Creating a safe campus environment and a culture of respect is the shared responsibility of all members of the HCHC community, individually and collectively.

This sexual misconduct policy (the “Policy”) is adopted by HCHC in compliance with Title IX, the Clery Act, and other applicable laws.

As described in more detail below, in this Policy “sexual misconduct” is intended to refer to a broad range of conduct focused on sex and/or gender that may or may not be sexual in nature. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, and relationship violence are all forms of sexual misconduct prohibited by law and this Policy.

SCOPE OF POLICY
This Policy is intended to provide the HCHC community with a clearly articulated set of behavioral standards, and definitions of prohibited conduct and key concepts. The Policy applies to all community members, including students, faculty, staff, affiliates, visitors, applicants for admission or employment, independent contractors. Vendors and others who conduct business with the HCHC or on school property are also expected to comply with this Policy. The Policy applies regardless of a person’s gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, race, nationality, class status, religion, or other protected status.

This Policy applies both to on-campus and off-campus conduct if (i) the conduct was in connection with an HCHC or HCHC-recognized program or activity, or (ii) the conduct may have the effect of creating a hostile environment for a member of the HCHC community. In the Policy below, we have provided a list of on-campus resources available to those affected by sexual misconduct and the extent to which such resources have reporting obligations or may maintain the confidentiality of a report of sexual misconduct. The procedures described below describe the investigation and disciplinary process.
NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

HCHC is committed to establishing and maintaining an environment free of all forms of discrimination and harassment for all members of the College community. HCHC prohibits discrimination against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, military service, or because of marital, parental, veteran status, or any other protected class.

HCHC does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational, extracurricular, athletic, or other programs, or in the context of employment. Sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment as defined in this Policy, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Sex discrimination is also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 151B, and other applicable statutes.

COORDINATION WITH HCHC'S NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

HCHC recognizes that discrimination and harassment related to a person’s sex can occur in connection with misconduct related to a person’s sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, age, disability, or other protected class. Targeting a person on the basis of these characteristics is also a violation of state and federal law and College policy. Under these circumstances, HCHC will endeavor to coordinate the investigation and resolution efforts of sexual misconduct complaints with the investigation and resolution of complaints of discrimination or harassment based on other protected classes.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT DEFINITIONS

“Sexual misconduct” is a broad, non-legal term that encompasses a wide range of behaviors, including but not limited to, sexual harassment, sex/gender discrimination, sexual assault, rape, acquaintance rape, stalking, and relationship violence (including dating and domestic violence). It is a violation of HCHC policy as well as applicable law to commit or to attempt to commit these acts.

Sexual misconduct can occur between strangers or acquaintances, or people who know each other well, including between people who are or have been involved in an intimate or sexual relationship. It can be committed by anyone, regardless of gender or gender identity, and can occur between people of the same or different sex or gender. This Policy prohibits all forms of sexual misconduct.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that has the effect of creating a hostile or stressful living, learning, or working environment, or whenever toleration of such conduct or rejection of it is the basis for an academic or employment decision affecting an individual. Conduct is considered “unwelcome” if the person did not request or invite it and considered the conduct to be undesirable or offensive.

Sexual harassment includes any conduct or incident that is sufficiently serious that it is likely to limit or deny a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from HCHC’s educational programs or a faculty or staff member’s ability to work, which may include a single incident of sexual assault or other serious sexual misconduct.

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual conduct when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s education or participation in HCHC programs or activities.
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for decisions pertaining to an individual’s education or participation in HCHC programs or activities.
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual’s educational performance, or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive learning environment, or interfering with one’s ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity. Unwelcome sexual innuendo, propositions, sexual attention, or suggestive comments and gestures.
- Unwelcome physical contact of a sexual nature, such as touching, hugging, kissing, patting, or pinching, that is uninvited and unwanted or unwelcome by the other person.
- Humor and jokes about sex or gender-specific traits; sexual slurs or derogatory language directed at another person’s sexuality or gender.
- Insults and threats based on sex or gender; and other oral, written, or electronic communications of a sexual nature that a person communicates are unwelcome.
- Written graffiti or the display or distribution of sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials; sexually charged name-calling; sexual rumors or ratings of sexual activity/performance; the circulation, display, or creation of e-mails or Web sites of a sexual nature.
- Non-academic display or circulation of written materials or pictures degrading to a person(s) or gender group.
- Unwelcome attention, such as repeated inappropriate flirting, inappropriate or repetitive compliments about clothing or physical attributes, staring, or making sexually oriented gestures.
- Change of academic or employment responsibilities (increase in difficulty or decrease of responsibility) based on sex, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation.
- Use of a position of power or authority to: (i) threaten or punish, either directly or by implication, for refusing to tolerate harassment, for refusing to submit to sexual activity, or for reporting harassment; or (ii) promise rewards in return for sexual favors.
- Acts of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility based on sex or sex-stereotyping.

Sexual Violence

Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment and it includes rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion. Sexual coercion is the act of using pressure or force to have sexual contact with someone who has already refused.

Sexual Assault (including Rape)

Sexual assault is also a form of sexual harassment, and it includes any type of actual or attempted sexual activity perpetrated against a person’s will, where that person does not give clear and voluntary consent or where the person is incapable of giving consent due to drug or alcohol use or due to intellectual or other disabilities. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:

- Intentional touching of another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or
- Other intentional sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent; or
- Coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force a person to touch another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or
- Rape, which is penetration, no matter how slight, of (1) the vagina or anus of a person by any body part of another person or by an object, or (2) the mouth of a person by a sex organ of another person, without that person’s consent.

Dating/Relationship Violence

Dating violence is abuse, violence or intentionally controlling behavior committed by a person who is or has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the victim. Whether there was such a relationship will be gauged by its length, type, and frequency of interaction. Elements of dating violence include:

- Battering that causes bodily injury;
- Purposely or knowingly causing reasonable apprehension of bodily injury;
- Emotional abuse creating apprehension of bodily injury or property damage;
- Repeated telephonic, electronic, or other forms of communication — anonymously or directly — made with the intent to intimidate, terrify, harass, or threaten.

Relationship violence can occur in all type of relationships (e.g., heterosexual, same sex, or any other type of relationship).

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the state of Massachusetts. Individuals who are victims of domestic abuse in Massachusetts may seek an abuse prevention order, also known as a “restraining order” or “209A order,” in addition to pursuing criminal charges and charges through the student conduct system, if the offender is an HCHC student.

For more information on Massachusetts law, see https://malegislature.gov/Laws/GeneralLaws/PartII/TitleIII/Chapter209A.

Stalking
The term “stalking” means a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or to suffer substantial emotional distress. This includes the use of technology to pursue, harass, threaten, intimidate, or otherwise make unwelcome contact with another person. Stalking may involve people who are known to one another, in a romantic relationship, or may involve people not known to one another.

Stalking is prohibited by Massachusetts law. Examples include, but are not limited to: following a person; appearing at a person’s home, class, or work; making frequent phone calls, emails, text messages; continued contact after receiving requests not to; or other threatening, intimidating, or intrusive behavior.

Sexual Exploitation
Sexual exploitation involves taking sexual advantage of another person and includes, without limitation: indecent exposure; causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person in order to gain a sexual advantage over him or her; causing the prostitution of another person; recording, photographing, or transmitting images of private sexual activity and/or the intimate parts of another person without consent; observing or allowing third parties to observe private sexual acts or otherwise violating a person’s sexual privacy without consent; and knowingly or recklessly exposing another person to a significant risk of sexually transmitted infection.

Consent
Sexual activity requires consent, which is defined as positive, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in specific sexual activity throughout a sexual encounter. Consent cannot be inferred from the absence of a “no”; a clear “yes,” verbal or otherwise, is necessary. Consent to some sexual acts does not imply consent to others, nor does past consent to a given act imply present or future consent. Consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual encounter and can be revoked at any time. There is no consent when there is force, expressed or implied, or when coercion, intimidation, threats, or duress is used. Consent cannot be obtained from someone who is asleep or otherwise mentally or physically incapacitated, whether due to alcohol, drugs, or some other condition. A person is mentally or physically incapacitated when that person lacks the ability to make or act on considered decisions to engage in sexual activity. Engaging in sexual activity with a person whom you know – or reasonably should know – to be incapacitated constitutes sexual misconduct. The impact of alcohol and drugs varies from person to person; however, warning signs of possible incapacitation include slurred speech, unsteady gait, impaired coordination, inability to perform personal tasks such as undressing, inability to maintain eye contact, vomiting, and emotional volatility. Whether a person has taken advantage of a position of influence over another person may be a factor in determining consent.

Effect of Drugs and Alcohol on Consent

Individuals should be aware of, and carefully consider, the potential consequences of the use of alcohol or drugs. Alcohol and other drugs can lower inhibitions and create an atmosphere of confusion over whether consent is freely and affirmatively given. If there is a question about whether someone consented to sexual activity after consuming drugs or alcohol, HCHC will examine the issue from the perspective of a reasonable person. Specifically, HCHC will consider whether the respondent reasonably should have known about the impact of alcohol and other drugs on the complainant’s ability to give consent.

TITLE IX COORDINATOR

HCHC has designated the Associate Dean of Students as its Title IX Coordinator to oversee complaints brought forward under this policy. That position is currently being filled. The Interim Title IX Coordinator can be contacted regarding any Title IX issues until the position of Associate Dean of Student Life is filled.

REPORTING INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Individuals are encouraged to report alleged incidents of sexual misconduct immediately, whether they are a victim or observer of an incident, in order to maximize HCHC’s ability to respond promptly and effectively by taking steps to end the behavior, prevent its recurrence, and address its effect. Incidents can be reported to the following individuals by telephone, e-mail, or in-person during normal business hours:

- Interim Title IX Coordinator
  - Dn. Gary Alexander
  - (617) 850-1322

- Fr. Antonios Papanastasiou
  - Dean of Student Life
  - (617) 850-1297

- Campus Housing and Security
  - Kevin Derrivan
  - (617) 850-1222

- Ms. Betty Paganis
  - Counseling and Spiritual Formation
  - (617) 850-1206

- Dr. Robert Murray
  - Counseling and Spiritual Formation
  - (617) 850-1205

- Campus Security
  - (617) 304-3774
Faculty and staff may report incidents to the Title IX Coordinator or any Deputy Title IX Coordinator, a supervisor, a dean, or a department head. In general, when one of these offices receives a report, HCHC must commence an investigation. All reports of such incidents will be disclosed to the Title IX Coordinator.

HCHC recognizes that student complainants may be most comfortable disclosing sexual misconduct to a College employee they know well, such as a faculty member or resident advisor (“RA”). Students are welcome to speak with them, but should understand that these individuals are considered “responsible employees” (other than the confidential resources identified below), and if responsible employees receive a report of sexual misconduct, they are required to inform the Title IX Coordinator about the incident. HCHC defines a “responsible employee” to include supervisors and officials with significant responsibility for student and campus activities including, but not limited to, academics, student residences, discipline, and campus safety. Employees whose positions legally require confidentiality (e.g., counseling staff and clergy) are not “responsible employees.”

Before a student discloses an incident of sexual misconduct, HCHC faculty and staff will try to ensure that the student understands the employee’s reporting obligations — and, if the student wishes to maintain confidentiality, direct the student to confidential resources. Similarly, before a faculty or staff member discloses an incident of sexual misconduct, the person to whom the disclosure is to be made will endeavor to ensure that the faculty or staff member understands his or her reporting obligations. Below, we have identified the confidential resources available to students, faculty, and staff who do not wish to file a complaint or trigger an investigation, or who would like to better understand their options.

PRIVACY

HCHC wants all community members to seek the assistance they need without fear that the information they provide will be shared more broadly than they would like. All reports of sexual misconduct will be handled confidentially to the extent allowed by law. Even when College employees have an obligation to report sexual misconduct, they will protect and respect an individual’s privacy to the greatest extent possible and share information only on a need-to-know basis. The information reported will only be shared with HCHC employees who will be assisting in the investigation and/or resolution of the complaint. HCHC’s ability to make a meaningful investigation and take corrective action may be limited if an individual insists on complete confidentiality.

Requesting Confidentiality:

How HCHC Will Weigh the Request and Respond

In some cases, HCHC may not be able to honor a confidentiality request in order to adhere to its obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for the HCHC community. If a report of sexual misconduct discloses an immediate threat to the HCHC community, where timely notice must be given to protect the health or safety of the community, HCHC may not be able to maintain the same level of confidentiality. Immediately threatening circumstances include, but are not limited to, reported incidents of sexual misconduct that included the use of force, a weapon, or other circumstances that represent a serious and ongoing threat to students, faculty, staff, or visitors. If the Title IX Coordinator determines that HCHC cannot maintain a complainant’s confidentiality, the Title IX Coordinator will inform the complainant prior to starting an investigation and will only share information with those officials responsible for handling the investigatory response.

When weighing a request that no investigation be pursued or the complainant’s identity not be disclosed, the Title IX Coordinator will consider a range of factors, including:

- Whether the respondent is likely to commit additional acts of sexual or other violence;
- Whether there have been other sexual misconduct complaints about the same respondent;
- Whether the respondent has a history of arrests or records from a prior school indicating a history of violence;
- Whether the respondent threatened further sexual misconduct or other violence against the complainant or others; and
- Whether the sexual misconduct was committed by multiple respondents.
- The sexual misconduct was perpetrated with a weapon;
- The complainant is a minor;
- The respondent is an HCHC employee;
- HCHC possesses other means to investigate the sexual misconduct (e.g., security cameras or personnel, physical evidence); or
- The complainant’s report reveals a pattern of perpetration (e.g., via illicit use of drugs or alcohol) at a given location or by a particular person or group.

The presence of one or more of these factors could lead HCHC to investigate and, if appropriate, pursue conduct action against the respondent. If none of these factors are present, HCHC will likely respect the complainant’s request.

Confidential and Privileged Resources

Incidents may be reported confidentially to the Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services. Mental health counselors are bound to professional standards regarding confidentiality, and will not reveal the identity of victims, unless there is an imminent safety concern or as otherwise required by law. These resources can explain options for obtaining additional support from HCHC and off-campus resources. These resources can also arrange for medical care and accompany complainants, or arrange for someone to accompany complainants, to seek such care. Students may use these resources to talk to someone about an incident of sexual misconduct in a confidential manner whether or not they decide to make an official report or to participate in the HCHC complaint resolution process or the criminal justice system. Conferring with these resources will not trigger an investigation by HCHC or law enforcement. However, these offices are familiar with the College’s complaint resolution processes, can explain what to expect, and can provide support while disciplinary or criminal processes are pending.
RETALIATION PROHIBITED
It is a violation of this policy and applicable laws to retaliate against or intimidate any individual who brings a complaint under this policy or who cooperates with or otherwise participates in the investigation or resolution of a complaint under this policy. HCHC will take steps to prevent retaliation and intimidation and will also take strong responsive action if HCHC determines that retaliation has occurred. Any such acts should be reported promptly to a Title IX Coordinator. This policy also applies to any allegation that a member of the community has attempted to prevent an individual from reporting sexual misconduct.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY RESOURCES AND SUPPORT
HCHC offers non-judgmental and confidential support through the Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services to any party involved in a sexual misconduct incident.

HCHC encourages all community members affected by sexual misconduct to seek immediate assistance. Doing so promptly may be important to ensure the person’s physical safety or to obtain medical care or other support. It may also be necessary to preserve evidence, which can assist HCHC and/or law enforcement in responding effectively.

HCHC encourages complainants to pursue criminal action for incidents of sexual misconduct that may also be crimes under Massachusetts law. In general, HCHC will notify the Boston or Brookline Police Department of allegations of sexual violence. HCHC will also assist a complainant in making a criminal report and will cooperate with law enforcement agencies if a complainant decides to pursue the criminal process to the extent permitted by law. However, a complainant may also choose not to pursue criminal action, and under most circumstances, the Boston or Brookline Police Department will not force a complainant to pursue criminal charges if he or she is not willing to do so.

RESPONDING TO COMPLAINTS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
HCHC, when appropriate, will conduct an investigation of the complaint. HCHC will endeavor to complete its investigation within sixty (60) calendar days. The investigation will include one or more interviews with the complainant, the respondent, and any witnesses. The investigation will include the gathering of any physical, documentary, or other relevant and available evidence.

As part of the investigation, HCHC will provide an opportunity for all parties to present written statements, identify witnesses and submit other evidence. A hearing may also be conducted pursuant to HCHC’s Disciplinary Process.

HCHC endeavors for the investigation, adjudication, and resolution of sexual misconduct complaints to be accessible, prompt, equitable, and impartial. Throughout this process, both the complainant and respondent have the following rights:
- To be treated with respect, dignity, and sensitivity.
- To receive appropriate support from HCHC.
- Privacy to the extent possible, consistent with applicable law and this Policy.
- Information about HCHC’s Sexual Misconduct Policy.
- The presence of an Advisor throughout the process.

1. To participate or to decline to participate in the investigation or complaint resolution process. However, a decision not to participate in the process either in whole or in part will not prevent the College from proceeding with the information available.

   • A prompt and thorough investigation of the allegations.
   • Adequate time to review documents following the investigation.
   • To appeal the decision made or any sanctions imposed to the President.
   • To challenge a hearing panel member(s) for a possible conflict of interest.
   • To refrain from making self-incriminating statements.
   • Notification, in writing, of the case resolution, including the outcome of any appeals.
   • For the complainant, to report the incident to law enforcement at any time.
HCHC will disclose information about its investigation and resolution of sexual misconduct complaints only to those who need to know the information in order to carry out their duties and responsibilities. It will inform all HCHC personnel participating in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing that they are expected to maintain the privacy of the process. This does not prohibit either a complainant or respondent from obtaining the assistance of family members, counselors, therapists, clergy, doctors, attorneys, or other resources.

In most cases, the investigator will prepare a written report at the conclusion of an investigation. Before the report is finalized, the participating complainant and respondent will be given the opportunity to review their own statements and, to the extent appropriate to honor due process and privacy considerations, the participating complainant and respondent may also be provided with a written or oral summary of other information collected during the investigation. A complainant or respondent must submit any comments about their own statement, or on any investigation summary that might be provided, to the investigator within five (5) calendar days after that statement or summary was provided.

Following the receipt of any comments submitted, or after the five (5)-day comment period has lapsed without comment, the investigator will address any identified factual inaccuracies or misunderstandings, as appropriate, and then make a recommendation.

The investigator will present a report, including a summary of the investigation, the investigator’s findings with respect to responsibility for conduct violations, and a summary of the investigator’s rationale in support of the findings, to the Office of the Dean of Students as well as the Title IX Coordinator.

Upon the approval of the investigation report and findings, the Dean of Students or designee will determine the appropriate sanction(s) and remedies if there is a finding of responsibility. Both parties will be notified in writing of the resolution of the investigation.

The disciplinary process is not subject to formal rules of court or evidence. For the disciplinary process, a student is not “found guilty” based on proving a case “beyond a reasonable doubt” as in criminal law, but can be “held responsible” for an alleged violation of the sexual misconduct policy that is “more likely than not” to have occurred (referred to as the “preponderance of evidence” standard).

Information to the Complainant
After receiving a report of sexual misconduct, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the complainant of the option to have an Advisor accompany him or her to any meeting or interview related to the complaint resolution process. The Coordinator will also:

- Provide the complainant with information regarding the Rights of the complainant and respondent.
- Explain the prohibition against retaliation.
- Explain the process for investigating and resolving a sexual misconduct complaint (including the available appeal procedures).
- Instruct the complainant not to destroy any potentially relevant documentation in any format.
- Give the complainant a copy of the relevant policies.
- Explain the availability of interim measures.
- Provide the complainant with a list of on-campus and off-campus support resources.

Information to the Respondent

Unless the complainant requests and is granted confidentiality, the respondent will be notified in writing that a complaint alleging sexual misconduct has been filed against him or her. The respondent will be advised that he or she may have an Advisor accompany him or her to any meeting or interview related to the investigation and complaint resolution process.

Within seven (7) calendar days of receiving notice of the complaint, the respondent must arrange to meet with the Title IX Coordinator. At that meeting, the Coordinator will provide the respondent with information regarding the Rights of the complainant and respondent.

- Provide the respondent with a copy of the complaint.
- Explain the prohibition against retaliation.
- Discuss the nature of the complaint.
- Explain the rights and responsibilities of the complainant and respondent.
- Explain the process for investigating and resolving the complaint (including the available appeal procedures).
- Instruct the respondent not to destroy any potentially relevant documentation in any format.
- Give the respondent a copy of the relevant policies.
- Provide the respondent with a list of on-campus and off-campus support resources.

If the respondent fails to meet or cooperate with the investigator, the investigation and resolution of the complaint will proceed without input from the respondent. If interim measures have been imposed, the Coordinator will explain the scope of those measures and the respondent’s duty to comply with the interim measures.

After reviewing the complaint, the respondent may choose to end the complaint resolution process by accepting responsibility for the conduct alleged in the complaint. If the respondent accepts responsibility for the conduct alleged in the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will determine an appropriate sanction for the respondent. If the respondent disputes the allegations of the complaint, the matter will proceed to an investigation.

At any point in the process, the respondent may accept responsibility for the conduct alleged in the complaint. In such cases, the Title IX Coordinator may impose sanctions for violations of the Sexual Misconduct/Title IX Policy.

Possible Remedies and Sanctions

If the respondent is found responsible for sexual misconduct, HCHC will initiate a sanctioning process. Sanctions will be designed to eliminate a hostile environment, prevent further misconduct, promote safety, and deter students from similar future behavior. Certain behavior may be so harmful to the community that it may require serious sanctions, such as removal from HCHC housing, removal from specific courses or activities, suspension from the College, or dismissal from the institution.

As part of the sanctioning process, HCHC may require that existing interim remedies or administrative actions stay in place for a prescribed period of time. HCHC may also impose new remedies or administrative actions such as stay away orders, housing placement, or academic accommodations based upon the investigation and adjudication of the case.

A report of sexual violence (including non-identifying reports) may also prompt HCHC to consider broader remedial action, such as increased monitoring, supervision or security at locations where the reported sexual violence occurred; increasing education and prevention efforts, including to targeted population groups; conducting climate assessments/victimization surveys; and/or revisiting policies and practices.

Interim Protections
The Title IX Coordinator may, at any time during the investigation or the processing of a complaint of sexual misconduct, recommend interim protections or remedies be provided by HCHC. Complainants may also submit requests for interim protections. HCHC may impose any measure that can be tailored to the parties involved to achieve the goals of this policy. These protections and remedies may include (but are not limited to) separating the parties, placing limitations on contact between the parties, or making alternative workplace, housing, extracurricular, or academic arrangements where reasonable and feasible. The Title IX Coordinator will work with the appropriate office(s) to ensure that any necessary interim measures are promptly provided.

Failure to comply with the terms of interim protections may be considered a separate violation of this policy and a basis for disciplinary action. Outside of HCHC, a complainant may also be entitled to obtain remedies under applicable law, such as a judicial restraining order. The Title IX Coordinator can assist in contacting law enforcement or legal service organizations to learn about these remedies.

Effect of Criminal Proceedings
The filing and processing of a complaint of sexual misconduct is separate from and independent of any criminal investigation or proceeding. HCHC may not wait for the conclusion of any criminal investigation or proceedings to begin its own investigation, although HCHC may delay temporarily the fact-finding component of the investigation while the police are gathering evidence. Neither law enforcement’s determination as to whether or not to prosecute a respondent nor the outcome of any criminal prosecution is determinative of whether sexual misconduct occurred under this policy.
Notice
The Title IX Coordinator will give the complainant and respondent, respectively, a written explanation of their rights and options, and any available accommodations, as soon as possible after a complaint is reported. The Title IX Coordinator will also ensure that both the complainant and respondent are updated throughout the investigatory process, including timely notice of meetings where either the complainant’s or the respondent’s presence may be required, and the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process.

Appeal Process
Either party may appeal a disciplinary decision on the grounds that:

- Fair consideration was not provided to the respondent (i.e., there is evidence that some aspect of the hearing was prejudicial, arbitrary or capricious).
- New and significant information, not reasonably available at the time of the initial hearing, has become available.
- The sanction or remedy imposed is not in keeping with established disciplinary guidelines.

Parties who wish to appeal a disciplinary decision should submit a letter of appeal to the President within three working days of the communication of the decision. The letter of appeal should outline the facts in the matter, the disciplinary decision, the rationale for why that decision is being appealed, and a list of persons the student wishes to participate in the appeal (if applicable). The President will generally request a meeting with the appellant and the person issuing the disciplinary decision to discuss the appeal, and may invite other persons, as he/she deems appropriate.

The President may appoint a committee to review the facts. The President serves as the final appellate level, and will issue a final sanction to all parties in writing.

Honesty, integrity, and trust are foundational qualities of Christian life. In honoring this, students enrolled in both Hellenic College and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology are entrusted with the duty to conduct themselves in a manner appropriate to this institution’s mission and character, as a home of Christian education and spiritual development. Fulfilling this duty and respecting the repercussions of individual action upon the community atmosphere, which either build or diminish the Christian spirit of these schools, all students are trusted with the obligation to refrain from acts which they know or, under the circumstance, have reason to know violate the academic integrity of this institution.

Disciplinary Process
For most infractions, the Dean of Students (or other appropriate administrator) will conduct an informal meeting – called a disciplinary conference – to discuss the infraction with the student and assign any sanctions. In the event that an infraction could lead to a removal from campus housing for longer than one week, suspension, or expulsion, the Dean of Students may, at his or her discretion, convene a disciplinary hearing that will include members of the faculty and staff, and the student may invite an advisor of his or her choice for advice and support. If the infraction involves accusations by another member of the HCHC community, that member shall be given equal opportunity to participate in the hearing process and have the assistance of an advisor. During meetings and interviews, the advisor may quietly confer or pass notes with the party in a non-disruptive manner. The Advisor may not intervene in a meeting or interview, or address the Investigator. Consistent with HCHC’s obligation to promptly resolve complaints, HCHC reserves the right to proceed with any meeting or interview, regardless of the availability of the party’s selected Advisor.

The student will be informed of the time and place of the hearing at least 48 hours in advance. HCHC may remove a student accused of serious misconduct from campus pending the result of a disciplinary hearing or utilize other interim measures, at the College’s discretion. The policy of HCHC is to conduct closed hearings.

The disciplinary process is not subject to formal rules of court or evidence. (For example, a student is not “found guilty” based on proving a case beyond a reasonable doubt as in criminal law but can be “held responsible” for a violation that is “more likely than not” to have occurred.) A student is always given the opportunity to give his or her account of events and to present evidence and other witnesses in either disciplinary conferences or hearings.

A party may decline to participate in the investigative or complaint resolution process. HCHC may continue the process without the student’s participation. In most cases, a refusal to participate in the investigative process will preclude a party from appealing any determination. The Dean of Students will make this determination.
Student Code of Conduct

HCHC is an Orthodox Christian ecclesial institution of higher learning founded by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, and as such, it fosters a community life based on the evangelical commandments of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the preaching of the Apostles, the witness of the martyrs, the striving of the ascetics, and the guidelines set forth by the Holy Fathers in the canons.

Our conviction, drawn from both our Orthodox Christian Tradition and the universal Hellenic cultural inheritance, is that learning involves the whole person – mind, body, and spirit. Thus we believe education is best in an atmosphere of worship, prayer, participation in the sacraments, and the Church’s cycle of fasts and feasts. Our students are invited to embrace this grace-filled life that, we believe, enhances and enlightens the process of learning.

HCHC welcomes all who wish to live and study within the life of this sacred community. The nature of this holistic educational process requires that HCHC students are called to live according the moral precepts of our Orthodox Christian Tradition. While students are not expected to be perfect or sinless, they are expected to strive for holiness in their lives and to seek repentance and reconciliation when they fall short.

The Student Code of Conduct contained herein provides both guidelines for community living that are in keeping with the above philosophy of education that is rooted in our Orthodox Tradition as well as pertinent laws and statutes emanating from the federal, state, and local governments. Upon enrollment, HCHC students agree to abide by all of the policies and rules of the institution, to live according to the moral precepts of our faith tradition, to treat all members of the community with kindness and respect, and – if necessary – to submit to sanctions imposed by the institution when falling short of the mark.

ABUSIVE BEHAVIOR

Physical or mental abuse of any member of the HCHC community will not be tolerated.

Any kind of expressed or implied threat of mental or physical abuse against any person or his/her property for the purpose of submitting a person to physical pain or discomfort, indignity or humiliation at any time, regardless of the intent of such an act, is prohibited.

Such behavior includes, but is not limited to:
1. Detention by personal or mechanical methods
2. Misuse of one’s authority or leadership position
3. Forcing a student into violation of the law or HCHC regulations
4. Obscene or threatening phone calls
5. Threatening or intimidating another individual
6. Sending obscene or threatening e-mail or instant messages
7. Words that are spoken face-to-face as a personal insult to the listener or listeners in personally abusive language inherently likely to provoke a violent reaction

Threatening or abusive behavior will not be tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to, sexual, racial or religious harassment, intimidation, hazing, prank or unwanted phone calls, e-mail, graffiti or invasion of privacy.
Acts of verbal or written abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion and/or other conduct which creates a hostile or offensive working or educational environment are prohibited.

If you are being abused, or if you would like to report an abuse, please contact the Dean of Students immediately.

APPEARANCE STANDARDS

All Students

Because people have different perspectives regarding the concepts of modesty and appropriateness, HCHC has established appearance guidelines for all community members, including resident spouses and children. Students are encouraged to strive for excellence and to exceed minimum expectations in all areas, including dress. These standards are commonplace for most professional communities.

- Attire must be neat, clean, and modest.
- Footwear is required.
- Head coverings (other than religious adornments) such as hats, beanies, etc., may not be worn in class, the cafeteria, offices, or in the Administration Building or the Chapel.
- Anteri may be worn only by seminarians.

Seminarians

After receiving the blessing of the Archbishop to wear the School Cross, ordained and non-ordained seminarians will have the privilege and responsibility to wear the anteri in the Chapel, in the classrooms, and in the administrative offices. First-year students will have the privilege of wearing the anteri only in the Chapel or as otherwise directed by the Dean of Students when necessary for various campus events. Any relaxing of this requirement comes at the request of the SGA President with the approval of the Dean of Students. With the exceptions of serving at parish assignments or other special events, non-ordained seminarians are not permitted to wear the anteri off-campus. Seminarians requiring disciplinary sanctions will lose the privilege of wearing the School Cross and anteri until deemed appropriate by the Dean of Students and the Seminarian Review Committee.

ARRESTS

Members of the HCHC community are required to conform to all local, state, and federal laws. Students who are arrested for any reason (misdemeanor or felony) at the local, state, or federal level are required to notify the Dean of Students immediately. HCHC will cooperate with authorities as appropriate. HCHC may pursue disciplinary action when students are suspected of unlawful behavior, regardless of the status of criminal or civil proceedings.

BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS

It is expected that all HCHC community members will avoid the following behaviors:

- Lying - withholding information or giving false information.
- Misrepresentation - misrepresenting an organization (or oneself) as an agent of HCHC.
- Unauthorized use – unauthorized use of, entry into, or misuse of property in the possession of or owned by HCHC or any member of the HCHC community.
- Theft – attempted or actual theft and/or damage to property of HCHC or property of a member of the HCHC community or other personal or public property.
- Breaching security systems – jeopardizing or interfering with the safety and security systems established within the campus community, including the propping of locked doors, altering locking devices, permitting unauthorized access to another, etc.
- Breaching IT systems – jeopardizing or interfering with IT systems established within the campus community.
- Verbal abuse or threat to other persons.

BIGORTY
Acts of bigotry that humiliate, disrespect, degrade or otherwise harm individuals is prohibited.

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT
HCHC seeks to create an institutional culture that calls each member to a high standard of excellence in both personal and community matters. Excellence in all areas should be a distinctive mark of students and employees. Excellence is usually achieved through disciplined, sustained effort. Such excellence often results in external success (acknowledgment, promotions), as well as internal rewards (moral strength that comes from being well prepared, accomplishing important goals, serving the Church to our full capacity). Setting appropriate expectations for behavior is one way that HCHC helps students cultivate discipline and achieve success.

As an Orthodox Christian academic community, HCHC understands that our behavioral standards may seem lenient for some and strict for others, but it is nonetheless our intention to uphold Christian principles of conduct. We endeavor to promote personal lifestyle choices that deepen our love for God, build up the body of Christ, and advance the mission of HCHC.

CHEATING
For all academic matters, refer to the "Course Catalog" section of this document.

DISPUTES
While harmony is the hallmark of any Christian community, conflicts do occur. HCHC desires to assist all members of our community in the resolution of personal disputes. When facing a dispute, community members are encouraged to seek and resolve the dispute first with the other person(s) involved. Should you be unable to resolve the matter, it would be appropriate to ask an objective person to provide some guidance. In disputes involving students, an objective person could be a Resident Assistant, Dean of Students, or a staff or faculty member.

DISRUPTION
Intentional disruption of classes, research, teaching, activities, programs, or fire, police or emergency services is prohibited.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
Please refer to the HCHC Sexual Harassment Policy.
DRUG/ALCOHOL
Please refer to the HCHC Drug and Alcohol Policy.

EMOTIONAL AND SPIRITUAL HEALTH
The Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services (SFCS) is committed to offering support and assistance to students who are struggling in their personal lives. It is not unusual for students to experience difficult circumstances. Whether it is a relationship breakup, stress, depression, past trauma, or even the death of a loved one, professional counseling or pastoral guidance is sometimes needed.

Students are encouraged to contact the SFCS office that may provide referrals to qualified professional counselors. Students who have been diagnosed with mental health disorders are also encouraged to contact the SFCS in order to receive support as necessary.

On rare occasions, a student (or the spouse or child of a student) may be required to leave HCHC in order to receive appropriate medical/psychological care. Students are subject to involuntary withdrawal from HCHC if it is determined they (or a spouse or child) are suffering from severe emotional distress, and, as a result of that distress, engage in or threaten to engage in behavior that may cause harm to themselves or to others, or that proves disruptive to the HCHC community.

Any suicide attempt will result in notification of local law enforcement authorities and/or mental health authorities to protect the student from harm.

The student who has involuntarily withdrawn will be permitted to return to HCHC only after the issue that led to the withdrawal has been successfully dealt with and a support plan has been developed by the SFCS and agreed to by the Dean of Students and the President.

Students with a history of eating disorders, abusive relationships, addiction of any kind, or who have experienced any other trauma are encouraged to seek helpful and supportive resources by contacting the Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services.

FAILURE TO COMPLY
Failure to comply with the directives of HCHC officials or law enforcement officers, including, but not limited to, campus security and members of the resident life staff acting in the performance of his/her duties is prohibited.

FORGERY
Forgery or alteration or misuse of campus documents, records or identification, or knowingly furnishing false information, is prohibited.

HARRASSMENT AND STALKING
Please refer to the HCHC Sexual Harassment Policy.
HAZING
Hazing, defined as an act which endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student, or which destroys or removes public or private property, for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in a group or organization is strictly prohibited. Disciplinary action will be pursued aggressively.

Hellenic College Holy Cross’ hazing policy replicates the General Laws of Massachusetts – Chapter 269: Section 17 - Hazing; organizing or participating; hazing defined, Chapter 269: Section 18 - Failure to report hazing, and Section 19 - Issuance to students and student groups, teams, and organizations; report.

KNOWING PRESENCE
A “knowing presence” contribution is defined as: “behaviors, active or passive, which fail to confront or correct the misconduct of fellow community members.”

Students who choose to remain in the vicinity when one or more violations are occurring, and/or choose not to notify the appropriate personnel, are choosing to accept the consequences of that decision. Anyone who creates an opportunity or encourages another person to violate regulations may be deemed as responsible as the actual perpetrator and may be subject to the same sanctions.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION
Sensitivity to the rights, needs, and concerns of others should be evident in all public areas, including residence halls, apartment complexes, and all campus buildings and grounds. Vulgar or coarse language, coarse joking, obscenity, lying, gossip, passing rumors, verbal abuse, intimidation and the like are prohibited.

PLAGIARISM
Please refer to the "Course Catalog" section of this document.

SEXUAL IMMORALITY
Members of the HCHC community are required to refrain from all forms of sexual immorality, including, but not limited to: any form of pornography, rape, sexual violence and abuse, and all other forms of sexual misconduct.

Furthermore, the use of any HCHC telephone, computer equipment or personal computer to access pornographic sites, services, and databases or talk stations is prohibited.

Please refer to the HCHC Sexual Misconduct Policy for the school’s complete policy.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT GOA POLICY

For information regarding the policy of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America regarding sexual misconduct, please visit the Archdiocese’s website at www.goarch.org. All students are urged to familiarize themselves with this policy.
STUDENT RESPONSE TIMES
Students are required to respond within 48 hours to requests for information from members of the faculty, staff, and administration.
Alcohol and Drug Policy

The mission of Hellenic College Holy Cross is the “education and formation of the person within the life of an Orthodox Christian community.” HCHC is committed to ensuring an environment for its staff, faculty, and students that is consistent with the moral precepts of our faith as well as all applicable local, state, and federal statutes.

ALCOHOL POLICY
Under Massachusetts law, the possession, distribution, or sale of alcohol is forbidden for any members of or visitors to our HCHC community under the age of 21. Members of our community under the age of 21 are required to remove themselves from social gatherings where alcohol is present.

The Orthodox Christian tradition allows for moderate and responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages, while forbidding excessive drinking and drunkenness. As such, HCHC permits members of the community 21 years of age and older to possess and consume reasonable amounts of alcohol during approved school functions and within private dormitory rooms and married student housing apartments. The possession and/or use of bulk amounts of alcohol, (i.e., kegs, beerballs, etc.) or instruments for the rapid consumption of alcohol (funnels, etc.) are strictly forbidden, as are all “drinking games.” Regardless of age, drinking and open containers of alcohol are prohibited in public and common areas (such as the dormitory lounges.)

Members of our community (faculty, staff, and students) are prohibited from enabling underage drinking. Any member of the HCHC community hosting a private social gathering must be aware of his or her legal responsibilities as a host (please visit socialhostliability.org for more information.)

Any organization planning an event where alcohol is to served must submit a proposal in writing to the Dean of Students for approval at least one week in advance of the event. The organization must secure the services of our food service provider, Chartwells, through the Events Office – who will in turn hire appropriate bartending services.

In light of the mission of our school, any excessive drinking and drunkenness, as well as drunk and disorderly conduct, are strictly prohibited.

DRUG POLICY
HCHC prohibits the possession, use, consumption, manufacturing, sale or distribution of drugs, as well as the possession, use, manufacturing, or sale of drug paraphernalia. Additionally, the possession of drugs with intent to deliver, sell, or manufacture is prohibited.

The term “drugs” broadly includes, without limitation, any stimulant, intoxicant (other than alcohol), nervous system depressant, hallucinogen, or other chemical substance, compound, or combination when used to induce an altered state, including any otherwise lawfully available product used for any purpose other than its intended use (e.g., the misuse of prescription drugs, over-the-counter drugs, or household products)

HCHC takes the abuse of alcohol and drugs very seriously. Violations of the alcohol and drug policy will result in disciplinary.
SEEKING HELP
As an Orthodox Christian community, we are first and foremost concerned for the safety and well-being of our students. Students who voluntarily seek help for drug or alcohol abuse will not be subject to disciplinary action. Additionally, students are encouraged to seek necessary medical help for emergency situations due to the ingestion of drugs or alcohol. Calls made on behalf of self or others in such situations will not be treated as a disciplinary matter but will require follow-up with the Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services. Failure to follow through with these referrals will result in disciplinary action. Repeated and consistent patterns of seeking help may result in further review and the possibility of a mandated medical leave of absence.

The Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services’ (SFCS) mission is to provide HCHC students and their families with a wide variety of community resources in the areas of spiritual formation and counseling to strengthen and enhance their personal growth. SFCS supports the mission of Hellenic College/Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology by nurturing the spiritual and psychological well-being and development of all students and their families working in conjunction with the faculty, alumni, and the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. These programs are available to all students and family members. The Pastoral Care Director and Psychological Care Director coordinate the various services offered: spiritual fathers program; spiritual and psychological assessment; and counseling and referrals (on-and off-campus services available depending on need). SFCS counselors assist students and their families in resolving a wide variety of problems. Our counselors provide short-term counseling (with referrals as needed), crisis intervention, and educational seminars to the students and their families. Students in most cases can contact a counselor directly by calling 617-850-1289 or by dropping in to the office. Students experiencing academic difficulties can also come by. Sometimes a spiritual father, faculty member, or staff member may refer students for assistance. Seminarian candidates also may be referred for counseling subsequent to their psychological evaluation.

The SFCS office offers assessment and screening for both alcohol and substance abuse related concerns/issues. During Eisodos, the SFCS staff provides an informative session on the short- and long-term effects of alcohol and substance abuse on college campuses. Students are made aware of the academic, psychological, physical, spiritual, and legal consequences of alcohol and substance abuse.

Employee Conduct and Discipline Policy (Updated May, 2015)

Each Hellenic College Holy Cross (HCHC) employee is required to conduct himself or herself in a dignified, businesslike manner at all times. In keeping with our Orthodox Christian values you shall treat managers, supervisors, co-workers, faculty members, students, staff, customers, suppliers, and others you come into contact with as part of your work with the utmost professionalism and respect. Employees must conform to all HCHC work rules, operational guidelines, policies, and procedures, and follow instructions from supervisors with respect to all work-related matters.

It is not possible to list all conduct that is inappropriate in the workplace. What follows are samples of conduct which may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, at the sole discretion of HCHC management. The exact discipline is determined at the sole discretion of HCHC, depending on its evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances.

Abusive or Threatening Language
Use of abusive or threatening language on HCHC property or during work time is prohibited.

Destruction of Property
Destruction and/or abuse of HCHC property, or the property of others, is prohibited.

Dishonesty
Dishonest behavior is a serious offense. Dishonest behavior includes: stealing, lying about matters connected with work, falsifying records and documents, unauthorized personal use of HCHC property, doing unauthorized private work on employer time, and giving or receiving a bribe in any form.

Workplace Disruption
Each employee has a duty not to disrupt or distract co-workers in the performance of their duties and responsibilities.

Workplace Violence
Harassment or intimidation on HCHC property or during work time will not be tolerated from any source. Any serious offensive act, such as physical or verbal harassment, threats, or intimidation, or bringing a weapon to work, may result in immediate termination.

All employees have a duty to advise management of any suspicious workplace incidents. Information provided will be held in confidence to the greatest possible extent. Retaliating against any employee for bringing such information to management’s attention is prohibited.

Theft
Theft of HCHC property, or the property of others, will result in immediate termination and prosecution to the full extent of the law.
Attendance

Satisfactory attendance is important for efficient operations. Any unplanned absence may place an unfair distribution of the work load on others. If, however, you are ill and your presence at work will likely have an adverse effect on yourself or on others, you are not expected to report to work. Attendance records will be considered part of the employee’s performance review.

Employees who do not call in advance either their supervisor or Human Resources will be charged with an unexcused absence except under extraordinary circumstances. Employees who are excessively absent will be subject to disciplinary measures up to and including termination.

It is HCHC’s commitment and responsibility to provide a safe and non-threatening education and work environment.
JEANNE CLERY ACT COMPLIANCE

The report includes statistics for the past three years concerning crimes on campus, in off-campus buildings, or property controlled by the College reported to Campus Security.

The report also provides information about the campus’ crime and safety policies and procedures, student discipline procedures, and related items.

TIMELY WARNINGS

Hellenic College Holy Cross has implemented R.A.V.E., a campus-wide system that notifies all students, faculty, and staff via programmed telephone call, e-mail and text about any major event affecting the school and its community.

All members of the HCHC community are urged to report any such circumstances immediately. If it is a dormitory-related situation, the student is to report anything he/she sees or hears out of the ordinary to the Resident Assistant or Director of Housing immediately.

In emergency situations students, staff, and faculty are instructed to call 911. The HCHC security guard is on duty, making rounds Monday-Friday from 4:30 pm - 5:00 am There is 24-hour coverage on Saturdays and Sundays.

For a general description of HCHC security services, please refer to:

Policies and Procedures on Crime

1) Security and Crime Prevention Policies
   a) Restricted Access
      Students may not access the following areas:
      i) Vacant and abandoned buildings and property
      ii) Rooftops
      iii) Boiler and electrical rooms
      iv) Administration Building on weekends or after 5:00 pm Monday - Friday
   b) Campus Offices:
      Students should not be in campus offices (faculty, staff or other) after hours or in another student’s room without specific authorization. Students who gain unauthorized access into restricted areas are subject to disciplinary action.
   c) Residence Halls:
      All residential educational institutions are vulnerable to criminal conduct. Therefore, all residents should always be mindful of the following:
      i) Doors to rooms or apartments should be locked at all times.
      ii) Entryways to the Polemanakos Dormitory, Halki Village, and Dendrinos Village apartment complexes should never be propped open or left unattended.
      iii) Residents should never unlock or open the door of the residence hall or apartment complex to anyone who is not a current registered Residence Life student of HCHC.
      iv) Residents should never admit unknown persons into any non-public area.
      v) Students should never allow other persons to occupy their rooms or apartments.
      vi) Students should avoid walking alone on campus after dark and, whenever possible, should walk in pairs.
   d) Security of Personal Items
      Each student is responsible for securing his/her personal belongings. It is recommended that students with expensive personal items such as jewelry and other items bring in a personal lock box to ensure the safekeeping of the items. HCHC suggests that you secure your belongings and lock your door when you are away.

      HCHC is not liable for any items that are lost or stolen on HCHC property. Students are strongly encouraged to insure valuable personal possessions.

2) Policies Regarding Unacceptable Behavior
   HCHC espouses Orthodox values, which, in turn, reflect upon the academic and residential life on campus. Upon enrollment, students agree to abide by the policies, guidelines, and rules of HCHC, to respect the rights of all members of the HCHC community, and to submit to disciplinary sanctions imposed for violating the policies, guidelines, or rules of HCHC. Of course, students are accountable for ordinary standards of behavior in a civilized society, even though this guide may not explicitly prescribe a particular misconduct.

   HCHC reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant, deny applications for continuation into the graduate program, and to suspend or to expel any student whose behavior indicates that his/her presence at HCHC endangers or tends to endanger the health, safety, welfare or property of the members of the HCHC community or otherwise interferes or tends to interfere with the orderly and effective functioning of HCHC as an academic and residential community.

   In the event of serious misconduct, the student is subject to immediate suspension or expulsion if, in the judgment of the Dean of Students and/ or the Director of Housing, or other designated HCHC staff member, there is a significant risk to the safety, well-being or reputation of the HCHC... community or one or more of its members.

a) Vandalism
Unauthorized alteration of any HCHC property or property of others from its original condition, placement, and/or presentation, including graffiti, paint, alteration to landscaping, etc., is prohibited.

In keeping with our Orthodox tradition and Hellenic heritage, HCHC strives to educate the whole person, body, heart, soul, and mind. With ties to the Orthodox Church, HCHC is also obligated to follow ecclesiastical regulations as well as the moral standards of the Church. As an institution of higher learning in the United States, we are obliged to respect and uphold the principles and laws of the nation and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Each of these interests requires that HCHC establish and enforce certain policies, guidelines, and rules.

The purpose of the discussion is to communicate to the student why his/her behavior/performance was inappropriate/inadequate and seek the student’s agreement to not repeat the behavior/improve upon performance.

Hierarchs of seminarians and seminarian candidates are notified of disciplinary actions when students are found in violation of any charges brought against them.

b) Possession of Weapons
The possession and/or use of any type of firearm and weapon, or the use of hazardous chemicals on HCHC grounds at any time is strictly prohibited. Open flames, fireworks or explosives of any kind are also prohibited. A firearm is defined as any device designed to launch or fire a projectile. A weapon is defined as any object that is used or designed to inflict pain, fear, or death on a person or animal (including all knives, spears, paintball guns, plastic guns, air guns, or any item resembling a firearm -- real or fake, etc.). Violation of this policy may result in the student being subject to criminal proceedings by local authorities and severe disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from HCHC.

c) Physical/Emotional/Verbal Abuse
Physical or mental abuse of any member of the HCHC community will not be tolerated. Any kind of expressed or implied threat of mental or physical abuse against any person or his/her property for the purpose of submitting a person to physical pain or discomfort, indignity, or humiliation at any time, regardless of the intent of such an act, is prohibited.

Such behavior includes, but is not limited to:
1. Detention by personal or mechanical methods.
2. Misuse of one’s authority or leadership position.
3. Forcing a student into violation of the law or HCHC regulations.
4. Obscene or threatening phone calls.
5. Threatening or intimidating another individual’s behavior
6. Obscene or threatening sent e-mail or instant messages.
7. Words that are spoken face-to-face as a personal insult to the listener or listeners in personally abusive language inherently likely to provoke a violent reaction.

Threatening or abusive behavior will not be tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to, sexual, racial, or religious harassment, intimidation, hazing, prank, or unwanted phone calls, e-mail, graffiti, or invasion of privacy. Acts of verbal or written abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion and/or other conduct which creates a hostile or offensive working or educational environment are prohibited. If you are being abused, or if you would like to report an abuse, please contact the Dean of Students immediately.

The commission of an act of physical violence against any student or HCHC employee acting in the performance of his/her duties is considered an extremely serious offense. Any student who commits an act of physical violence against a Resident Advisor or any staff or faculty member will be subject to disciplinary action. A finding of responsibility in such a call will result in suspension or expulsion from HCHC.

d) Harassment and Stalking
Harassment is defined as actions that intend to harass, annoy, or alarm another person. Subjecting a person to unwanted physical contact, or attempts or threats to do the same, are forms of harassment. Other forms of harassment include:

1. Following a person.
2. Engaging in a course of conduct that alarms or seriously annoys another person and that serves no legitimate purpose.
3. Destroying private or public property.
4. Physical or verbal attacks or interference that prevents another person from conducting customary affairs.
5. Puts him/her in fear for their safety, or causes physical injury.
6. Conduct less than a physical attack which does the same.

Stalking is conduct in which a person repeatedly acts toward another person with intent to place the person in reasonable fear of bodily injury or to cause substantial emotional distress.

e) Sexual Advances, Harassment, Assault, Clergy Sexual Misconduct
Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and/or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature are considered sexual harassment and are illegal when:

1. Submission of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of the student’s status in a program, course, or activity.
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a criterion for evaluation or as a basis for academic or other decisions concerning that student.
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a student's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or academic environment.

Any member of the HCHC community may bring complaints of personal or sexual harassment, sexual assault, or violence to the Dean of Students or to the Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services Office. Sexual harassment and sexual assault are unacceptable behaviors for any member of HCHC, including faculty, staff, and students.

In addition, the Holy Eparchial Synod of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America has adopted a national policy on the investigation and resolution of complaints of sexual misconduct by clergy.

The toll-free hotline is (877) 544-3382.

All complaints will be taken seriously and allegations will be investigated fully and impartially. Callers may speak with a male or female volunteer in either Greek or English.
f) Sexual Immorality
Members of the HCHC community are required to refrain from all forms of sexual immorality, including, but not limited to: any form of pornography, rape, sexual violence and abuse, and all other forms of sexual misconduct.

Furthermore, the use of any HCHC telephone, computer equipment, or personal computer to access pornographic sites, services, and databases or talk stations is prohibited.

g) Sexual Misconduct GOA Policy
For information regarding the policy of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America regarding sexual misconduct, please visit the Archdiocese’s website at www.goarch.org.

All students are urged to familiarize themselves with this policy.
VICTIM RIGHTS

Any student or employee who becomes a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking (whether on or off campus) has the right to receive written explanation of his or her rights and options.

Please refer to the SEXUAL MISCONDUCT/TITLE IX POLICY included in this document for a description of Victim Rights.
POLICIES ON PREVENTION EDUCATION

All incoming students, staff, and faculty are introduced to the campus Security Staff at the time of orientation, briefed on the services provided by the department, and encouraged to contact the office with any potential problems, concerns, or recommendations. Campus Security is also responsible for providing crime awareness education programs, emergency preparedness, and administering and enforcing parking regulations.
PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION

The Clery Act protects against retaliation by an institution, officer, employee, or agent of an institution for exercising their rights under the Act. Retaliation includes intimidation, threats, coercion, discrimination, or any other form of retaliation. Hellenic College Holy Cross is in full agreement with this policy and abides by its instruction completely.
FIRE PREVENTION POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Fire Evacuation
Failure to evacuate a campus building immediately upon the sound of an alarm, or failure to follow specific prescribed procedures, including the on-site directives of a campus representative, is prohibited.

In Case of Fire:
Begin evacuation immediately. If you can do so safely, knock on your neighbors’ doors and notify them that they must immediately leave the building. Stay calm and keep order. Signs are posted in each residence hall and in each apartment giving appropriate evacuation routes. Evacuate using the nearest safe exits or stairwell. Assemble outside in your designated area.

1. If you can do so safely on your way out, pull the nearest fire alarm. This is a building alarm that will automatically notify the Fire Department.
2. Do not re-enter the building until permission has been granted by the Fire Department.
3. Contact the RA, Dean of Students, or the Director of Housing.

HCHC Fire-Related Policies

Fire Safety
It is essential for the safety of all members of the College community to be particularly careful about fire hazards. Firearms, fireworks, halogen lamps and heating devices of any type, and any other property or material which has the potential to be dangerous to persons or property, are strictly prohibited from all residence halls. Offenders of these regulations and abusers of fire alarms and other residence hall fire equipment will be subject to fines, removal from campus housing, disciplinary proceedings, and/or criminal prosecution.

False reports of fire or other dangerous condition, creation of a fire hazard or other dangerous condition, or activities that interfere with campus safety, civility or environmental health are strictly prohibited.

Flammable Material
At no time may a resident store or bring into any building a flammable, combustible or explosive fluid, or material other than cleaning fluids that are customary for residential life.

Smoking
There is absolutely no smoking allowed in any building on campus. All students agree to comply with this rule by virtue of residing in campus housing.
The disposal of cigarette butts anywhere on the grounds of HCHC is prohibited. Cigarettes must be put out and safely disposed of in a fire-safe container. Fines in the amount of $50 per occurrence will be issued to offenders and/or disciplinary action if deemed appropriate by the Director of Housing.

Fire and Smoke Alarms, Heat Detectors, and Extinguishers

When a fire alarm sounds, it is imperative that all students evacuate and stand clear of the building until signaled by officials to enter. Setting off a fire alarm without any sign of imminent danger is extremely irresponsible and is a federal crime. Fire extinguishers are for emergency situations only. Students who tamper with or discharge extinguishers for any reason other than emergency situations will be fined $250 plus the cost of recharging the extinguisher. Smoke alarms have been placed throughout the campus. Inoperable or malfunctioning smoke or heat detectors should be reported to the Director of Housing immediately. Tampering with or setting off smoke alarms or heat detectors is a violation of federal law. Students who tamper with smoke alarms or heat detectors for any reason other than emergency situations will be fined $250 plus the cost of repairing the equipment.

Burning or Lighting of Materials

The lighting and/or burning of any material, including, but not limited to, candles, incense, scented oils, potpourri, etc. is strictly prohibited.

Anyone found in violation of this policy will be fined $125 per occurrence and/or realize a loss of housing privileges.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

The Clery Act requires institutions that maintain on-campus housing facilities to establish a missing student notification policy. HCHC has established the following policy and guideline procedures for students living in residences owned and/or operated by the college.

Missing Student Notification Policy

The term “Missing Student” refers to any Hellenic College Holy Cross student who resides in on-campus housing. Each student living on campus has the option to designate a confidential contact person to be notified in case of an emergency or if the student is determined to be missing. Authorized campus officials and law enforcement will also have access to this information as it pertains to the missing student investigation. If a student does not designate a contact person, HCHC will contact local law enforcement to notify them that the student is missing. The college will notify a parent or guardian of a student who is less than 18 years of age. Authorized campus officials are permitted to investigate and enter a missing student’s living quarters before contacting emergency contacts and/or law enforcement.

Individuals should contact the following people if a student has been missing for 24 hours:

Academic-Related Policies

Academic Freedom

Preamble
We, the Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty, and Students of Hellenic College and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, in order to provide the guidelines and parameters by which the members of our two Schools are guaranteed the exercise of academic freedom commensurate with the purpose and mission of Hellenic College and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, acknowledge the directives found in the Association of Theological Schools' Policy Statement on "Academic Freedom and Tenure" (Bulletin 43, Part 1, 1998; Bulletin 50, Part 1, 2012) and NEASC Standards of Accreditation (Standard 5.14, 2011). In light of these directives, we are committed to providing the best possible teaching and learning environment, assuring the integrity of our mission, the faith and teachings of the Orthodox Church, and the practices of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

Statement
Academic freedom at Hellenic College and Holy Cross shall be exercised in accordance with the following guidelines and expectations:

- Hellenic College and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology shall adhere to the basic principle of academic freedom which guarantees the right of teachers to seek knowledge and present their findings without interference or penalty.

- As institutions of higher learning, Hellenic College and Holy Cross integrate the Orthodox Faith with learning. In that regard, the Institution will adhere to the principles of academic freedom while simultaneously holding firm to principles based on the centuries-old dogmas and canons of the Orthodox faith.

- In the religious, theological, and philosophical exposition and investigation of the scriptural, doctrinal, canonical, and moral foundations of the Orthodox Church, all faculty are expected to distinguish carefully between their own insights, developments, and speculations, on the one hand, and the teaching and dogmas which are held by the Orthodox Church on the other. In the classroom, faculty are free to discuss without harassment or limitations those subjects in which they have competence and a claim to be specialists.
• The Institution recognizes that this inherent right of the faculty is based on the principle that the function of an institution of higher learning is to increase and preserve knowledge, evaluate it, and impart it to others. For the Institution to perform this function, its scholars must be free to hold and express controversial views, for the sake of testing ideas and advancing knowledge.

• Despite all good will, there may be conflicts arising from statements or reported teaching of the faculty. To meet this situation in cases which cannot be satisfactorily clarified and resolved by a conference between the Academic Dean and the faculty member, a formal process may be initiated by either party. This formal process will allow for the presentation of the facts to the conflict to the Faculty Grievance Committee. Any decision of this committee involving matters of a doctrinal, ecclesiastical, or canonical nature may be further appealed within ten days, in writing, to the Eparchial Synod of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America for a final decision.

Academic Honesty

As part of their scholarly development, students learn how to work cooperatively in a community of scholars and how to make fruitful use of the work of others without violating intellectual honesty. Students learn the parameters of collaboration and the proper forms of quoting, summarizing, and paraphrasing. Faculty advisors and other faculty members will provide additional information and instruction in this area.

A student is subject to disciplinary action if found in violation of the accepted norms of student accountability in his or her academic work. All work submitted to meet course requirements (homework assignments, papers, examinations, etc.) is expected to be the student's own work, designed and presented for one course only.

In the preparation of work submitted to meet course requirements, students should always take care to distinguish their own ideas from information derived from primary and secondary sources.

• The responsibility for learning the proper forms of citation lies with each individual student.
• All paraphrased material must be acknowledged.

Examples of Academic Dishonesty

• Data falsification: The fabrication of data or the alteration of data included in a report
• Plagiarism: Taking another's statements, ideas, or information without full and proper acknowledgment and presenting them as one's own
• Collusion: Assisting another student by allowing him to copy one's own work, the use of purchased essays or term papers, and unauthorized cooperation in assignment during an examination

Hellenic College insists upon the highest standards of academic integrity in all student work, both written and oral.
Disciplinary Action

The following steps will be taken in the event of plagiarism:

- The faculty member will present evidence of plagiarism to the student.
- The faculty member will inform the Dean.
- The faculty member will arrange a meeting with the student, the Dean, and, if necessary, other involved parties if plagiarism is confirmed by the student or is indisputable on account of the evidence.
- The student will be placed on academic probation if the above meeting results in agreement that plagiarism has occurred.
- Hellenic College faculty members for courses in which the student is enrolled will be informed of the student's plagiarism.
- The Dean and the faculty member who initiated the process of assessing the student's plagiarism will proceed with disciplinary measures that reflect the severity of the act.

- Those measures may include, but are not limited to:
  - Failing the course where plagiarism occurred.
  - Withdrawing from said course without reimbursement and/or
  - Redoing the assignment(s) for a lower grade.

- The process will be repeated if said student commits a second offense of plagiarism.
  - The second academic probation will result in more severe consequences if plagiarism is confirmed.
  - Additional measures may be taken, such as those listed above.
  - The student may also be expelled from the College.

Student Appeal

The student may appeal the decisions of the dean and the faculty member by petitioning the Disciplinary Committee. In the event that the reporting faculty is also the Dean, the process will be mediated by the chair of the DPP Committee.
FERPA RIGHTS

Confidentiality of Student Records (FERPA)
HCHC complies with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, which governs the maintenance of student records. Under the Act, students may inspect and review their records and generally prohibit disclosure of personally identifiable information; however, the Act permits disclosure without consent in certain instances, including disclosure to faculty or administrators who have a legitimate educational reason for accessing the file and to parents of dependents as that term is defined by the Internal Revenue Service.

“Directory information” shall be available without limitation to any interested party unless the student specifically requests that any or all directory information be withheld. A student may limit the release of directory information for any given year by filing a request with the Registrar’s Office. HCHC has defined “directory information” to include:

- Student’s name
- Participation in officially recognized activities
- Degree and awards received
- Major fields of study
- Dates of attendance
- Other similar information as defined by HCHC

The Act affords students the following rights with respect to their education records:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day HCHC receives a request for access. Students should submit to the Registrar official written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The HCHC official will make arrangements for access and notify the student.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask HCHC to amend records that they believe are inaccurate or misleading. They should write the HCHC official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If HCHC decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when he or she is notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by HCHC in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel staff); a person or company with whom HCHC has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.
4. The right to file a complaint with the US Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Hellenic College, Inc. to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

   Family Policy Compliance Office
   US Department of Education
   600 Independence Avenue, SW
   Washington, D.C. 20202-4605

5. “Educational records” include any records in the possession of the College which are shared with or accessible to another individual. The following student records are not included among educational records and therefore are not subject to the Act. However, these records may be protected from disclosure by other provisions of federal or state law.

   - Private notes or records held by educational personnel (these documents become subject to student review only if they are made available to others within HCHC or to outside parties).
   - Student medical or psychiatric records created and maintained solely for treatment purposes (these documents are regulated by Massachusetts law). Under this law, students have the right to confidentiality of their medical records as well as the right to inspect and obtain a copy of these records.
Communications-Related Policies

Social Media Best Practices Summary

INTRODUCTION
The rise of social media creates powerful new opportunities to communicate with colleagues, friends, alumni, students, and the world. Social media platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Twitter, and others play a significant role in determining the digital reputation of Hellenic College Holy Cross (HCHC) and its faculty, staff, and students. Because social media often can blend the personal with the professional, it is important to exercise caution when using social media at all times.

While new social media platforms are emerging and old platforms fading, a general definition of social media includes forms of electronic communication that create communities of users who share messages, content, videos, and other material. In addition to the platforms noted above, examples include listserves, user groups, blogs, wikis, virtual social worlds (such as World of Warcraft or Second Life), and community ratings sites (such as Yelp and TripAdvisor).

This Social Media Best Practices Summary is designed to clarify the expectations that HCHC has for faculty, staff, and students (including student employees) who use social media platforms, and to help faculty and staff better utilize these platforms to enhance their individual reputations as well as the reputation of HCHC.

As a general matter, the social media world is no different than the in-person world. The same laws, rules, policies, guidelines, and best practices that govern our relationships with students, parents, alumni, the media (whether new or traditional), and the community all apply online. Faculty, staff, and students are as responsible for their online posts as they are for their personal, verbal, or written interactions.

SECTION 1: GENERAL POLICIES APPLICABLE TO ALL SOCIAL MEDIA ACTIVITIES, INCLUDING PERSONAL ACTIVITIES

Protect confidential and proprietary information. Do not post confidential or proprietary information about students, faculty, staff, alumni, others, or HCHC. All employees of HCHC are subject to FERPA and other laws mandating the non-disclosure of private information about students, fellow employees, and others. Even on your personal social media sites, you must follow all HCHC policies on privacy and confidentiality. Faculty and staff who share confidential or proprietary information are subject to disciplinary action, including termination.

Be respectful of others. Do not post information or content that is false, misleading, defamatory, abusive, harassing, threatening, discriminatory, obscene, or harmful to others. HCHC policies on harassment-free workplaces and discrimination apply in the online community as well as the physical community.

Respect copyright and fair use. When posting and commenting, honor the copyright and intellectual property rights of others and of HCHC. When you use or share material that belongs to others, be sure to cite your source appropriately.

Do not use HCHC’s name, trademark, or logo for endorsements. Do not use the HCHC name, trademark, logo, or other school images on personal social media pages. Do not use HCHC’s name to promote non-college enterprises, products, causes, or political candidates.

Respect school time and property. HCHC allows minimal time and use of school equipment for personal uses, but excessive use of equipment, resources, and time for personal social media activity may result in disciplinary action, including possible termination of employment.

SECTION 2: INSTITUTIONAL SOCIAL MEDIA
HCHC utilizes a variety of official social media sites and accounts to implement its marketing strategy and to build its reputation with alumni, employers, educators, and the wider community. The following policies apply to all HCHC social media sites and accounts.

Permission required. Before establishing any social media account as an official HCHC site or account, the person or office involved must obtain written permission from Melanie Pappas, Marketing Design Manager (mpappas@hchc.edu). The Office of Marketing and Communications will maintain the list of all approved HCHC social media sites or accounts, and has the right to revoke authorization for any such site or account at any time.

Content regulation. Although HCHC is not compelled to do so, it may monitor the content of all HCHC social media accounts. The Marketing Design Manager has the right to remove content that violates HCHC policies at any time.

Paid participation and endorsements. If anyone offers to pay an HCHC student or employee for participating in a social media platform, or offers to pay an HCHC student or employee for an endorsement in connection with that person’s role at HCHC, that student or employee must obtain the permission of the Marketing Design Manager.

SECTION 3: BEST PRACTICES

Everything posted is public. Whether you are posting for school business or on your own personal page, you must assume that everything you post is public, will be available to the public forever, and can be forwarded well beyond where you think your comments might land. If you wouldn’t say what you’re saying to a reporter or in a public space, then you probably shouldn’t say it online.

Your opinions are yours. If you identify yourself on a personal social media account as an HCHC student, faculty member, or employee, be sure that readers and viewers know that your views are your own and not those of HCHC. That is, you must clearly indicate that the content and views are not HCHC’s.

Be thoughtful about personal life and business life. If you use social media for professional purposes, be careful about mixing personal views and activities with your business sites. Some users have found it easier to keep separate individual accounts on specific platforms for personal and business content.

Be careful and accurate. Before you post or comment, check your facts. Review your comments for clarity, grammar, and spelling. It’s your reputation, and you don’t want to look foolish.

Be thoughtful. Always take care in the way you present yourself and your relationship to HCHC. Even with a disclaimer in place, personal posting may be interpreted as reflecting the official positions of HCHC, and will reflect on the school as well as on you.

Know privacy policies. Take the time to understand the privacy policies of the social media platforms you use. When those policies change, evaluate how those changes will affect you.

Protect your private information. Be careful about disclosing personal information, including birth dates, family information, and that you are away from home.

Protect your passwords. Just as is necessary with any computer accounts, take care to choose strong passwords and keep them private.

Copyright Infringement Policy

Copyright infringement is a violation of federal law as well as the U.S. Copyright Act and may result in both civil and criminal penalties. Consequently, any unauthorized copying or dissemination of copyrighted materials, (i.e., articles, music, films, etc.) is strictly prohibited by students and employees of Hellenic College Holy Cross and could lead to dismissal from the school or termination of employment.

Please be aware that individuals who share copyrighted sound recordings through a peer-to-peer client are often identified by the copyright holders and their agents. Such individuals are subject to legal action for their actions.

Civil copyright infringement could result in the payment of actual damages or statutory damages between $750 and $30,000 per item. If the act is considered “willful” infringement, the award may rise to not more than $150,000. In addition the individual may also be assessed attorney fees.¹

Should Hellenic College be notified of such behavior, students, staff, and faculty of HCHC will be subjected to HCHC disciplinary actions as well. The disciplinary process for students is defined in this guide.

Logistic-Related Policies

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class promptly and regularly, to prepare assignments with care, to turn in their papers on time, and to take an active part in class discussions.

On the syllabus of each course, the professor will make it clear to his or her students that excessive absences will necessarily affect their actual progress and achievement in learning and will be taken into account when their work is evaluated and grades are determined. HCHC defines “excessive absences” as more than 150 minutes of absence from class; instructors are free to use a stricter definition.

Students in excess of 300 minutes of absence from class must petition for an excused absence to receive a passing grade in the course. Any student not granted an excused absence will be required to withdraw from the class.

Campus Parking Policy

Every vehicle is required to maintain a valid registration, license plate and certificate of inspection along with a current/valid HCHC permit while on campus.

Each permit indicates where the vehicle is to be parked. They are issued as follows:

- Commuters and first-year students are issued green Maliotis Center permits. Park only in the Maliotis Center lot.
- Halki and Dendrinos residents are issued purple Halki/Dendrinos permits. Park only in your corresponding numbered issued space(s).
- Polemanakos residents are issued red lower lot permits. Park in the lower lot or in the spaces fronting the classroom wing before the gymnasium.
- Faculty and staff are issued blue permits for the Administration lot in front of the cross, Library lower lot or the Chapel roadway.

Do not park in fire lanes, reserved or visitor spaces or the Chapel courtyard.

If your vehicle is towed, please contact Roberts Towing at 617-782-2525. They are located at 25 Goodenough Street in Brighton.

Non-Resident Driver Policy

The Massachusetts Motor Vehicle Law requires out-of-state students bringing vehicles into the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to file a “Non-resident Driver Statement” with the local police department in the city in which their school is located.

Pursuant to M.G.L. ch.90 s.3, every non-resident enrolled as a student who operates a motor vehicle in Massachusetts that is registered in another state during any period beginning September 1 of any year and ending on August 31 of the following year must file a RMV “Non-resident Driver Statement” with the local police department. Failure to file such statement is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200. HCHC is required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to keep a record and provide proof to the state that students have been apprised of the law.

Who does this apply to?
- Any student who lives in on-campus housing who operates a vehicle in Massachusetts and does not have a Massachusetts license plate
- Any student who is temporarily or permanently residing in Massachusetts who operates a vehicle in Massachusetts and does not have a Massachusetts license plate

Who does this NOT apply to?
- Faculty, staff, vendors, visitors, or volunteers
- Any student who operates a vehicle WITH a Massachusetts license plate
- Any student who commutes to campus and does not reside in Massachusetts (i.e., only comes to campus for classes but lives out of state permanently or temporarily)

Instructions
Students bringing vehicles into Massachusetts whose vehicles do not have Massachusetts license plates are required to download and complete the Massachusetts Department of Transportation Non-resident Driver Statement form. This form must be completed for every vehicle. Once completed, bring or mail the form to the Finance Office, located on the 2nd floor of the HCHC Administration Building.

Additional Information
HCHC will mail a copy of the student’s form to the Brookline Police Department. HCHC will then mail a state-approved decal to the student’s local address. This decal must be prominently displayed in the uppermost center portion of the windshield of the student’s vehicle. There is no cost for the decal and it is valid until the student’s expected graduation date. This decal IS NOT a substitute for an HCHC parking permit decal.

School Closing Policy

The determination to close Hellenic College Holy Cross campus due to weather or an emergency will be made by the President.

In the event of a weather-related emergency or an emergency necessitating the cancellation or delay of work or classes, a message to inform the community will be sent across the RAVE Emergency Notification System no later than 5:30 a.m. An e-mail will also be sent.

The RAVE notification and e-mail will specifically note that Hellenic College Holy Cross is closed, and that employees, faculty, and students are not expected to report. No notification means that the campus is operating on a normal schedule.

Essential personnel will be required to work and certain offices and functions will be operational in the event of a campus closing. The expectation is that some arrangement for coverage/standby will be made between key departments, directors, and the staff. If an employee is required to work on such a day, compensatory time off will be provided to that employee, and scheduled at a time mutually convenient to the department and affected individual.

Should Hellenic College Holy Cross be closed, dining services will immediately adopt a weekend meal schedule. This means that only brunch (11:30 am - 1:30 pm) and dinner (5:30 - 7:00 pm) will be available. Any scheduled campus events will be cancelled unless prior arrangements have been made to hold the event regardless of weather conditions.

The President’s Office via campus e-mail will communicate the decision regarding early dismissal of employees. Unless otherwise notified, all staff members are expected to remain at work until the close of business.
Financial Aid Disclosures

Overview

Financial aid award(s) are not guaranteed and are subject to any and all revisions in federal, state, and institutional policies, availability of funds, changes in enrollment, minimum grade requirements, housing status, and timely submission of all required documentation, including official transcripts, as well as correction of any miscalculation of awards.

Federal Loan Programs Administered by HCHC

Federal loans may be accepted or rejected by signing the Estimated Financial Aid Award letter. All loans must be repaid in accordance with the repayment terms associated with the loan. If a student wishes to borrow less than the offered amount, he or she can reduce the loan award by contacting the Office of Financial Aid.

Loans that are accepted will not be processed for disbursement until all required paperwork is completed and submitted. If the student is a first-time borrower of the Direct Stafford subsidized and/or unsubsidized loans, he or she is required to complete Entrance Counseling and a Master Promissory Note. If a first-time borrower of a Parent/Graduate PLUS loan, a PLUS Master Promissory Note is required. There is also an annual credit check. All of these processes must be completed at studentloans.gov. If a PLUS applicant has been denied a PLUS loan, he or she could obtain an endorser or may choose to document to the satisfaction of the U.S. Department of Education that there are extenuating circumstances related to his or her adverse credit history. Once either of these courses of action has been completed, the PLUS applicant is also required to complete PLUS Credit Counseling on studentloans.gov.

Maximum Time Limit—Subsidized Usage Limit Applies (SULA): Limits a first-time borrower’s eligibility for Direct Subsidized Loans to a period not to exceed 150% of the length of the borrower’s educational program. Under certain conditions, the provision also causes first-time borrowers who have exceeded the 150% limit to lose the interest subsidy on their Direct Subsidized Loans.

Student Financial Aid Records

Students are responsible for updating and maintaining accuracy in personal and demographic information as reported to the Office of Financial Aid. Communication with HCHC students shall be via officially assigned HCHC e-mail addresses, phone, and mailings. HCHC disclaims all liabilities for damages arising from the HCHC Student Information System of record, whether caused by data entry, programming error, computer malfunction, or any other possible circumstance that may result in misinformation. HCHC complies with the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which affords students certain privacy rights with respect to their educational records. If a student wishes disclosure of his or her financial aid information to someone else, a signed FERPA Release Form is required to be on file in the Office of Financial Aid.
General Academic Requirements

Eligibility for federal, state, and institutional financial aid may be impacted and/or revised if any of the following situations apply:

- If a student is pursuing an undergraduate-level program of study but is registered for graduate-level courses
- If a student is pursuing a graduate-level program but is registered for undergraduate-level courses (unless these courses have been approved by the academic advisor as preparatory coursework and the Office of Financial Aid has been notified)

Preparatory coursework financial aid eligibility is calculated upon the receipt of appropriate submission of signed forms from the Registrar. Students registered for courses that are not applicable to the designated program or degree may not be eligible for financial aid for these courses. Taking courses outside the degree or designated program could affect full-time enrollment status.

HCHC’s Withdrawal Policy as It Relates to Financial Aid

Students who withdraw from the College (either officially or unofficially) are subject to a federally required review of their federal aid called Return to Title IV Funds (R2T4). Once a student withdraws, HCHC is required to determine if the student is eligible to retain any financial aid. A calculation is utilized, which uses the following information: the date of the withdrawal, the financial aid received, and the amount of tuition charged. HCHC utilizes software provided by the federal government to determine how much of a student’s federal financial aid must be either retained or returned. The calculation is based on the percentage of time that a student attends classes. If HCHC returns funds to the government due to the R2T4 calculation, the student is then responsible for any subsequent open balance to the institution caused by the

HCHC’s Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

All students are required to be making measurable progress toward their degree requirements. See HCHC’s undergraduate and graduate catalogs for the specific policy relating to Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). A student’s progress is measured after every semester. Students not meeting the standards of SAP will be notified in writing, and their financial aid for the following semester may either be withdrawn or they will be placed on a Warning status, meaning they will be eligible for only the next semester’s financial aid. Students placed on a Warning status will have one semester to improve. An appeal process is in place for students who have lost their financial aid due to the SAP review. Extenuating circumstances must be evident. Documentation will be required. A maximum of two appeals will be reviewed. HCHC’s SAP Policy is separate and distinct from the Academic Probation and Suspension policy administered by the Office of the Registrar. HCHC’s SAP Policy is separate and distinct from requirements for scholarship renewal. An approved SAP appeal does not guarantee the reinstatement of a scholarship, as the student will need to complete a separate scholarship appeal for the Scholarship Appeal Committee’s review and decision.

Federal Refund Policy

Recipients of Federal Title IV financial assistance who subsequently withdraw before completing 60% of their period of enrollment will be subject to the federal refund policy. Students must inform the institution in a timely manner of their withdrawal from the institution.

Briefly, a federal refund worksheet is used to determine the amount of Title IV funds the student has earned at the time of withdrawal. The amount of Title IV Program assistance earned is based on the amount of time the student spent in academic attendance.

HCHC Refund Policy for Courses

Tuition and room and board refunds are determined by the number of weeks a student has attended class or has been in residence. If a student officially withdraws within:

- Week 1: 90% refund
- Week 2: 80% refund
- Week 3: 60% refund
- Week 4: 30% refund

There are no refunds after the fourth week of the semester. Additionally, a student who withdraws from the school and fails to do so in the prescribed manner will not be entitled to any refunds.
Admission-Related Policies

Recruitment and Admissions Non-Discrimination Policy

Hellenic College Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, color, national or ethnic origin, marital status, veteran status, religion, age, or disability. We seek to provide opportunities and experiences for all students on an equal basis. Application questions marked as not required are used for summary reporting purposes to ascertain compliance with the College’s guidelines only. These answers are not used as a basis for admission or in any discriminatory manner.

Immunization Requirements Policy

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires that our students receive the required vaccinations or immunizations for hepatitis B; mumps, and rubella; Tdap, and chickenpox. In addition, all students residing on campus are required to be vaccinated for Meningococcal (1 dose MCV4, or a dose of MPSV4 in the last 5 years). You may decline the vaccine after you have read and signed the MDPH Meningococcal Information and Waiver for Students at Residential Schools and Colleges: http://www.mass.gov/eohhs/docs/dph/cdc/meningitis/info-waiver.pdf
You must submit and complete your health form prior to enrolling at HCHC. The health form is one of several forms that is sent to you by the Bursar when we receive your deposit. After completion, you can scan and email the form to the Admissions Office at (617) 850-1260. This document must be sent in by July 15th.

Your immunization information is a critical component of your medical records. Every student enrolled in Hellenic College Holy Cross shall be immunized against vaccine-preventable diseases caused by infectious agents in accordance with the immunization policies of the Massachusetts Department of State Health Services. Massachusetts State Law requires all registered full-time, part-time, and visa-carrying students to show proof of the required immunizations below. It is strongly recommended that this be submitted at the time of registration. You have 30 days from the start of classes to provide documentation of these vaccines. Failure to do so will prevent you from registering for the next semester’s classes until documentation has been submitted.

The only exception to the foregoing requirement is a medical exemption signed by a licensed physician (MD or DO) authorized to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts that includes the physician’s license number.

Immunizations are not in conflict with the Orthodox faith. Conscientious objections or waivers, which may be permissible for attendance in schools, do not qualify as exemptions.

- Tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis (Tdap) vaccine one-time booster after 6/2005. If booster date is > 10 years, a Td vaccine date must also be included.
- Two MMR (measles, mumps, rubella) vaccines (these doses must be given at least four weeks apart beginning at or after 12 months of age). Laboratory proof of immunity is acceptable. Birth before 1957 in the US is also acceptable for college students with the exception of health science students.
- Hepatitis B vaccine series (a total of three doses at varying intervals).
• Required for residential students: one dose of Meningococcal MCV4 vaccine or MPSVA vaccine within the past five years or a completed waiver.
• Two doses of Varicella vaccine or laboratory proof of immunity or a reliable history of varicella documented by a health care provider and birth before 1980 in the US is acceptable except for health science students. Completion of the Tuberculosis Screening/Testing Form and additional testing if necessary.

Policy on SAT and ACT Scores

• If the student GPA is at least 3.0, generally the testing will be waived unless there are significant concerns about other aspects of the student's file.
• If the student holds a GPA between 2.7 and 3.0, the Admissions Department can determine if the test scores are required based on their best judgment. They may choose to have the file reviewed by the Faculty Admissions committee.
• If the student holds a GPA less than 2.7, test scores will be required before the student's application will be deemed complete.
Employment-Related Policies

Employment Non-Discrimination Policy

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION
HCHC is committed to establishing and maintaining an environment free of all forms of discrimination and harassment for all members of the College community. HCHC prohibits discrimination against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, military service, or because of marital, parental, veteran status, or any other protected class. HCHC does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational, extracurricular, athletic, or other programs, or in the context of employment. Sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment as defined in this Policy, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Sex discrimination is also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 151B, and other applicable statutes.

COORDINATION WITH HCHC'S NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY
HCHC recognizes that discrimination and harassment related to a person’s sex can occur in connection with misconduct related to a person’s sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, age, disability, or other protected class. Targeting a person on the basis of these characteristics is also a violation of state and federal law and College policy. Under these circumstances, HCHC will endeavor to coordinate the investigation and resolution efforts of sexual misconduct complaints with the investigation and resolution of complaints of discrimination or harassment based on other protected classes.

Promotion and Advancement Policy

Hellenic College Holy Cross (HCHC) believes that each employee should have the opportunity to advance to the highest level that his or her talents, experience and qualifications allow. To that end, HCHC has a policy encouraging promotions and advancement from within. In order to give our employees advance awareness of available job opportunities, notice of available positions are displayed on job posting boards located in the Cafeteria and outside the Human Resources Office seven (7) calendar days before posting with outside/external placement resources. Positions are also posted on the HCHC website, www.hchc.edu after the seven-day waiting period. Employees are encouraged to apply for promotional and advancement opportunities.

Of course, in all situations, HCHC is committed to selecting the best candidate who is the best fit for the opportunity, and therefore positions will ultimately be awarded to the candidate who, in HCHC management’s judgment, is most qualified.

Complaint Processes

Student Complaint Process

Hellenic College Holy Cross recognizes that disputes may sometimes arise and requires the parties involved to resolve the conflict informally whenever possible. If resolution cannot be reached informally, a formal complaint process is available which assures impartial and equitable resolution of the conflict.

This process is initiated by the student and is available to any student who believes he or she has been treated unfairly. Such student has the right to have his or her complaint heard fairly and promptly. The student will receive support and information each step of the way.

Complaints should be filed as soon as possible and no more than 90 days after the incident occurs. A complaint may be resolved at various stages of the process.

The complaint process may not be invoked for matters which have established, independent appeal processes. Examples of these include, but are not limited to:

- Academic standards
- Code of student conduct
- FERPA
- Financial aid
- Grades
- Title IX
- Discrimination and harassment
- Consumer protection
- VA GI bill feedback

Matters which are not considered “grieve-able” include the following:

- Federal and state laws
- Employment and personnel decisions
- Policies of the Board of Trustees

Process for Filing a Complaint

Informal Complaint

Step One: Hellenic College Holy Cross requires that the student make every effort to informally resolve a complaint or concern. It is important that you talk directly with the staff, faculty member, or administrator with whom you have a complaint. This will allow the person the opportunity to review your concerns and work with you to resolve the issue.

As a professional courtesy, you are advised to:

- Contact HCHC employees by phone or email to schedule an appointment
- Be clear about what your concern is
- Indicate how you would like the issue resolved

If your complaint or concern is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may move into the formal complaint process detailed below.
If you have questions or would like assistance with this process, please contact: studentcomplaints@hchc.edu

Formal Complaint
Step Two: You may utilize the formal complaint process after exhausting the informal process with the person with whom you have a complaint/concern.

Formal complaints involve review by the faculty or staff member’s supervisor.

To submit a formal complaint, you must use the Hellenic College Holy Cross "Student Complaint Form." This form can be submitted online using the provided link. You may also print and complete the form and send it directly to the Dean of Students, Room I07, Administration Building.

After the form is submitted, you will receive notification via your HCHC e-mail account. The notification will occur within five (5) business days and it will provide you with information regarding the next steps in the process. If necessary, the e-mail may also ask for additional information.

If your complaint or concern has not been resolved to your satisfaction after the formal complaint, you may appeal the decision by continuing the complaint process into Step Three.

Appeal
Step Three: To appeal a decision provided by the formal complaint process, you must submit an email to studentcomplaints@hchc.edu. You must state the reason why you want to appeal the decision. Also provide the following:

- Brief outline of steps you have taken toward resolving the issue
- Decision given
- Reason for appealing this decision
- Possible solution(s) you see to the issue
- Contact information (phone, e-mail, etc.)

After your e-mail requesting an appeal is submitted, you will receive notification via your HCHC e-mail account. This notification will occur within five (5) business days and will provide you with the next steps in the process and the name of the person who will be contacting you.

Complaints that involve the faculty, staff, or deans will ultimately be adjudicated by the President. His decision is final and cannot be appealed.

If you have any questions or would like assistance with any portion of this process, please contact studentcomplaints@hchc.edu.
Grade-Related Grievances

Contesting Grades on Exams or Assignments
During the semester, if a student would like to contest the grade of an exam or assignment, the following process is observed:

- The student discusses with the professor the contested grade as soon as practicable.
- The professor explains why the student received that grade.
- If the student believes that the grade was arbitrary, he or she will petition the dean.
- Upon review, the dean will determine whether the grade remains or if the matter should be reviewed by two other faculty members.
- After consultation with the reviewers, the dean will make the final determination.
- In the event that the instructor in question was the dean, this process shall be followed by the associate dean.

Contesting Final Grades
Final grades are final. A student may challenge a final grade only by demonstrating that an error was made in computation or that an assignment was overlooked. Students must contact the registrar and the instructor within thirty days of the end of the semester.

The registrar and the instructor will review their records to determine whether an error was made and respond within a week.

Contesting Transfer Credits
In the case of contested transfer credits the following process is followed:

- The student petitions the DPP Committee to reconsider the number of courses and credits accepted for transfer, offering additional or clarifying information about such courses/credits.
- The DPP Committee convenes to discuss the petition and render its decision.
- The DPP Committee informs the student of its decision.
  - In the event the student is contesting a decision originally made by the
    - DPP Committee, the student will petition the Associate Dean
    - who will review the matter and additional information, and determine whether a second review is warranted by either the DPP Committee or another appropriate faculty committee.
Disciplinary Process

Students should expect HCHC to confront any circumstance or behavior that might hinder personal growth or disrupt community life.

HCHC believes that when a student chooses to disregard community expectations, it has the obligation to suspend community privileges, including housing and class participation. Each incident is reviewed on a case-by-case basis, with consideration of the following:

- Severity of the violation
- Context of the incident
- Responsiveness of the accused to confrontation, and
- Degree to which the individual displays genuine repentance

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

When it employs sanctions, HCHC intends to:

- Be fair and consistent.
- Promote change in the individual.
- Provide restitution (in case of theft and/or loss).
- Restore the individual to the community.

The following is a list of possible sanctions available to HCHC. More than one of the sanctions may be imposed for any single violation. Other sanctions may be used when deemed appropriate by HCHC.

- Warning:
  - A statement of the standards of conduct is made to the student with an official warning concerning future behavior.
- Loss of privileges:
  - Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
- Loss of credit for assignments:
  - Credit may be taken away for assignments submitted, in the case of plagiarism.
- Failure of course:
  - Student may be given a failing grade in a course.
- Fines:
  - Fines vary according to the violation, and may include all costs involving damage to HCHC or private property.
- Restitution:
  - This is compensation for loss, damage or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
- Discretionary sanction:
  - Work assignments, service to HCHC or other related discretionary assignments.
- Mentoring/Accountability:
  - The student is required to meet for a specified period of time with a faculty or staff member for accountability and support.
- Disciplinary contract:
o A student is placed on disciplinary contract for minor and/or repeated behavior infractions.

When placing a student on disciplinary contract, HCHC intends to communicate that the student’s behavior is serious and that subsequent behavior violations, as well as failure to complete disciplinary action, will result in more serious disciplinary action, up to and including immediate dismissal.

- Disciplinary probation:
  o The student is expected to show development in responsible actions toward HCHC and members of the community for a specified period of time. A student is placed on disciplinary probation for major and/or repeated behavior infractions. Probationary students (academic, financial aid, and disciplinary) are ineligible to hold student leadership positions.

When placing a student on disciplinary probation, HCHC intends to communicate that the student’s behavior is jeopardizing his/her enrollment and that subsequent behavioral violations, as well as failure to complete disciplinary sanctions, will likely result in immediate dismissal from HCHC.

Probationary students are ineligible to hold student leadership positions, may not participate in public ministry at HCHC, and forfeit institutional scholarship awards.

HCHC generally informs the parents or legal guardians of students who are placed on disciplinary probation, as permitted under the Family Educational Rights to Privacy Act.

- Interim suspension:
  o Students are denied access to the residence halls/married student housing complexes, and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all HCHC activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible.

- Suspension:
  o The student is involuntarily separated from HCHC for a specified length of time. Suspended students are required to leave campus for the duration of the suspension and may not attend class, reside in on-campus housing, attend Chapel, eat in the cafeteria, etc. Absences from classes are not excused and faculty members are not obligated to permit students to make up missed classroom work. All academic and financial consequences caused by the suspension are the responsibility of the student.

- Withdrawal:
  o The student is permitted to withdraw from HCHC without the privilege of returning until a time specified.

- Dismissal:
  o The student is permanently separated from HCHC. No refunds are made, all financial aid may be canceled, and the student will suffer academic consequences of his/her actions. Dismissed students are required to leave campus immediately, will receive failing grades in all courses.

DISCIPLINARY LEVELS and SANCTIONS OF A NON-ACADEMIC NATURE
The list of disciplinary levels and sanctions below is intended to provide a general framework that will generally be followed in most cases. However, consideration is given to the specifics of the incident and the previous behavior of the student(s) involved, as well as to other relevant factors. Therefore, outcomes and procedures may differ. HCHC may respond to violations that do not appear on this list.

Level One
A level one infraction is a first-offense, incidental or minor infraction of HCHC policy: alcohol, bigotry, accidents, dress code, entertainment violation, quiet hour violation, failed room inspection, parking violation, burning candles, etc. Level one disciplinary responses include, but are not limited to, a warning, community service, reduction in community privileges, restitution, etc. A level one sanction cannot be appealed.

Level Two
A level two infraction is a serious or repeated infraction of HCHC policy: repeated level one infraction, lack of follow-through on a level one sanction, pornography, sexual immorality, alcohol or tobacco use, etc.

Level two disciplinary responses include, but are not limited to, all level one responses, disciplinary contract, mentoring, professional counseling, suspension of public ministry, removal from student leadership positions, suspension, etc.

Level Three
A level three infraction is a very serious or dangerous infraction of HCHC policy: repeated level two infraction, lack of follow-through on level two sanction, pornography, sexual immorality, theft, vandalism, alcohol or tobacco use, illegal drug use, lying, violation of the law, hazing, violent behavior, etc.

Level three disciplinary responses include, but are not limited to, all level two responses, restitution, disciplinary probation, suspension, withdrawal, dismissal, etc.

For most infractions, the Dean of Students (or other appropriate administrator) will conduct an informal meeting – called a disciplinary conference – to discuss the infraction with the student and assign any sanctions. In the event that an infraction could lead to a removal from campus housing for longer than one week, suspension, or expulsion, the Dean of Students will convene a disciplinary hearing that will include members of the faculty and staff, and the student may invite the disciplinary representative of the SGA for advice and support. The student will be informed of the time and place of the hearing at least 48 hours in advance. HCHC may remove a student accused of serious misconduct from campus pending the result of a disciplinary hearing. The policy of HCHC is to conduct closed hearings.

The disciplinary process is not subject to formal rules of court or evidence. (For example, a student is not “found guilty” based on proving a case “beyond a reasonable doubt” as in criminal law but can be “held responsible” for a violation that is “more likely than not” to have occurred.) A student is always given the opportunity to give his or her account of events and to present evidence and other witnesses in either disciplinary conferences or hearings.

Students may appeal a disciplinary decision on the grounds that:

- Fair consideration was not provided to the student (i.e., there is evidence that some aspect of the hearing was prejudicial, arbitrary or capricious).
- New and significant information, not reasonably available at the time of the initial hearing, has become available.

Students who wish to appeal a disciplinary decision should submit a letter of appeal to the President within three working days of the communication of the decision. The letter of appeal should outline the facts in the matter, the disciplinary decision, the rationale for why that decision is being appealed, and a list of persons the student wishes to participate in the appeal (if applicable). The President will generally request a meeting with the student and the person issuing the disciplinary decision to discuss the appeal, and may invite other persons, as he/she deems appropriate.

The President may appoint a committee to review the facts. The President serves as the final appellate level, and will issue a final sanction to the student.
INTRODUCTION

Applicants to Hellenic College Holy Cross are committed to faith, education, and service and have a special interest in developing personally and professionally in preparation for serving the Church and society. This commitment to spiritual growth and human service unifies the diverse student population at Hellenic College Holy Cross.

EARLY ACTION ADMISSION

Early Action Admission provides freedom and flexibility for students seeking an early indication of their chances for admission. Those admitted early are free to apply to other schools and compare financial aid offers from other institutions.

Benefits of Applying for Early Action

- Earlier receipt of admissions decisions
- Early consideration for scholarships and financial aid
- Earliest consideration for on-campus housing

REGULAR DECISION ADMISSION

Applications submitted under the Regular Decision Admission will be reviewed on a rolling admission basis. HCHC will notify applicants of its decision within two weeks after complete application materials are received. Applications received after August 15 will be considered for the spring semester.

ADMISSION PROCESS/HOW TO APPLY

Hellenic College Holy Cross accepts students of all races and creeds. It admits qualified first-year and transfer students to all programs in September and January.
In evaluating applicants for admission, the Admissions Committee implements a holistic process. Admission is based on each candidate’s academic record, application, personal essay, recommendations, extracurricular activities, and test scores.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Hellenic College

All of the following are taken into consideration in judging qualifications for admission:

- Completed HCHC application form or Common Application
- Personal essay (choose one of the Hellenic College questions or submit your Common Application essay)
- Official copy of all transcripts (all high schools and colleges you have attended)
- One letter of recommendation from an academic source (Employer letter of recommendation will suffice for graduate or non-traditional undergraduate students)
- ACT or SAT test scores (waived for transfer students with over 24 credits of college work)
- Interview with the Director or Associate Director of Admissions (in person, on phone, or via Skype)

In addition, the following applicants must submit:

Seminarian Applicants

- Hierarch’s evaluation
- Spiritual father’s recommendation
- Copy of baptismal/chrismation certificate
- Background check

International Applicants

- TOEFL/IELTS/Language proficiency test scores
  (HCHC Code #: 9794)
Transfer Applicants

Submit course descriptions or course catalog from previous colleges/universities

Results from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); Hellenic College requires a minimum score of 550 on the paper-based test or a minimum score of 79-80 on the new internet-based testing.

Students wishing to transfer to Hellenic College from regionally accredited colleges must normally have a minimum 2.00 grade point average in their previous college work. Students transferring credit must have earned at least a C in the course from an accredited institution. Both an official transcript and a course catalog that lists course descriptions must be submitted for review. Courses are accepted that correspond to courses offered by Hellenic College or are related to them. A two-year residency is required. Eisodos is required of all incoming students; students transferring with more than 45 credits may petition the Registrar to be excused from the course. Once application materials are submitted to Hellenic College, they become the permanent record of Hellenic College and may not be returned to the applicant.

Home-Schooled Applicants

Home-schooled applicants, like all other students seeking undergraduate admission to Hellenic College, must submit transcripts. Since some home-school programs do not follow a traditional high school curriculum, we ask that each home-schooled student either (a) submit a notarized transcript, or (b) send us a state-approved letter that indicates the completion of the home-school program is equivalent to a high school diploma.

Semester of Faith

Semester of Faith is an immersion experience (akin to a semester abroad) through which current college students can experience life at Hellenic College for one semester, while taking a full course load of classes. Students can choose from religious electives, general education courses, or courses required for their majors. The student’s home institution has discretion on transferability of credits taken at Hellenic College. The program offers students an opportunity to study and live their faith in an Orthodox Christian community, while still completing their bachelor’s degrees without interruption.

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

All of the following are taken into consideration in judging qualifications for admission.
• Completed HCHC application
• Personal essay
• Mandatory interview with the Admissions Director (in person or by telephone)
• Official copy of all transcripts (documenting all undergraduate and graduate work)
• Evaluations from one academic source (or employer if you have been out of school for over one year)
• GRE test scores (waived for students who have already earned graduate degrees or who have an undergraduate GPA of 3.5 or greater). It is the responsibility of each applicant to make certain his or her GRE scores are sent directly to Holy Cross from the Graduate Record Examinations, Educational Testing Service, CN 6000, Princeton, New Jersey 08541-6000. The Holy Cross code number is R-3449-6. Visit www.ets.org/gre.
• Letter of recommendation from a priest

Seminarian Applicants

• MDiv essay
• Hierarch’s evaluation
• Spiritual father’s recommendation (if different from priest’s)
• Background check
• Copy of baptismal/chrisimination certificate

International Applicants

• TOEFL test scores

Results from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); Holy Cross requires a minimum score of 550 on the paper-based test or a minimum score of 80 on the new internet-based testing.

Once application materials are submitted to Holy Cross, they become part of the permanent record and may not be returned to the applicant.
NEXT STEPS FOR ACCEPTED STUDENTS:

- Submit $500.00 deposit to confirm enrollment and intent to live on campus ($200.00 if you plan to commute to campus). We accept the following methods of payment: check, money order, or credit card. To make a payment, please send enrollment form to Office of Admissions and call the Bursar at 617-850-1272 to process your deposit.
- Submit health report and immunization verification.
- Contact Michael Kirchmaier, Director of Financial Aid, to discuss finalized Financial Aid award letter, as well as scholarship opportunities. (m kirchmaier@hchc.edu; 617-850-1239)

STUDENT CATEGORIES

Regular Students

The term “regular student” is used for all students, including transfer, exchange, and international students, who have been accepted into one of the degree programs offered by the school, and who pursue the degree requirements on a full-time basis. The course load for a full-time regular student depends on the degree program in which he or she is enrolled. A student is considered full-time when he or she is taking a minimum of 12 credits per semester. Full-time tuition rates remain the same for any student enrolled in 12 to 18 credits per semester.

International Students

Students who are applying from foreign countries must obtain an F-1 student visa in compliance with sections 101(a) F(11) of United States law.

Hellenic College Holy Cross international students are responsible for keeping their own passports valid beyond the expiration date by six months. International students are required to report their addresses to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) on Form I-53, available at any US post office on or before January 31 of each year.

Proficiency in English to pursue a course of study equivalent to that normally required of a US applicant must be demonstrated through the TOEFL scores. To be eligible for admission as an international student, you must meet the following criteria:

- Must be a degree-seeking student.
- Meet admission criteria for freshmen, for transfer students, or must possess a second bachelor’s degree, whichever is applicable.
- Pass the TOEFL test with a minimum score of 550 on the paper-based test, or a minimum score of 79-80 on the internet-based TOEFL.
- File a HCHC Financial Statement that indicates that your sponsor has sufficient finances to support you for the duration of your stay in the United States. Downloaded financial statements must be mailed to us because signatures are required.
- Maintain full-time enrollment in order to comply with federal regulations.

When registering for the TOEFL exam, please note the Hellenic College Holy Cross TOEFL code number is 9794.

To be in compliance with federal law, international students must maintain full-time status (12 minimum credit hours). In addition to the admissions requirements for all students, international students must submit an immigration status declaration form and an affidavit of support. Support from churches, organizations, individuals, other outside parties, etc., must be documented in writing and indicate monetary amounts thereof.

International students are required to be in full compliance with all laws and regulations regarding their studies and immigration status. Failure to do so is basis for dismissal.

Hellenic College

Special Students at Hellenic College

One may apply for admission as a special student. Normally, this is a student who does not technically fulfill all of the requirements for admission as a full-time or part-time candidate for a degree. Special-student status may be held for only one academic year. Following this, a student must request either full-time or part-time status, or must withdraw. Students with special-student status are ineligible for federal financial aid per the Department of Education. Students with special student-status are also ineligible for institutional scholarships.

Seminarians at Hellenic College

Men studying at Hellenic College for preparation towards graduate theological studies for the purpose of ordination participate in a Seminarian Program designed for undergraduates that helps their vocational discernment. The Seminarian Program is open to men from all Orthodox jurisdictions and churches. For more information, see the Seminarian Handbook.
First-Year Academic Studies Program (FASP)

The First-Year Academic Studies Program (FASP) will provide conditionally admitted students with the resources, mentorship, and skills necessary to meet successfully the academic requirements of college life. This will be provided through specialized courses designed to develop and strengthen basic communication and cognitive thinking skills, coordinated teaching incentives, academic advising, and individual counseling opportunities. At the end of that period, the Dean, Academic Services Coordinator, and two faculty members will reexamine the student’s performance and accordingly remove the conditional status, or dismiss the student. The program serves to empower students to do their best, not only while at Hellenic College, but well after they graduate.

Seminarian Students at Holy Cross

Since its establishment in 1937, the primary purpose of Holy Cross has been and continues to be the preparation, education, and training of clergy for the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. In conjunction with the academic requirements of the MDiv program, men studying at Holy Cross toward ordination participate in an integrative Seminarian Program designed to facilitate the intellectual, spiritual, personal, interpersonal, and pastoral development of the student. The Seminarian Program is principally intended to prepare future priests to serve the needs of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, although it is open to men from other Orthodox jurisdictions and churches.

Upon acceptance into the Master of Divinity program, a declared candidate for the priesthood is considered for admission into the Seminarian Program during his first year of studies. During this time, the student’s progress will be reviewed. The criteria for evaluation include:

- Academic performance
- Faithful attendance at chapel services
- Development of a stable and regular relationship with a designated spiritual father
- Ongoing participation in spiritual and psychological assessments
- Adherence to all the rules and regulations governing student life, as described in the Student Handbook, and other directives of the school
After verifying a candidate’s academic and spiritual progress, the President makes the decision as to who receives the designation of seminarian. Formal recognition of seminarian status takes place in the fall semester of the second year at the ceremony of the Stavroforia, when crosses are presented to them after Great Vespers of the Feast of the Elevation of the Holy Cross (September 14). A second formal recognition of a seminarian’s good standing occurs in the fall semester of his senior year in the ceremony of the Rassoforia, when the seminarian is given the honor of wearing the exorasson, evidencing his fitness to preach the word of God.

Seminarians are expected throughout their tenure at Holy Cross to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18) and to strive to live their lives “in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ” (Philippians 1:27). Seminarians are encouraged to utilize the academic, spiritual, pastoral, psychological, and vocational resources of the school throughout their studies at Holy Cross. In order to assist a seminarian’s development, his progress is reviewed regularly by the Dean of Students.

The final official act of the Holy Cross Seminarian Program is to offer its assessment of a candidate for ordination when the candidate submits his application to Church authorities. Please note that even the successful completion of the Seminarian Program does not in itself warrant ordination. The decision to ordain is made solely by Church authorities of the candidate’s jurisdiction.

Special Students at Holy Cross

At Holy Cross School of Greek Orthodox Theology, special students are classified according to the following three categories:

1. Non-degree candidates: Holy Cross may accept a limited number of students (full- or part-time) who do not technically fulfill all requirements for admission, but are permitted to enroll as special students for a period of up to one academic year. After this, students must fulfill admission requirements to attain regular status, or else withdraw. Special students are subject to the same regulations as regular students. Applicants in this category usually are not eligible for seminarian status or for financial assistance from the school. Special students are ineligible for federal financial aid per the US Department of Education.

2. Non-matriculated students: Holy Cross admits a limited number of students who desire to take one or two courses, whether for credit or audit, on a non-degree basis. These applicants must demonstrate the capacity to work successfully on the graduate level. They follow simplified registration procedures, the appropriate forms for which may be obtained from the Offices of Admissions and the Registrar. Should a non-matriculated student choose to apply to a degree program in Holy Cross, no more than 25% of the credits for that program may be earned as a non-matriculated student. Non-degree candidates are ineligible for federal financial aid.

3. Hellenic College seniors: Hellenic College seniors who have nearly completed their college requirements and have available openings in their academic program may petition the graduate school Dean for Special Student status by completing the necessary form devised for this purpose. Normally, one to two courses per semester may be taken under this status with the approval of the Deans of both schools. Credit for such courses is applied toward the theology degree. In no instance is double credit given for any courses (that is, toward the fulfillment of requirements in both the College and School of Theology). Also, upon completion of their undergraduate studies, Hellenic College students who desire to enroll in the School of Theology must fulfill all admission requirements for entering Holy Cross.

Part-time Students at Holy Cross

The School of Theology accepts a limited number of qualified students as degree candidates on a part-time basis. Tuition is determined on a credit-hour rate. Such part-time students must fulfill all admission requirements. In order to receive federal financial aid, part-time students must be registered for a minimum of 6 credits.

Exchange Students at Holy Cross
Exchange students are those who are officially registered with other accredited graduate theological schools and seminaries and enroll at Holy Cross for a semester or more. Grades for the courses taken are transmitted to the school in which the student is officially registered. Financial obligations are determined by the protocol between these schools and Holy Cross.

Special Ministerial Candidates at Holy Cross

Men who hold the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from a non-Orthodox theological school and have received ministerial ordination prior to their reception into the Orthodox Church and who wish to be candidates for the holy priesthood in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese must normally have at least two years of active experience in a Greek Orthodox parish prior to their acceptance as seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. They must also complete three years of study at Holy Cross. The Holy Cross degree program will be tailored to meet individual needs. The modified course of study will include language courses and will be planned in consultation with the Dean and the candidate’s academic advisor.

1. Candidates who hold advanced degrees (MA, PhD) without any theological training will be enrolled in the three- or four-year MDiv degree program.
2. The completion of the degree program does not in itself constitute a guarantee for ordination.
3. Upon the completion of the degree program, candidates may be required by Church authorities to do additional work in order to strengthen their linguistic abilities and refine their liturgical training.

RESIDENCY AT HOLY CROSS

In order to earn a Holy Cross School of Theology degree, there is a three-year residency requirement for the Master of Divinity degree, and a one-and-one-half year residency requirement for the Master of Theological Studies degree. A student must complete, at a minimum, 75% of the degree requirements for his or her program at the School of Theology.
LEARNING ABOUT HCHC

The Office of Admissions encourages qualified students who are interested in pursuing a well-rounded liberal arts education or graduate theological education in the Orthodox Christian tradition to apply for admission.

To learn more about Hellenic College Holy Cross and its programs, visit our website at www.hchc.edu or contact the Office of Admissions toll-free at 866-HCHC-EDU (866-424-2338), 617-850-1285, or by fax at 617-850-1465. You may also write to: Office of Admissions, Hellenic College, 50 Goddard Ave., Brookline, MA 02445, or email: admissions@hchc.edu.

CAMPUS VISITS

Prospective students are encouraged to visit Hellenic College Holy Cross. While visiting campus, candidates can tour the campus with a student, as well as meet with the Admissions staff, faculty members, and (if requested) with a deacon or priest. Prospective students are welcome to attend classes while on campus. Meetings are offered on weekdays throughout the year between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Campus visits and meetings must be arranged in advance by contacting the Office of Admissions.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

See the financial aid section for basic fees, payment policy, and financial aid details.
ACADEMIC INFORMATION

INTRODUCTION

The Hellenic College Holy Cross academic year consists of the fall and spring semesters, and one to two summer sessions. Registration, advisement, and orientation periods prior to each semester vary in length according to the requirements for the semester. There is a reading and examination period at the end of each semester.

Each student is expected to be familiar with all regulations covering the curriculum and is responsible for planning a course of study in accordance with those regulations and requirements pertinent to his or her intended degree.

REGISTRATION

Registration takes place in several steps, all of which must be completed before registration can be considered valid. To register, students should:

- Obtain financial clearance from the Finance Office.
- Review course offerings and student advising worksheet in MyHCHC student portal.
- Meet with academic advisor to review course selections.
- Register online and review class schedule in MyHCHC student portal.
- Make course adjustments during the designated drop/add period at the beginning of each semester.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Registrar’s Office gives students the opportunity to prevent personal information from being released to friends, relatives, or interested persons who inquire at the Registrar’s Office and to delete the student’s name from the student directory, in order to comply with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (the Buckley Amendment).

This is accomplished by completing a form that is available in the Registrar’s Office or on the Registrar’s webpage. See the Student Handbook for more information.

LATE REGISTRATION

Any student who fails to register at the appropriate scheduled time is assessed a late registration fee of $100.

PLACEMENT AND PROFICIENCY TESTING

Hellenic College students are assessed for competencies in mathematics and writing upon enrollment in the College. Placement aids in determining which class is most suitable for the student. All undergraduate students are expected to complete testing or have met the required credits. Semester of Faith students are exempt from placement/proficiency testing, but may be required to complete testing, should they seek future matriculation at Hellenic College.

Mathematics Placement Testing

- Testing determines placement in MATH 2010/Fundamentals of Mathematics or MATH 2014/Mathematical Inquiry as it relates to the student degree program.
- Students must fulfill, at a minimum, 3 credits of Mathematical Inquiry. Students may not ‘test out’ of the mathematics requirement via the math placement administered by Hellenic College.
- Transfer students who have met the mathematics requirement for their degree program with transfer credit or Advanced Placement (AP) credit (minimum score of 3) are exempt from placement testing.

Modern Greek Language Placement Testing

- Testing determines Modern Greek Language placement.
- Students are not required to complete Modern Greek Language Placement testing, but may request testing if higher-level course placement is desired.
- Students seeking upper-level placement in Modern Greek must consult with the Greek Studies Program Chair for placement.
- Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese must complete 24 credits of Modern Greek during their studies at HCHC. Only 6 credits may be waived through placement testing.

Writing Proficiency Testing
- Testing determines writing proficiency and is not used for placement purposes.
- Students may not ‘test out’ of ENGL 1101/English Composition I and ENGL 1202/English Composition II requirements via the Writing Proficiency Test administered by Hellenic College. (FASP students follow a revised curriculum that replaces English Composition I and II with Academic Writing I and II.)
- Transfer students who have met the writing requirements for their degree program with transfer credit or Advanced Placement (AP) credit (minimum score of 3) are exempt from the Writing Proficiency Test.

COURSE ADJUSTMENTS

Course adjustments (add/drop) can be made via the MYHCHC student portal during the Add/Drop period. Any course dropped after this time is considered a course withdrawal and requires the completion of the “Course Withdrawal Form” located in the Registrar’s office. Applicable refunds are outlined within the financial information section.

COURSE AUDITING

Any student intending to audit a course (and earn no credit) must note this on the registration form and formally register for the course as an audit to receive the permission of the course instructor. Auditors are expected to attend all regular classes. A student who first registers for the course for credit may change to auditor status only during the drop/add period. A student who first enrolls in a course for auditor status may change to credit status only during the drop/add period. Courses audited are not included in determining the total credits earned. The charge for auditing courses is 50% of regular tuition rates.

Seminarian wives may audit courses at no charge. A registration form must be completed in the Registrar’s Office indicating the course is for audit (no credit).
READING AND RESEARCH COURSES

Reading and Research courses provide students with opportunities to work closely with full-time faculty members in a special field of study that complements the student’s program. The student will have the opportunity to pursue research of a scholarly nature or to complete a special term project. Reading and Research courses offer students the chance to study content that is not part of the regular curriculum. It is not a substitution for, nor individualized tutoring in, courses regularly offered.

HCHC is not obligated to provide Reading and Research courses. Arrangements for Reading and Research courses must be made during the registration period.

Hellenic College

A student may undertake a Reading and Research course by drafting a proposal in cooperation with the appropriate instructor. This proposal should be prepared on a form available in the Registrar’s Office. It must carry the signature of the faculty member and the chair of the department and then should be submitted to the Dean of the College for final approval. Reading and Research courses are reserved for juniors and seniors. The student must have a GPA of 3.0. Generally only one directed study per year is allowed. Each student is normally allowed two Reading and Research courses toward his or her degree.

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Reading and Research courses are accompanied by a syllabus and a learning agreement, submitted to the Dean for approval. For Reading and Research courses, the general Boston Theological Institute standard is 15 pages of written work per academic credit.

DIRECTED STUDY

A Directed Study course is one-on-one instruction in a course listed in the catalog but not offered on the current schedule. Students may be granted permission to take these courses independently under the supervision of a professor. Such courses must already be listed in the catalog with established titles, course numbers, and descriptions. Directed study courses are typically offered in instances when a course is required for graduation that semester.

HCHC is not obligated to provide directed studies. Arrangements for directed study courses should be made during the registration period, and finalized no later than the drop/add period.

CROSS-REGISTRATION

HCHC students have the opportunity to broaden their intellectual horizons by taking advantage of cross-registration opportunities with other local colleges, universities, and schools of theology.

Hellenic College

Students can cross register at Boston College, Newbury College and Regis College. Students who wish to cross-register must have the approval of their program chair and have completed one semester of coursework at Hellenic College. Students should have a GPA of 3.0 or above and be in good academic standing (no probation or disciplinary issues). They are permitted a maximum of one cross-registration course per semester unless granted permission otherwise by the Dean.

Seniors and juniors may also register for graduate courses in Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. Students must have a GPA of 3.3 or above. Students may register only for classes for which all prerequisites have been completed. Students who desire to take a graduate class and who do not meet the above qualifications may petition the Director of their program for permission to register.
College Year in Athens (CYA)

Established in 1962, CYA was the first study-abroad program in Greece for English-speaking undergraduates. All programs are delivered in English at the Athens-based International Center for Hellenic and Mediterranean Studies (DIKEMES) located next to the Kallimarmaro (Marble) Stadium and the National Gardens in the heart of the city.

Undergraduate students seeking to participate in the College Year in Athens (CYA) program must consult with their advisors and complete the Transfer of Credit Pre-Approval Form at least 3 months prior to CYA semester start. Students must have a 3.0 minimum cumulative grade point average and be in their junior or senior year of studies. Students are not eligible for CYA in their final semester at the College. Southwestern University (Georgetown, TX) is the school of record.

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Holy Cross is a member of the Boston Theological Institute (BTI), a consortium of eight theological schools in the Boston area. Students from Holy Cross, in consultation with their academic advisors, may cross-register for elective courses without charge at any of the other BTI schools. The number of electives permitted to be taken in the BTI may not exceed half the number of electives available in any given degree program. This restriction may be lifted when additional courses not offered at Holy Cross are taken to cover degree requirements or for specialization.

ELECTIVE COURSES IN HOLY CROSS

Because of the comprehensive nature of the Orthodox tradition (which embraces Scripture, Church history, the Church Fathers, dogmatic theology, liturgics, canon law, etc.) and other essential requirements pertaining to language studies and vocational skills, the degree programs (except the ThM) allow for only a limited number of elective courses. The limited number of elective slots and moderate number of students taking electives necessitate the policy that elective courses must normally enroll a minimum of four and a maximum of eight MDiv and MTS students, with preference given to graduating seniors. A filled elective course can additionally enroll a combined total of four ThM and BTI students. In advanced 7000-level courses, preference is given to ThM students. All other arrangements are considered rare exceptions and require the approval of the Dean.
SEMESTER COURSE LOAD

The minimum course load for full-time students is 12 credits. The normal course load for students is 15 credits, and students may register for up to 18 credits at no additional tuition charge. Any student taking more than 18 credits per semester will be required to pay additional tuition, and obtain the approval of their academic advisor and the Dean. Students are not permitted to overload in their first year of study except in extenuating circumstances and with the approval of their academic advisor and the Dean.

SUMMER COURSES

HCHC offers courses during summer sessions. Students may enroll in up to 6 credits in one session. Summer tuition rates apply. Cross-registration is not available during summer sessions.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

Students are expected to complete course requirements by the dates established by the instructors. In the event that requirements are not completed, a student may petition for an extension by filing a Petition for an Incomplete. This form must be obtained from the Registrar’s Office and the request must be approved by the instructor, who will grant the incomplete if it is deemed appropriate. Completed and approved petitions must be filed in the Registrar’s Office no later than the last day of class. No incomplete grades may be granted without this form. All course requirements must be completed within thirty days from the last day of the semester, after which all incompletes are converted to grades based upon submitted course requirements. Only one request for an extension will be granted each semester per student, unless otherwise recommended by the academic advisor and approved by the Dean.

PROBATIONAL STATUS

Less than a 2.0 (C) grade point average automatically places a student on academic and financial aid probation. Students, academic advisors, the Academic Services Coordinator and the Financial Aid Office will be informed in writing of the student’s probationary status by the Registrar in January for the spring semester and in June for the fall semester, provided that all the student’s grades have been received by the Registrar’s Office. Students on academic probation may not exceed 12 credits the following semester. During that semester they are required to meet with an advisor periodically to discuss their progress. Additionally, students must meet with the Academic Services Coordinator on a weekly basis to monitor academic progress. Students may also be required to attend workshops, work with an academic tutor, or seek personal counseling through the Spiritual Formation and Counseling Office. Students may register for more than 12 credits only once they have proven that they can complete 12 credits in a given semester with a grade of at least C in each class (no grade below C, withdrawals, or incompletes). Students who are on academic probation for two semesters, consecutive or not, will receive from the Registrar notification of automatic academic dismissal and will be required to discontinue their studies at Hellenic College. See below for further instructions on reinstatement and/or readmission. Students who have a grade point average of less than 1.0 (D) shall receive an automatic academic dismissal. See below for further instructions on reinstatement and/or readmission. The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose academic work falls below its standards, who violates its rules and regulations, or whose continuing presence constitutes a risk to the well-being of others or the community as a whole.

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE

Withdrawal takes place after the conclusion of the drop/add period. A student should obtain a Course Withdrawal form from the Registrar’s Office. Withdrawals from courses will be recorded on transcripts as a W grade. The last day to withdraw from a course is listed on the academic calendar. Students are not allowed to withdraw from more than one course per semester without the recommendation of the academic advisor and approval of the Dean. For undergraduate semester honor rolls, a student must earn 12 credits in that semester.

REPEATING A COURSE

A course with a grade below a C- may be repeated. The grade earned in the first attempt of the course is retained on the student’s permanent academic record; however, only the highest grade earned for a repeated course is computed in the cumulative grade point average. Repeat courses must be approved by the Registrar’s Office.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

HCHC grants a leave of absence only for extraordinary circumstances over which the student and HCHC have no control. A leave of absence granted for medical reasons must have certification by a physician that the student is unable to meet the normal student activities required. Procedures for applying for a leave of absence are the same outlined in the section under Withdrawals from HCHC. A request for a leave of absence must be filed with the Registrar’s Office before the end of the semester. A leave of absence will be granted for one semester, not to exceed 180 days. No student may have a leave of absence longer than one semester during his/her enrollment, subject to review by the Dean.
A student on a leave of absence may not enroll at another school during that period since he/she is considered a student at HCHC. Failure to observe this regulation will result in disciplinary action. The effective date for a withdrawal, leave of absence, or stop out is the date the application is filed with the Registrar.

STOP OUT

Students who are not eligible for an approved leave of absence may seek a stop out. Students seeking to leave HCHC with the intention of returning at a later date (not to exceed 180 days) will be considered a stop out. A stop out does not apply to absences from classes for short-term reasons.

WITHDRAWAL FROM HCHC

If a student desires to withdraw voluntarily from HCHC, he or she must secure an Enrollment Status Change form from the Registrar. If withdrawal takes place after the eighth week of instruction, grades of W will be entered on their transcript. Credit will not be granted. In the case of a minor, withdrawal will not be permitted without written consent from the parents or guardian. A student who fails to withdraw in the prescribed manner will not be entitled to an honorable dismissal nor to any refund. When applicable, notations will be entered on the permanent transcript as to the standing of the student at the time, such as “withdrew while disciplinary action pending,” etc. Readmission after withdrawal must be made through the Office of Admissions, for which see “Readmission after Withdrawal from HCHC.”

READMISSION AFTER WITHDRAWAL FROM HCHC

Students who have withdrawn voluntarily from HCHC may seek readmission within two years through a simplified process. Students must submit the following documentation:

- A petition for readmission form
- A letter addressed to the Director of Admissions detailing reasons for seeking readmission
- A one- to two-page update to the original autobiographical statement recounting activities since leaving Hellenic College
- Official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken since leaving Hellenic College
- International petitioners must submit anew the following forms: affidavit of support, immigration status declaration, and dependent family visa request and affidavit (if applicable).

All communications with HCHC must be conducted through the Office of Admissions. Petitions must be completed by June 25 for the fall semester and October 25 for the spring semester. The Admission Committee will decide on the petition after reviewing the original application dossier together with the student’s record and the autobiographical statement update. Students must reapply if returning after more than two years.

ACADEMIC STANDING AND HONORS

All students must maintain a semester grade point average of 2.0 (C) per semester in order to be considered in good academic standing. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for graduation.

Students are responsible for meeting the full requirements for graduation as set forth in the HCHC catalog upon date of entry. In the event of program changes or adjustments, students shall be informed of the changes and they shall be advised how they will continue to meet the requirements for graduation. The academic advisor assists in the planning of a program, but the final responsibility for meeting the requirements for graduation rests with the student.

Graduation Honors

Students with a grade point average of 3.5 or higher but less than 3.69 receive their diplomas “With Distinction.”

Students with a grade point average of 3.7 or higher but less than 3.89 receive their diplomas “With High Distinction.”

Students with a grade point average of 3.9 or higher receive their diplomas “With Highest Distinction.”

At commencement, the highest-ranking undergraduate with 90 credits completed at Hellenic College and the highest ranking MDiv graduate with two-thirds of all credits completed at Holy Cross are selected to deliver valedictory addresses.

Hellenic College Semester Honors

Students with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher but less than 3.5 are placed on the Honors List.

Students with a grade point average of 3.5 or higher but less than 3.8 are placed on the Dean’s List.

Students with a grade point average of 3.8 or higher are placed on the President’s List.

DECLARING A MAJOR

Students should plan to declare their majors in their sophomore year.

GRADUATING CEREMONY REQUIREMENTS

Students are eligible to walk in commencement provided that they do not exceed more than 6 credits outstanding to complete their degree program. All credits must be completed within the summer term immediately following May commencement. Students who are not projected to complete all required credits for their degree programs at the time of commencement must petition the Degrees, Policy, and Procedures Committee of the faculty of their respective school to walk no later than the end of February in the year in which they plan to walk.

PROBATION AND ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

Less than a 2.0 (C) semester grade point average automatically places a student on academic and financial aid probation. Students, academic advisors, and the Financial Aid Office will be informed in writing of the student’s probationary status by the Registrar in January for the spring semester and in June for the fall semester, provided that all the student’s grades have been received by the Registrar’s Office.

Students who are on academic probation for two semesters, consecutive or not, will receive from the Registrar notification of automatic academic dismissal and will be required to discontinue their studies at HCHC. Students who earn a semester grade point average of less than 1.0 (D) shall also receive an automatic academic dismissal. See below for further instructions on reinstatement and/or readmission.

HCHC reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose academic work falls below its standards, who violates its rules and regulations, or whose continuing presence constitutes a risk to the well-being of others or the community as a whole.

Within two weeks of being notified of academic dismissal, a student may formally petition for reinstatement by submitting to the Dean’s Office a petition explaining any mitigating circumstances concerning the academic dismissal. If reinstated, a student will be ineligible for federal financial aid until satisfactory academic progress is proven.

In the event the petition to be reinstated is denied, a student may seek readmission in one of the following two semesters. The following documentation must be submitted:

- A petition for readmission form
- A letter addressed to the Director of Admissions detailing reasons for seeking readmission
- A one- to two-page update to the original autobiographical statement recounting activities since dismissal
- Official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken since dismissal
• International petitioners must submit anew the following forms: affidavit of support, immigration status declaration, and dependent family visa request and affidavit (if applicable).

All communications with HCHC must be conducted through the Office of Admissions. Petitions must be completed by June 25 for the fall semester and by October 25 for the spring semester.

Students whose petitions have been denied may submit a new, complete application after two years have elapsed from the date of their dismissal. Students who have not petitioned for readmission and later seek readmission more than one year from the date of their dismissal must submit a new application.

Hellenic College

Students on academic probation may register for a maximum of 12 credits the following semester. During that semester they are required to meet with advisors and Academic Services regularly to discuss their progress. Students may register for more than 12 credits once they have proven that they can complete 12 credits in a given semester with a grade of at least C in each class (no grade below C, withdrawals, or incompletes).

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Credit is allowed for only one course per semester in which a student receives a grade of D. Credit is not allowed for a second required course in the same field (e.g., Systematic Theology, Church History, Old Testament, etc.) in which a student receives a D during the entire academic program. Furthermore, the following stipulations also apply to passing credit for a D:

• If, in any given semester, more than one D is received, credit for only one such course will be given toward graduation requirements.
• If, in any given semester, more than one D is received and one of the grades is for an elective course, credit will be given for the elective course, not the required course.
• If, in any given semester, two or more Ds are received in required courses, the student may choose which course will be designated for credit and which course(s) will be repeated, except in cases involving a second D in required courses of the same area.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class Attendance

Students are expected to attend class promptly and regularly, to prepare assignments with care, to turn in their papers on time, and to take an active part in class discussions.
On the syllabus of each course, the professor will make it clear to his or her students that excessive absences will necessarily affect their actual progress and achievement in learning and will be taken into account when their work is evaluated and grades are determined. HCHC defines “excessive absences” as more than 150 minutes of absence from class; instructors are free to use a stricter definition.

Students in excess of 300 minutes of absence from class must petition for an Excused Absence (see below) to receive a passing grade in the course.

Any student not granted an excused absence will be required to withdraw from the class.

Final Exams
The final week of each semester is set aside for final exams or a final class meeting. With the exception of changes authorized by the Dean, all final examinations must be given during this week, according to the schedule announced by the Registrar. Professors are not expected to provide alternate exam dates to students. In extraordinary circumstances (see below, under excused absences), a student may petition the Dean for a final exam to be administered on another date.

Excused Absences
Excused absences are any absences from class that will not result in any consequences, e.g., reduction of grade, disciplinary action, etc. These are usually absences for extraordinary reasons, and in excess of those permitted by the HCHC attendance policy and the instructor.

They include, but are not limited to:

- Serious health concerns
- National Guard service
- Family tragedy
- Automobile accident
- Any unfortunate incident that happens unexpectedly and unintentionally, typically resulting in damage or injury

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the HCHC Registrar. Notification should include an email to the Registrar as soon after the situation as possible. Contact information for the HCHC Registrar: (617)-850-1261 and jostrosky@hchc.edu.
This notification must be followed by written confirmation that provides:

- The reason for the absence
- Documentation confirming the situation, (i.e., a record of appointments or documentation from a healthcare provider stating the student has been under the doctor’s care, a copy of an accident report, etc.)
- The date the student expects to return to class

No absence will be excused, and no examination scheduled during the absence will be rescheduled, unless such documentation is obtained.

The Registrar will confer with the Dean about approving the absence and will notify the student of the decision. The Registrar will report the status of the decision regarding the excused absence to the student’s professors, academic advisor, Academic Services, Counseling Services, and Office of Student Life. Instructors may not excuse any absences from class without this notification.

Absences for Official HCHC Responsibilities

In rare circumstances, students may be required to participate in college activities. It is the student’s responsibility to provide the class professor with a written notice supporting the absence BEFORE the date of the absence. The notice must specify the dates and times the student will be absent and be approved by the Registrar.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY  See also Academic Honesty

As members of an academic institution, students learn how to work cooperatively in a community of scholars and make fruitful use of the work of others without violating intellectual honesty. Students are expected to respect the parameters of collaboration and the proper forms of quoting, summarizing, and paraphrasing. Faculty advisors and other faculty members will give additional information and instruction in this area.

A student is liable for disciplinary action if found in violation of the accepted norms of student accountability in his or her academic work. All work submitted to meet course requirements (homework assignments, papers, and examinations) is expected to be the student’s own work, designed and presented for one course only. In the preparation of work submitted to meet course requirements, students should always take care to distinguish their own ideas from information derived from primary and secondary sources. The responsibility for learning the proper forms of citation lies with each individual student. In addition, all paraphrased material must be acknowledged.

Some specific types of academic dishonesty:

- Data falsification: the fabrication of data or the alteration of data included in a report
- Plagiarism: taking another’s statements, ideas, or information without full and proper acknowledgment, and presenting them as one’s own
- Collusion: assisting another student by allowing him or her to copy one’s own work, the use of purchased essays or term papers, and unauthorized cooperation in assignments or during an examination

Hellenic College Holy Cross insists upon the highest standards of academic integrity in all student work, both written and oral.

A full discussion of the responsibilities of students and faculty in this matter can be found in the Student Handbook.

The following steps will be taken in the event of plagiarism:

- The faculty member will present evidence of plagiarism to the student. If plagiarism is confirmed by the student or is indisputable on account of the evidence, the faculty member will inform the Dean and arrange a meeting between the student, the Dean, the faculty member, and if necessary, other involved parties.
- If the above meeting results in agreement that plagiarism has occurred, the student will be placed on academic probation. Faculty members for courses in which the student is enrolled will be informed of the student’s plagiarism. In addition, the Dean and the faculty member who initiated the process of assessing the student’s plagiarism will proceed with disciplinary measures that reflect the severity of the act. Those measures may include, but are not limited to: failing the course where plagiarism occurred, withdrawing from said course without reimbursement, and rewriting the assignment(s) for a lower grade.
• If said student commits a second offense of plagiarism, the process will be repeated. If confirmed, the second academic probation will result in more severe consequences. Additional measures may be taken, such as listed above; the student may also be expelled from HCHC.
• The student may appeal the decisions of the Dean and the faculty member by petitioning the Disciplinary Committee.
• In the event that the reporting faculty member is also the Dean, the process will be mediated by the chair of the Faculty Committee for Degrees, Policies, and Procedures.

CONTESTING GRADES ON EXAMS AND ASSIGNMENTS
See also Grade Grevience

During the semester, if a student would like to contest the grade of an exam or assignment, the following process is observed:

The student discusses with the professor the contested grade as soon as practicable.

• The professor explains why the student received that grade.
• If the student believes that the grade was arbitrary, he or she will petition the Dean.
• Upon review, the Dean will determine whether the grade remains or if the matter should be reviewed by two other faculty members.
• After consultation with the reviewers, the Dean will make the final determination.
• In the event that the instructor in question was the Dean, this process shall be followed by the chair of the Faculty Committee for Degrees, Policies, and Procedures.

The entire process should be concluded within two weeks of the assignment having been returned to the student.

In the event that the student is contesting a final exam or assignment that was submitted in the last two weeks of the semester, this process will be followed within the first two weeks of the posting of final grades. When appropriate, the final grade will be revised accordingly.

CONTESTING FINAL GRADES

Final grades are final. A student may challenge a final grade only by demonstrating that an error was made in computation or that an assignment was overlooked. Students must contact the Registrar and the instructor within thirty days of the end of the semester. The Registrar and the instructor will review their records to determine whether an error was made and respond within a week. To contest the grade on a final exam or final assignment, see above, “Contesting Grades on Exams and Assignments.”
ACADEMIC EXPULSION

If a student is found guilty of a serious academic violation, HCHC may expel the student. Expulsion is a permanent and irrevocable dismissal of a student from the institution. The Dean will appoint an ad hoc committee to examine the student and the questions of academic impropriety. A student is always given the opportunity to give his or her account of events and to present evidence. The student may invite his or her academic advisor for advice and support. The committee process is closed to observers and not subject to any formal rules of court or evidence. Following the committee’s review, the case is referred to the Dean, who will make the final decision.

COURSE TRANSFERS, WAIVERS, AND ADVANCED CREDIT

Hellenic College

Transfer Credit
Students entering Hellenic College are eligible to receive up to 60 credits towards graduation. Once matriculated, Hellenic College students may transfer up to a maximum of 18 credits (CLEP, AP, or transfer), not to exceed the maximum of 60 credits permitted. Students may receive credit for select courses completed with a grade of C or higher, preferably from another accredited college. Students will submit their courses to the Registrar to evaluate whether or not the courses may be counted for credit within a student’s program. The Registrar will inform the student of which credits were deemed appropriate. Students seeking to transfer credits from an unaccredited institution must demonstrate that course content and the qualifications of instructors meet the standards of an accredited institution by submitting additional documentation as requested (e.g., course syllabi, faculty biographies, etc.).

Hellenic College observes the recommendation of the College Board in determining the credit value of College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Exams in the related subject matter. Students should consult the program chairs for guidance in determining the appropriate exams.

Students who served in the military may have received training for which they may receive college credits. Military students may obtain their transcript through AARTS, the computerized transcript system that produces official transcripts for eligible soldiers upon request by combining a soldier's military education and job experience with descriptions and college credit recommendations developed by the American Council on Education (ACE) and submit it to the Registrar for evaluation.
Students who took Advanced Placement (AP) courses in high school and received a score of 3 or higher on the Advanced Placement examination may submit those courses to the Registrar for evaluation and potential credit.

Matriculated students desiring to take courses outside Hellenic College must complete a Transfer of Credit Pre-approval form, available in the Registrar’s Office. No credits will be awarded without official transcripts or score reports.

Department Administered Exams

Students may also be granted credit or advanced standing on the basis of departmental administered exams in the event that a CLEP exam is not available. Each department will specify the maximum number of credits which a student may receive, or for which courses a student may receive advanced standing.

Contesting Transfer Credit

In the case of contested transfer credits, the following process is followed:

- The student petitions the Faculty Committee for Degrees, Policies, and Procedures (DPP) to reconsider the number of courses and credits accepted for transfer, offering additional or clarifying information about such courses/credits.
- The DPP Committee convenes to discuss the petition and render its decision.
- The DPP Committee informs the student of its decision.

Transfer Credit

Once a student has matriculated at Holy Cross, he or she must complete a Transfer of Credit Pre-Approval form for any coursework outside of Holy Cross in which the student is seeking credit to be granted at Holy Cross. A student may transfer a maximum of 18 credits once matriculated, but must adhere to the residency requirement for his or her specific program. Students participating in the Middler Year Abroad in Greece program (IKY) may transfer up to 30 credits of coursework from this program.

Students wishing to transfer credit from regionally accredited theological schools and graduate seminaries must normally have a 2.5 cumulative grade point average in their previous academic work.
Students transferring credit for a course must have earned at least a C grade in the course. Course(s) accepted for transfer must have been eligible for graduate credit at the institution where they were taken and, preferably, were completed at an institution accredited by a recognized accrediting body. Further, transfer courses should correspond to course(s) offered by the School of Theology. Course descriptions may be requested of the applicant.

Students wishing to transfer graduate credit from an unaccredited institution(s) must demonstrate that the course content and the qualifications of the instructors meet the standards of an accredited institution by submitting additional documentation (e.g., course syllabi, faculty biographies, etc.).

Contesting Transfer Credit

In the case of contested transfer credits, the following process is followed:

- The student petitions the Degrees, Policies, and Procedures (DPP) Committee to reconsider the number of courses and credits accepted for transfer, offering additional or clarifying information about such courses/credits.
- The DPP Committee convenes to discuss the petition and render its decision.
- The DPP Committee informs the student of its decision.

Advanced Standing

Holy Cross periodically admits students with advanced standing to one of its master’s degree programs. Advanced standing may be granted (1) without credit by exempting students from some courses but not reducing the total number of academic credits required for the degree, or (2) with credit by reducing the number of credits required for the degree. Advanced standing refers to decisions about students’ competence when no transcripts of graduate credit are presented. Advanced standing with credit is granted only after appropriate means of assessment of a student’s knowledge, competence, or skills that would normally be provided by the specific courses for which they have been admitted with advanced standing. Advanced standing with credit cannot be granted on the basis of ministerial or life experience and may not fulfill more than one-fourth of the total credits for a degree program.

TIME LIMITATIONS

Hellenic College

The College reserves the right to determine the number of credits from prior coursework that may be applied to a degree program. Courses in specific majors taken more than ten years prior may need to be repeated.

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

Credits earned more than ten years before admission or readmission to a degree program in the School of Theology may not be applied toward a degree. The faculty reserves the right to determine the number of credits from prior coursework which may be applied to a degree program.

ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Each student is assigned a faculty academic advisor. The advisor’s role is to assist the student with his or her academic progress and intellectual development. To this end, the advisor meets with the student once or twice each semester to discuss the student’s academic standing, acquaint him or her with faculty policies and recommendations, review and approve his or her course registration, and be available for consultation. Each faculty member has an office and may be seen during the posted office hours. Additional information is available on the portal.

REQUESTING TRANSCRIPTS

Official transcripts are $5.00 per copy. The Transcript Request form must be completed prior to the release of the transcript. The College reserves the right to withhold processing any transcript request if a student has an unpaid financial obligation to the College. Unofficial transcripts are available to currently enrolled students in the MyHCHC portal at no cost.
OFFICE OF STUDENT LIFE

INTRODUCTION

The Office of Student Life (OSL) provides a holistic, integrated, and responsive approach to co-curricular education within the context of a nurturing and formative Orthodox Christian community life that addresses the moral, intellectual, and spiritual development of HCHC students and prepares them for roles of service-oriented leadership. To that end, OSL serves the HCHC community in many capacities and supports student initiatives for improving community life. OSL also assists students and their families with problems for which they have been unable to find adequate resolution elsewhere.

The Dean of Students oversees the following student activities: the Student Government Association (SGA), Campus Activities Board (CAB), the Seminarian Program, HCHC community events, disciplinary procedures, the student directory, the Synaxis (gathering of the student body) schedule, guest speakers, retreats, special needs of individual students and their families, and diakonia (community service) assignments.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

HCHC is an Orthodox Christian ecclesial institution of higher learning founded by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and, as such, it fosters a community life based on the evangelical commandments of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the preaching of the Apostles, the witness of the martyrs, the striving of the ascetics, and the guidelines set forth by the Holy Fathers in the canons. Our conviction, drawn from both our Orthodox Christian Tradition and the universal Hellenic cultural inheritance, is that learning involves the whole person – mind, body, and spirit. Thus, we believe education is best in an atmosphere of worship, prayer, participation in the sacraments, and the Church’s cycle of fasts and feasts. Our students are invited to embrace this grace-filled life that, we believe, enhances and enlightens the process of learning. HCHC welcomes all who wish to live and study within the life of this sacred community. The nature of this holistic educational process requires that HCHC students are called to live according to the moral precepts of our Orthodox Christian Tradition. While students are not expected to be perfect or sinless, they are expected to strive for holiness in their lives and to seek repentance and reconciliation when they fall short. The Student Code of Conduct in the Student Handbook provides both guidelines for community living that are in keeping with the above philosophy of education that is rooted in our Orthodox Tradition, as well as pertinent laws and statutes emanating from the federal, state, and local governments. Upon enrollment, HCHC students agree to abide by all of the policies and rules of the institution, to live according to the moral precepts of our faith tradition, to treat all members of the community with kindness and respect, and – if necessary – to submit to sanctions imposed by the institution when falling short of the mark.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association (SGA) is the official representative of the HCHC student body and aims to strengthen our religious, intellectual, and social responsibilities as well as to coordinate the shared desires of the students. The SGA is the parent organization of several smaller organizations and committees that are under its auspices, including the Campus Activities Board, Married Student Association, Spiritual Life Committee, Athletics Committee, as well as many other programs and committees. Together, these organizations form a mutual effort to provide spiritual, social, and communal activities. The SGA is comprised of the Executive Board, the leaders of the campus organizations, and the Vice-Presidents of each class (four from Hellenic College and four from Holy Cross). It is thus the responsibility of all members of the SGA board to report back to their respective classes and organizations as to the different events in which our community is engaged.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES BOARD

The Hellenic College Holy Cross Campus Activities Board (CAB) focuses on campus fellowship and community. CAB sponsors various events throughout the year that are ideal for students of all ages. CAB’s main events include the Fall and Spring Panigiris, Fall Fest, the “Chamby’s” Awards Night, boat cruise, and Community Graduation Dinner Dance. CAB prides itself on providing the best activities possible to suit all the students of HCHC. Our door is always open to students who want to offer their time and talents.

BYZANTINE CHOIR

The School’s Byzantine Choir is named for St. Romanos the Melodist, the saint of the Church known for his gift for sacred music. The choir, which sings and performs ecclesiastical music in the Byzantine tradition and traditional Greek music, is often invited to perform at special occasions in the Greater Boston area and elsewhere. The St. Kassia Byzantine Choir, a women’s choir composed of students from both schools, operates in conjunction with this program.

MARRIED STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Married Student Association (MSA) exists to foster relationships both within the married community, but also between the married community and the community at large. This is done through a series of private and group events, including both marital enrichment and recreational activities.

ORTHODOX INTER-SEMINARY MOVEMENT

The OISM is a movement that helps to improve relations between Orthodox seminarians of all jurisdictions throughout the United States and Canada. Weekend encounters are held at the various member seminaries during the academic year. Emphasis is placed on spiritual, intellectual, and social activities among the representatives of all the member seminaries.

MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The Missions Committee works to promote a mission consciousness at Hellenic College Holy Cross. It seeks to increase the awareness of the importance of missions as a central part of our lives as Orthodox Christians and within the Church, and tries to expose our students to the work of Orthodox Christian missionaries worldwide. The Committee promotes participation and support for international and domestic cross-cultural missions through our annual Fall Missions Week and Lecture, regular meetings, and group involvement in short-term mission trips during Spring Break or over the summer through the OCMC and the Missions Institute here at HCHC.

THE ATHLETICS COMMITTEE

The Athletics Committee coordinates athletic events on campus to support fellowship, active lifestyles, and friendly Christian competition. Athletics currently holds four major sporting intramurals throughout the year: football, volleyball, basketball, and soccer. ‘Pick-up’ games of the gymnasium sports are offered on a nightly basis, Monday through Thursday, except when intramurals must occupy the Pappas Gymnasium.

Besides intramurals, annual Columbus Day events are put on through Athletics, CAB, and the Alumni Association, including the Hellenic College vs. Holy Cross football game in the morning and the HCHC students vs. alumni game in the evening.

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

OCF works to support Orthodox fellowship on college campuses through witness, prayer, service, and study. HCHC, housing the OCF headquarters on campus, is often able to come together with students from other OCF chapters in the Boston area, hosting service, prayer, and fellowship events throughout the year.

SONIA BELCHER’S HCHC ADMISSIONS AMBASSADORS

The Ambassadors are a group of carefully selected students from both Hellenic College and Holy Cross who are trained in youth ministry throughout the academic year. Implementing these skills, the Ambassadors travel throughout the country to run programs for Orthodox Christian youth and educate them about HCHC.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Providing programs and information regarding graduate schools and career opportunities, the Psychology Club is led primarily by students in the Human Development program. Students explore psychological conferences and presentations and work closely with the psychology faculty at HCHC.

HELLENIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Spreading Hellenic culture and language, HSA hosts cultural events and activities throughout the academic year.
SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Working to promote spiritual growth on campus, the Spiritual Life Committee hosts Synaxis, a weekly book club, allowing students to come together and discuss what they have read in light of Orthodox spirituality. The committee also hosts regular movie nights, service projects, and pilgrimages.

SYNDESMOS

Syndesmos is an international organization of Orthodox youth with membership throughout the world. It assists in fostering intra-Orthodox cooperation. International meetings of member groups are held periodically.
OFFICE OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND COUNSELING SERVICES

OUR MISSION

Students and families of students are invited to call upon the HCHC community’s resources in the areas of spiritual formation and counseling to strengthen and enhance their personal growth. The Office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services supports the mission of Hellenic College Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology by nurturing the spiritual and psychological well-being and development of all students and their families, working in conjunction with the faculty, alumni, and the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. These programs are available to all students and family members.

COUNSELING AND REFERRALS

Counselors assist students and their families in resolving a wide variety of problems. Our counselors provide short-term counseling with referrals, as needed, crisis intervention, educational workshops, and provider groups to the students and their families. In most cases, students contact counselors directly by calling (617) 850-1204 or dropping by the office. In some cases, a spiritual father, faculty, or staff member may refer students for assistance. In other cases, seminarian candidates may be referred for individual or group counseling subsequent to their psychological evaluation.
THE SEMINARIAN PROGRAM

Christian leadership requires a combination of love, knowledge, intuition, and faith – strengthened by self-confidence, tempered by humility, and modeled on the conciliarity of the Holy Trinity. Important as books are, liturgical and pastoral skills are best learned through the intangibles afforded by example and experience. The HCHC community is a parish in addition to being an educational institution.

Seminarians are required to participate regularly in daily chapel services, scheduled Synaxes (community gatherings called by the President), diakonia (community service) assignments, on- and off-campus retreats, and other community events. In addition, all seminarians are required to participate in annual events such as the Greater Boston Greek Independence Day celebrations and graduation ceremonies. As future leaders of the larger community, seminarians must first show themselves to be self-motivated and responsible to the HCHC community. Although the responsibilities to the HCHC community may sometimes be hard to balance with the demands of academic life, in many ways one’s future service to the Church and society will require a similar balance.

The President is ultimately responsible for admission to and participation in the Seminarian Program. The President is also responsible for overall implementation and effectiveness of the Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services (SF/CS) Office, which affirms a holistic view of formation. All students interested in the Seminarian Program must complete a separate application and complete the pre-admission requirements as detailed in the Seminarian Program Checklist. The candidate’s dossier must be completed before he can be considered for the program. More information about the Seminarian Program is found in the Student Handbook.

The SF/CS Office’s co-directors also advise the President on students’ readiness for Church ministry (including, but not limited to, the participants of the Seminarian Program). Participation in activities promoting spiritual and psychological formation and development is expected of the seminarians and seminarian candidates.
SPIRITUAL ASSESSMENT

Using instruments, interviews, and reflective assessments, students will have opportunities to address their spiritual and pastoral concerns. The assessment is ongoing, occurring before and during the Seminarian Program. While required for the seminarians, any student may inquire about using this service.

PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT

This resource exists to strengthen and enhance the students’ emotional growth. While any student may ask about using this service, it is required for those entering the Seminarian Program. Please contact SF/CS staff for information regarding accessing off-campus psychological assessments.

SPIRITUAL FATHERS PROGRAM

In keeping with the tradition of the Orthodox Church, students and families of students are encouraged to establish and to maintain an ongoing relationship with spiritual fathers. The Office of SF/CS staff can help in selecting a spiritual father if necessary. The spiritual father guides his charges in development of Christian character and provides guidance in striving—askesis—toward spiritual development. Maintenance of a relationship with one’s spiritual father is essential to participate in the Seminarian Program. For the seminarian, his spiritual father will be his sponsor and signer of the sym martyria to be read at ordination. In some instances, students are referred by the spiritual assessment provider to their spiritual fathers to discuss pastoral concerns.
ACADEMIC SERVICES

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Academic Services provides support to all students enrolled in Hellenic College Holy Cross. Individual appointments provide strategies and interventions to help students be active in their learning. Campus-wide workshops are presented on a variety of study topics such as: time management, active reading, effective note-taking, writing research papers, the writing process, exam preparation, and memorization skills. Workshops and individual tutoring may be required by faculty for students whom they determine to be in need of academic services.

Additionally, peer tutors in several subjects are available for individual appointments and drop-in hours in the evening. Faculty members may require students to work with a tutor to help improve their writing.

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Hellenic College Holy Cross is committed to providing a supportive community for students with disabilities who are accepted for admission. HCHC seeks to provide all students with disabilities a community of faith and learning that affords them equal access and reasonable accommodation for their disabilities. Students with disabilities are asked to provide the Academic Services Coordinator with documentation of the disability within the first two weeks of the semester. Diagnoses and accommodation suggestions must be current, evaluated within the last two years. Guidelines for documentation may be found on the HCHC Portal under Resources, in the office of Spiritual Formation and Counseling Services, and in the Academic Services office.

All students must sign a Consent for Services agreement. HIPPA and FERPA forms are available on the HCHC Portal.

Once documentation has been received and reviewed, the Academic Services Coordinator will meet with the student to confirm the accommodations required. A letter detailing the specifics of the accommodation will be written at that time. The Coordinator will contact the Dean and instructors to discuss appropriate assistance and accommodations.

The details of a student’s disability will not be discussed without the student’s permission. The rights of students with disabilities are protected under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA).

Note: Student health insurance is mandatory under Massachusetts law, unless proof of other insurance is provided and an insurance waiver form is completed on the first day of classes or while obtaining financial clearance. We recommend students access the Massachusetts Health Connector, https://www.mahealthconnector.org/, to obtain appropriate coverage.
FINANCIAL CLEARANCE

Students must be financially clear in order to enroll. The Bursar’s Office reviews all student accounts to ensure financial clearance. Students and their families are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the information provided.

In order to be considered financially clear, a student must have a zero balance on his or her student account at the start of the academic semester. Students must have a zero balance through either anticipated financial assistance (certified and in process, if a student loan) or payment made in full. Balances on student accounts are due on July 15, for the fall semester and on December 15, for the spring semester. Students who are not financially clear will be blocked from registration. Students who leave the school with an unpaid balance will be subject to having official academic transcripts withheld and will face having unpaid balances referred to a collection agency.

In special cases, temporary deferred payment arrangements may be made, provided that the balance is paid in full before the end of that current semester. Every graduating student must settle and pay all financial obligations to the institution 20 business days prior to graduation, at the latest, in order to participate in graduation exercises and receive a diploma or transcript.

Financial clearance must be met for a student to receive transcripts or a diploma. Although someone else may pay the charges, e.g., parents, friends, parish, etc., all charges are ultimately the student’s responsibility.

REFUNDS

Tuition and room and board refunds are determined by the number of weeks a student has attended class or has been in residency. If a student officially withdraws within:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Week</th>
<th>Refund Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Week 1</td>
<td>90% refund</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 2</td>
<td>80% refund</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 3</td>
<td>60% refund</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 4</td>
<td>30% refund</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

There are no refunds after the fourth week of the semester. Additionally, a student who withdraws from the school and fails to do so in the prescribed manner will not be entitled to any refunds.
FINANCIAL AID OVERVIEW

INTRODUCTION

Hellenic College Holy Cross offers a program of financial assistance to those students who qualify. Financial assistance may be offered in the form of scholarships, grants, assistantships, federal student loans, and employment. Awards are based on academic performance, special skills, demonstrated need, and the availability of funds (95% of our students receive some form of financial aid). The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships will be glad to discuss how a student’s particular needs can be met.

Student loans provide students with the opportunity to borrow against future earnings. Several loan programs supported by the federal government are available on the basis of financial need. Work-study opportunities on and off campus make it possible for students to defray the cost of their education through part-time employment.

All students are expected to contribute to their education. All financial aid awards are considered supplemental to the contribution of the family and the student. To be eligible for federal funds a student must: be accepted by HCHC; be enrolled in a degree program; be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States; be in good academic standing and make satisfactory academic progress as outlined by HCHC and federal standards; and complete all necessary applications on a timely basis. All forms are available in the Office of Financial Aid.

Leadership 100 and Seminarian Funding

Students who are enrolled at Holy Cross and who have declared in writing their intention to be ordained as priests in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and who meet certain academic and performance-based standards are eligible for Leadership 100 loans. Leadership 100 loans are given only to Master of Divinity seminarian students. Once the student becomes ordained in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, the Leadership 100 loan is forgiven. The amount funded under each student loan is determined by the amount of available funding and the number of participants. The average Leadership 100 loan for the academic year 2016-17 addressed approximately 85% of the seminarian’s tuition bill. The amount of funding received by each student shall be deemed a loan. Upon the student’s ordination to the priesthood, the loan is forgiven. If a student leaves the school before graduation for any reason (except with written permission of the President), or otherwise decides that he does not want to pursue ordination, the loan will become payable. The school may utilize outside third-party resources to administer and collect against such loans. All qualifying students will be required to sign a Declaration Agreement in order to receive such funding.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP

Students who are dependent children of alumni of Hellenic College or Holy Cross may receive a 50% discount of the tuition rate OR may choose to take advantage of better school scholarship offers. The 50% alumni scholarship may not be combined with other school offers and does not become the base to which other school aid is applied. Students who are candidates for the holy priesthood must accept vocational funding before becoming eligible for this scholarship.

EMPLOYEE SCHOLARSHIP

A student who is a dependent child of a full-time employee of Hellenic College or Holy Cross may receive a 50% employee scholarship which may not be combined with other school offers and does not become the base to which other school aid is applied.

TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIP PROGRAM

The Teacher Assistantship Program provides students with part-time positions assisting full-time members of the faculties. These assistantships are restricted to full-time, upper-class students whose cumulative grade point average is at least a 3.0 or B, and who demonstrate financial need. Candidates are selected by individual faculty members in conjunction with the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

The Work-Study Program offers a variety of part-time employment opportunities on and off campus. Students are selected based on demonstrated financial need and depending on the availability of positions. Work study jobs are assigned by the Finance Office and subject to eligibility.
STATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Hellenic College

Many states offer scholarships and/or loans to their residents who wish to attend schools in their state. However, some states offer scholarships to their residents to attend schools in other states. The following states offer such ‘portable’ aid programs: Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia. Students may obtain further information from their high school guidance departments or directly from the state agency responsible for such programs. Massachusetts residents may also write to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN PROGRAM

The Federal Direct Loan Program provides students with the opportunity to borrow money from the Department of Education in order to pay for their education. The total annual amount that a student may borrow is based on a student’s status and year of study and varies from year to year according to federal guidelines. All Federal Direct Loans must be repaid. Under the Subsidized Loan Program, students begin their repayment six months after they complete their programs of study. The federal government subsidizes the interest while the student is in school. The interest on unsubsidized Federal Direct Loans is not subsidized by the federal government and can either be paid by the student during his or her program of study or may be deferred until six months after the student graduates. If the student chooses to have the interest accrued, it will capitalize, and the principal of the loan will increase significantly.

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID

Hellenic College Holy Cross encourages its present and prospective students to research the financial aid picture to keep abreast of any new funding programs. Realizing the expenses involved, every effort should be made to pursue any local awards that may be offered in your community. Hellenic College Holy Cross requires all students who wish to be considered for financial assistance to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov).

A FAFSA is used to determine your eligibility for federal financial aid and/or grants. Once an Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) has been determined, the form is sent to Hellenic College Holy Cross to be used in determining eligibility for all financial aid programs. The student must also complete the Hellenic College Holy Cross Institutional Financial Aid Documents.

The Federal Code for FAFSA for Hellenic College Holy Cross is 002154.
SPECIAL INSTITUTES AND CENTERS

KALLINIKEION MODERN GREEK INTENSIVE LANGUAGE SUMMER PROGRAM

This intensive Modern Greek language program is sponsored by the Kallinikeion Foundation. The program offers two courses in Modern Greek, one at the beginning and one at the intermediate level. Each course meets for an average of five hours per day, Monday through Friday, offering 102 hours of instruction in Modern Greek and six credits towards graduation.

The Kallinikeion Institute provides its students with an abundance of opportunities to explore Greek culture, music, and literature, through program activities and HCHC resources. In the inspiring Boston academic environment, Kallinikeion students combine their study of Modern Greek with museum visits, traditional Greek music concerts, Greek poetry recitation, and other educational events.

Any Hellenic College Holy Cross full-time student is eligible for a scholarship towards the cost of tuition, room and board, and all the other benefits of the Kallinikeion Institute. The program is open to outside students as well, depending on availability. If you are planning to enroll in the Kallinikeion Institute, please visit the Kallinikeion website (http://www.hchc.edu/academics/summer courses) or contact the HCHC Registrar for more information on registration deadlines.

Also, please note the following:

- Students wishing to enroll in Intermediate Modern Greek I and II at the Kallinikeion Institute must have a grade of B or higher in Beginning Modern Greek IIb, Beginning Modern Greek II, or equivalent.
- Due to scheduling issues, Holy Cross students (and especially GOA seminarians) are advised to enroll in the Kallinikeion Institute the summer before their second year of studies.
Two $500 Kallinikeion Academic Excellence Awards, one for Beginning Modern Greek I and one for Intermediate Modern Greek I & II, are awarded to the students who excel academically in their course.

MARY JAHARIS CENTER FOR BYZANTINE ART AND CULTURE

Founded in 2010 through a generous gift from the Jaharis Family Foundation, the Mary Jaharis Center for Byzantine Art and Culture is dedicated to promoting and advancing knowledge about the rich heritage of the Byzantine Empire, which lasted for more than a thousand years and spanned three continents. The Center’s mission is to create academic and educational resources that engage the wider public, scholars, and the Orthodox Christian community. Its programs encourage awareness and appreciation of Byzantium and its legacy.

The Mary Jaharis Center
- offers grants to advanced graduate students and early career professionals working in the field of Byzantine studies,
- provides financial support for sessions focused on Byzantine topics at major academic conferences,
- partners with Boston-area institutions to host lectures and conferences related to the study of the Byzantine Empire, and
- sponsors the Boston Byzantine Music Festival.

MISSIONS INSTITUTE OF ORTHODOX CHRISTIANITY

The Missions Institute of Orthodox Christianity seeks to offer a special dimension to the theological education and spiritual formation of the students at HCHC by promoting and emphasizing a vibrant mission consciousness through a variety of missiological courses, mission practica to Albania, Mexico, and other countries, and special programs and events that help future Church leaders understand the centrality of missions, evangelism and outreach.

Along with a missions elective each semester at Holy Cross and Hellenic College, other offerings of the Missions Institute include:

- A summer course and practicum entitled The Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios of Albania, which combines coursework on campus with a 12-day practicum to Albania. This experience is part mission class, part mission practicum, part pilgrimage.
- Annual Fall Missions Week, where missionaries and mission specialists are brought onto campus to spend a week with students, and then to offer the annual EFOM Missions Lecture.
- A Missions Conference on a specific topic every four years; past conference have been devoted to the topics of “Speaking to Secular America” and “Orthodox Theological Schools and Seminaries and their Role in Global Missions.”
• Spring break mission trip to Project Mexico, Guatemala, or some other place around the globe
• Overseeing the HCHC student-run Missions Committee
• Sponsoring various missionaries and missions speakers to come on campus and offer occasional lectures
• Arranging missions lectures at other Orthodox seminaries
• Organizing summer missions internships for individual students
• Occasional post-graduate missions grants

THE NEW YORK LIFE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF HELLENISM IN PONTUS AND ASIA MINOR

The New York Life Center for the Study of Hellenism in Pontus and Asia Minor fosters the academic study of modern Hellenism in Asia Minor. To this end, it sponsors:

• Campus lectures and presentations: experts in the field of Asia Minor Greek studies are invited to campus to present their scholarly work.
• A biennial Asia Minor Travel Seminar: students travel to the Center for Asia Minor Studies in Athens to research the archives and to Turkey to conduct field work.
• Mary Jaharis Center for Byzantine Art and Culture Annual Boston Byzantine Music Festival: folk musicians and chanters perform and lecture on their respective genres.

OFFICE OF VOCATION AND MINISTRY....

Introduction

The Office of Vocation and Ministry (OVM) trains, educates, and inspires the future clergy and lay leaders of the Orthodox Church. OVM programs and initiatives provide opportunities for growth in Orthodox Christian vocation and leadership through theological inquiry, ongoing reflection, and service activities to high school students, college students, young adults, and those who serve them.

OVM defines vocation broadly as one’s unique and ongoing response to Christ’s call to love God with heart, soul, mind, and strength and love one’s neighbor as oneself. It seeks to encourage all participants to consider their lives as vocation and to nurture the next generation of leaders for the Church and the world.

OVM seeks to be theologically and faithfully Orthodox Christian; to be excellent stewards of the resources generously provided through grants and from individual benefactors; to work with integrity, energy, and creativity; to provide engaging and rich programs through effective administration; to publish resources to share learning; and to utilize collaborative inquiry for ongoing program planning and evaluation.

OVM offers vocational exploration programs for Hellenic College undergraduates, a summer institute for high school students known as CrossRoad, and a learning hub to aid Orthodox parishes in their outreach to young adults known as the Telos Project. In addition to OVM’s programs, OVM publishes resources to share Orthodox perspectives on vocation and related topics. The OVM-initiated publication Christ at Work: Orthodox Christian Perspectives on Vocation (ed. Ann Bezzerides, Holy Cross Orthodox Press, 2006) serves as a guiding text for our programming. The collection of essays Eastern Orthodox Christianity and American Higher Education (eds. Ann Bezzerides and Elizabeth Prodromou, University of Notre Dame Press, 2017) emerged from OVM programs that address the relationship between Orthodox faith and learning.

Programs for Hellenic College Students

Housed in the Skouras Classroom building, Room 220, the OVM is a busy hub, with students and faculty frequently gathering for conversation around the coffee pot. The OVM’s programs, offerings, and individual meetings with students invite them to apply their understanding of vocation in a concrete way to academic, career, and ministry endeavors. The OVM offers:

- Vocation Retreats: Hellenic College students spend off-campus retreat time exploring the concept of vocation and what it means for their lives as college students and beyond.
- Leadership Workshops: Students are invited to learn about practical skills and a vision for leadership that will prepare them to be 21st century leaders.
- Faith & Learning Symposium: Boston-area Orthodox Christian college students join Hellenic College students to explore various academic disciplines and their relationship to Orthodox Christianity.
• Career Services: Students may avail themselves of a series of workshops on critical topics such as resume-writing, interviewing, etc., as well as meet individually with career counseling professionals.
• Coursework: The vocation definition is infused into the Hellenic College curriculum through required first- and second-year courses, Eisodos and Community Engagement.
• Discussion Groups: The OVM hosts various informal discussions throughout the year on topics that revolve around enduring questions of and for young people today.

CrossRoad Summer Institute

CrossRoad is an academic summer program for high school juniors and seniors held on campus at Hellenic College that hosts two ten-day sessions, accommodating approximately sixty Orthodox high school juniors and seniors each year.

The program is for students who love:

• Classes in Orthodox theology and Scripture
• Discussions on vocation and calling
• Daily chapel services
• Service to the community
• Unparalleled fellowship for Orthodox Christian youth

In addition, CrossRoad annually hosts a retreat for its alumni every Lent and publishes an alumni magazine. See www.crossroadinstitute.org for more information.

The Telos Project

A grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. allows for the Office of Vocation & Ministry to establish the Telos Project, a learning hub that will assist 14 Orthodox Christian congregations in designing and developing new ministries with young adults ages 23-29 over a five-year period.

The Telos Project is (a) serving as a learning hub to 14 selected parishes as they design and pilot new ministry to young adults; (b) providing resources, including an annual conference where teams from pilot parishes will gather, to help pilot parishes build relationships with young adults and design new ministries; and (c) hosting a resource network, predominantly electronically via a website, videoconferences, and e-newsletter to share learning broadly.

As a result of the Telos Project, participating Orthodox congregations should expect a new cadre of young adults who have an awakened passion for their religious lives and for the relevance of a parish to their religious development. The project will produce a new highly accessible body of knowledge for the Orthodox on young adulthood and the design process for ministry. HCHC will also integrate this body of knowledge into curriculum and, subsequently, be better positioned to help its students prepare to lead congregations to live out more fully their telos as communities.

Publications

In addition to its programs, OVM seeks to publish resources to share what it is learning. The following are available through the Holy Cross Bookstore, OVM, and/or online at the OVM websites (www.vocation.hchc.edu, www.crossroad.hchc.edu):

- Vocation and Parenting: An Audio Resource. Addressing the topics “The Vocation of Parenting” and “Parenting for Vocation.”
• Our Youth and Their Vocation: Holy Decisions at the Crossroad of Life. By Ann Bezerides, Nicholas Belcher, and Mary Long.
• Down the Road, the CrossRoad alumni newsletter, available at www.crossroadinstitute.org and www.vocation.hchc.edu.

STEPHEN AND KATHERINE PAPPAS PATRISTIC INSTITUTE

Established through a generous gift from Stephen and Catherine Pappas, the Pappas Patristic Institute seeks the advancement and promotion of patristic studies in the service of the academy and of the Church. The primary emphasis of the Institute is the study of the Greek patristic tradition broadly understood, with special attention given to the way in which, characteristic of Orthodox theology, patristic theology is integral to all of Christian theology. In particular, the Institute supports the publication of theological texts and monographs on important themes, personalities, and aspects of the Christian tradition, and also sponsors conferences and lectures that intend to illuminate and communicate the inexhaustible richness of the Church’s history.
AUXILIARY ORGANIZATIONS

HOLY CROSS BOOKSTORE

Holy Cross Bookstore provides a nationwide service for Orthodox books. It is the largest source of Orthodox ecclesiastical and liturgical books in the United States. It also provides icons, icon prints, incense, prayer ropes, crosses, and recordings, as well as scholarly and popular books on theology, history, religious art, and Greek culture and civilization.

HOLY CROSS ORTHODOX PRESS

The earliest publications of the Press date back nearly to the founding of Holy Cross in 1937. From its modest beginnings, the Press has grown into a significant publisher of over five hundred books, chiefly in the disciplines of Orthodox spirituality, theology, patristics, liturgics, history, and culture. The Press has published books by well-known Orthodox authors, as well as by notable authors from other traditions. In recent years, the Press has also published numerous liturgical texts and a series of patristic texts newly translated into contemporary English. The publications of the Press, together with The Greek Orthodox Theological Review, have contributed to the advancement of Orthodox theological studies and the development of the Church not only in North America but throughout the world.

THE GREEK ORTHODOX THEOLOGICAL REVIEW

Established in 1954 by the faculty of Holy Cross, the Review has been concerned both with examining historical themes and with engaging the critical theological issues facing the Church today. It is a journal through which scholarly studies have been shared, new books have been reviewed, and significant documents have been preserved. The content of the Review reflects the rich development of Orthodox theology and theological concerns over the past sixty years.

ARCHDIOCESAN DEPARTMENTS

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Departments of Religious Education and Internet Ministries are located on the campus of Hellenic College
Holy Cross. While these departments are not part of the organizational structure of Hellenic College Holy Cross, they cooperate with the faculty and administration in various endeavors.

MALIOTIS CULTURAL CENTER

The Maliotis Cultural Center was dedicated on September 19, 1976. A donation to Hellenic College by the late Charles and Mary Maliotis of Belmont, MA, the Center provides a variety of cultural programs and facilities for events sponsored by Hellenic College and Holy Cross. The Center consists of an auditorium with a seating capacity of 400, dressing rooms for costume changes during performances, six exhibition halls, four lecture halls, two seminar rooms, an audio-visual room, and music rooms. The Center is a complete setting for multifaceted cultural and educational programs.

MISSION STATEMENT

Hellenic College, an Orthodox Christian institution of higher learning, cultivates the intellectual, spiritual, and moral development of its students so that they might serve and contribute to society and the Church. To that end, Hellenic College fosters intellectual development in its students, engaging them in liberal arts and professional curricula that demand rigorous inquiry and academic scholarship. The College promotes spiritual and moral development by incorporating students into the practices, teachings, and liturgical life of an Orthodox Christian community. The College offers also the opportunity to its students to become aware of the universal intellectual and cultural values of the Hellenic cultural heritage. The College encourages its students to respond to their unique vocations by committing to education, faith, and service in all aspects of their professional and personal endeavors.

The Four Domains of Learning at Hellenic College

The General Education Requirements, combined with the requirements of each major and various co-curricular activities, offer learning opportunities in four designated domains.

- KNOWLEDGE
  Students will graduate with a broad knowledge of the wider world by surveying the various disciplines of the arts and sciences. They will develop strong and transferable intellectual and practical skills, as well as analytical and problem-solving strategies in order to become active citizens in the world.

- PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE
  Students will graduate with competence in a specific field of study and the practical skills to enter their professional lives. Students will demonstrate personal integrity, effectiveness in defining and attaining goals, and a collaborative spirit in all endeavors.

- FAITH
  Students will graduate with an ability to articulate the teachings of the Orthodox Christian faith. They will evaluate, incorporate, and synthesize those teachings into their own world view. They will reflect on how those teachings could impact their vocational choices. They will participate in the worship and spiritual life of the Church and apply their education to serve the Church and society with love and discernment.

- SERVICE
  Students will graduate with an understanding that engagement is a relationship of equals, that they engage with others from a place of wholeness and a desire to connect with the wholeness in others. Engagement rests in the basic premise that the nature of life is sacred and their engagement in the lives of others is a holy vocation.

Degree Requirements

Hellenic College confers the degree of Bachelor of Arts upon those students who have successfully completed the requirements that have been established by the faculty. Candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete the following general requirements:

1. We require a minimum of 123 credits, but some programs require more. Students must achieve an overall grade point average of 2.0 or above. The General Education Curriculum comprises 60 credits. The remaining credits are devoted to major and elective courses.
2. The standard period of time required to earn the bachelor’s degree is four years (eight semesters) of full-time study. A minimum of four semesters of residency at Hellenic College is ordinarily required in the case of transfer students.
3. Academic advisors, the registrar, and the dean are available to assist students in their academic progress. However, each student is ultimately responsible for the completion of the proper courses related to his or her course of study and for meeting all the degree requirements. Any divergence from the General Education curriculum must be approved by the program chair and the Dean.

4. Students must maintain at least a C average cumulative GPA to graduate.

Program Minors

Students may choose to pursue a minor in any program offered by Hellenic College by completing a sequence of 15 credits of work as prescribed by the minor requirements of each program. No more than 6 external credits may be applied to the minor.

Requirements for a Minor

- A major and a minor cannot be taken from the same department.
- A minor shall consist of no fewer than 15 credits in a program of study as prescribed by the program or planned in consultation with a departmental advisor.
- General Education courses cannot be used to fulfill the minor requirement.
- A Declaration of a Minor form must be filled out and returned to the Registrar’s Office; these forms are typically completed in the sophomore year but must be completed no later than the registration period in the spring semester of the junior year.

Hellenic College Honors Program

The Honors Program is an interdisciplinary endeavor of the College to support and acknowledge academic excellence. Through the Honors Program, honors students are united in their active approach to learning and their desire to go beyond formal requirements for their degree. An important aspect of the Honors Program is the opportunity to develop collegial and intellectually stimulating faculty-student relationships. The mentoring relationships that are fostered in the Honors Program are formed in the context of an appreciation for learning and a mutual respect for people’s gifts, talents, and contributions to the teaching-learning process.

The heart of the program is the yearly seminar. The courses work together to provide a comprehensive overview of the intellectual and social forces that have shaped the modern world. Each semester is devoted to an integrated study of a range of topics from varying disciplines, e.g., history, literature, the social sciences, philosophy, and religion.

The capstone of the Honors curriculum is the thesis project, an extended research project prepared under the individual guidance of a faculty mentor in one’s major field. Graduate and professional schools, as well as prospective employers, recognize the thesis as a clear indication of a student’s ability to do independent work at an advanced level. Honors students complete a minimum of 15 credits in Honors courses. The Honors curriculum includes 6 credits for the thesis project and 3 credits for a seminar on the research and writing of a thesis.

Sampling of Honors Courses

- HNRS 4926: Gender Roles in Culture and Society (Dr. McIntyre)
- HNRS 4927: Concepts of Success and Failure in Ancient Greece (Dr. Dova)
- HNRS 4923: Comparative Famine & Social Crises (Dr. Ganson)
- HNRS 4929: Honors Research Seminar (Dr. McIntyre)

Applications

Students can apply for the Honors Program in their first or second year. The program is selective and requires the completion of an application form available in the Office of Admissions. Accepted HP students are also eligible to apply for up to $1000.00 to fund their studies. Funds are available during the time of the research and writing of the students’ thesis.
CLASSICS

Mission Statement

The mission of the Classics program at Hellenic College is to train young scholars in the languages, literatures, and civilizations of Ancient Greece and Rome while also preparing them for graduate degrees and, ultimately, careers in the humanities, teaching, theology, and law. The Classics curriculum at Hellenic College combines a rigorous Ancient Greek language program with courses on the literature and culture of Ancient Greece, Latin language, and Roman civilization (through cross-registration with Boston College).

It also offers to its students the opportunity to study classics in Greece through the College Year in Athens program. Through program courses and activities, Classics majors at Hellenic College will develop advanced-level proficiency and translation skills in Ancient Greek as well as the ability to engage critically and creatively with a variety of literary and non-literary ancient Greek texts. As a result, they will be able to identify and analyze the classical roots of Western civilization.

Program Goals

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate advanced proficiency in Classical Greek and advanced knowledge of ancient Greek civilization.
2. Demonstrate intermediate proficiency in Latin and intermediate knowledge of Roman civilization.
3. Read and analyze texts critically and creatively, applying the methodology of classical philology and the principles of literary theory and literary criticism.
4. Identify and analyze the classical roots of Western civilization.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate strong translation skills in Classical Greek (ten courses in Greek language and literature, plus electives).
2. Demonstrate intermediate translation skills in Latin (four courses in Latin language and literature, plus electives).
3. Apply their ability to read critically and creatively to a variety of texts, including Ancient Greek and Roman literature (four Classics electives, 6-credit capstone project).
4. Engage in academic discourses that connect contemporary cultural contexts to Ancient Greek and Roman history (four Classics electives).
Classical Course Requirements

Greek Courses

- Beginning Ancient Greek I 3 cr.
- Beginning Ancient Greek II 3 cr.
- Readings in Ancient Greek 3 cr.
- Greek Epic Poetry 3 cr.
- Greek Lyric Poetry 3 cr.
- Readings in Ancient Greek Drama 3 cr.

Latin Courses

- Beginning Latin 3 cr.
- Intermediate Latin 3 cr.
- Readings in Latin Prose 3 cr.
- Roman Civilization 3 cr.

Four Classics Electives 12 cr.

Requirements for Classics Minor

Students in other programs of Hellenic College may choose to minor in Classics, Ancient Greek, or Classical Civilizations. Per the academic policies of Hellenic College, students may not use courses already taken in fulfillment of General Education requirements toward the minor requirement. Students pursuing a minor in Classics are required to complete a sequence of 15 credits of work selected from courses offered in the program.

Student Learning Outcomes

Minor in Classics

1. Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of Greek literary genres.
2. Have a general command of ancient Greek history and culture at the intermediate level and an elementary knowledge of Roman civilization.

Minor in Ancient Greek Language

1. Demonstrate intermediate skills translating Ancient Greek into English and beginning skills translating English to Ancient Greek.
2. Apply understanding of grammar and syntax to the study of languages and to sight translation of a variety of Ancient Greek texts.

Minor in Classical Civilizations

1. Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of ancient Greek literary genres, history, and culture at the introductory level.
2. Demonstrate elementary knowledge of Roman civilization.

GREEK STUDIES

Mission Statement

The mission of the Greek Studies program is to introduce students to the many aspects of Greek language and culture and to provide a special service to students of Religious Studies at the College and the School of Theology. The wide range of courses offered, all levels of Greek, and the minors (see below) allow students to get fully immersed in the richness of Greek history, literature, and civilization. Additionally, the program offers a Certificate in Teaching Modern Greek to students interested in teaching at Greek day or afternoon schools in the Greek Archdiocesan School System.

Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies Minor

Students in other programs of Hellenic College may choose to minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies. Per the academic policies of Hellenic College, students may not use courses already taken in fulfillment of General Education Requirements toward the minor requirement. Students pursuing a minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies are required to complete a sequence of 15 credits of work selected from courses offered in the program.

Program Goals

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate proficiency in the Greek language.
2. Demonstrate wide knowledge of Greek history and culture.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the significant contributions of the Greeks to Western civilization.
4. Identify and explain important dates and events that serve as landmarks of Greek history and culture.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates with a minor in Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies are respectively expected to:

Minor in Byzantine Studies

1. Demonstrate a deep knowledge of Byzantine history and culture.
2. Have a good understanding of Byzantine music and Byzantine art.
3. Apply above knowledge in analyzing current events and offer cogent critique and comments.
Minor in Modern Greek Studies

1. Demonstrate a solid knowledge of Modern Greek language.
2. Demonstrate a deep knowledge of Modern Greek literature, history, and culture.
3. Demonstrate advanced skills translating English into Modern Greek and superior skills translating Greek into English.

Byzantine or Modern Greek Studies Minor Course Requirements

Minor in Byzantine Studies

- Byzantine History 3 cr.
- Byzantine Art and Architecture 3 cr.
- History of Byzantine Music 3 cr.
- 2 courses in a general field of Roman or Byzantine civilization, subject to department approval 6 cr.

Minor in Modern Greek Studies

- Advanced Modern Greek I 3 cr.
- Advanced Modern Greek II 3 cr.
- History of Modern Hellenism or History of Modern Greece 3 cr.
- Readings in Modern Greek Literature or Greek Translation 3 cr.
- Greek American Experience or European Intellectual History 3 cr.
LIBERAL STUDIES

Mission Statement

The mission of the Liberal Studies Program is to provide students with the opportunity to gain knowledge in the arts and humanities, philosophy and theology, and in the social sciences and natural sciences. Engagement in this process requires intellectual inquiry, reflection, collaboration, and the exploration of relationships among the disciplines, society, and our own humanity. The Liberal Studies Program emphasizes the connection between theory and practice as being essential in the development of students who will serve their communities as informed and inquiring members of society.

Elementary Education Program

All students accepted into the Elementary Education Program must major in Liberal Studies. In conjunction with the General Education Requirements, the Liberal Studies major provides students enrolled in the Elementary Education Program with the chance to explore a range of subject areas that complement and incorporate the 30 subject-area credits needed to meet the Massachusetts Department of Education requirements.

Program Goals

1. Students will be provided with a solid, multidisciplinary exploration of a range of topics in the humanities, natural sciences, social sciences, and the arts.
2. Students will gain an understanding of the relationship between a Liberal Studies education and the mission of Hellenic College.
3. Students will be offered effective strategies for synthesizing knowledge in ways that contribute to their vocational goals.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of course content within specific academic disciplines of the Liberal Studies Program.
2. Students will demonstrate skills in critical interpretation, writing, and analysis across disciplines.
3. Students will demonstrate the ability to communicate through both oral and written language in a clear, coherent, and organized manner.
Liberal Studies Course Requirements

Students who wish to major in Liberal Studies are required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education Requirements:

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Introduction

The Elementary Education Program offers an integrated course of study that leads to a Bachelor of Arts with a concentration in Elementary Education. It enables students to obtain licensure as elementary school teachers (grades 1-6) in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. In addition to preparing teachers for teaching in public schools, the program also prepares teachers who wish to serve community schools within the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese.

The Elementary Education Program consists of a strong multicultural component. Students in the program become familiar with current developments in curriculum and instruction, understand the role of schools and teachers in society, and are prepared to meet the needs of students from diverse racial, socioeconomic, linguistic, and cultural backgrounds. The program culminates in a fifteen-week intensive student teaching practicum in diverse school sites, including the Boston and Brookline public schools.

If accepted into the program, students may transfer 6 credits into the program. Those credits must have been acquired by taking education courses that are comparable to the education courses offered at Hellenic College. No courses will be waived without the approval of the director of the program. All full-time student teaching experiences must take place in-state unless there are extenuating circumstances, which will be reviewed by the director of the program.

All students accepted into the Elementary Education Program must major in Liberal Studies (see course listings). The Liberal Studies major (30 credits) provides students with opportunities to gain knowledge about a range of courses in arts and humanities, philosophy and religion, social sciences, and natural sciences. In conjunction with the General Education requirements, the Liberal Studies major provides students enrolled in the Elementary Education Program with an opportunity to explore a range of subject areas that complement and incorporate the 36 subject-area semester hours needed to meet the Massachusetts Department of Education requirements. Some of the coursework in the Liberal Studies major may also count toward the General Education requirements.
Mission Statement

The program enables future teachers to gain a broad vision and an appreciation of what it means to be a teacher. In accordance with the mission of Hellenic College, the program prepares caring professionals who view teaching as a calling and nurtures in them an impassioned commitment to the teaching and learning process. All courses and field experiences are designed to meet the professional standards for teachers required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for licensure. The program is accredited by the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

Program Goals

1. Students will gain knowledge about a range of courses in arts and humanities, philosophy and religion, social sciences, and natural sciences by majoring in Liberal Studies.
2. Students will gain the skills and experience they need to meet the Professional Standards for Teachers required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for initial licensure.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate proficiency in developing and implementing effective and standards-based units of instruction and assessment in language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies.
2. Students will demonstrate the integration of philosophical, psychological, and multicultural theories and practices as they relate to the diversity of students, families, schools, and communities.
3. Students will demonstrate proficiency in all Sheltered English Immersion (SEI) indicators, as well as in instruction of children with special needs.
4. Students will successfully demonstrate the Professional Standards for Teachers and the related indicators as they are outlined in the Candidate Assessment Performance document.

Bachelor of Arts with Concentration in Elementary Education

Students enrolled in the Elementary Education program are required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education and Liberal Studies Requirements:

- Philosophy of Education 3 cr.
- Educational Psychology 3 cr.
- Education of Children with Special Needs 3 cr.
Methods of Teaching Language Arts I  3 cr.
Methods of Teaching Language Arts II  3 cr.
Methods of Teaching Mathematics  3 cr.
Methods of Teaching Science and Health  3 cr.
Multiculturalism/Social Studies Education  3 cr.
Methods of Reflective Teaching  3 cr.
Religious Education  3 cr.
Student Teaching Seminar  3 cr.
Student Teaching Practicum  12 cr.
Total  45 cr.

Students in the Elementary Education program are required to earn a B average in all of the required education courses in order to qualify for the Student Teaching Practicum.

Elementary Education Minor

The Minor in Elementary Education includes five courses (15 credits) that provide students with the opportunity to familiarize themselves with some of the key areas in the field of education.

Student Learning Outcomes

There are two major learning outcomes that frame the coursework:

1. Students will identify key philosophies and psychological theories of education.
2. Students will identify and apply literary concepts, literacy theories, and effective teaching practices.

Elementary Education Minor Course Requirements

- Philosophy of Education  3 cr.
- Educational Psychology  3 cr.
- Education of Children w/ Special Needs  3 cr.

One of the following:
- Teaching Language Arts 1  3 cr.
- Young Adult Literature  3 cr.
- Introduction to Children’s Literature  3 cr.

One of the following:

LITERATURE AND HISTORY

Mission Statement

The mission of Literature and History is to equip students with a broad understanding of the ways in which literature and the historical aspects of different fields in the humanities intersect. Canonical literary works, supplemented by the philosophical and religious history of world cultures, still comprise the major portion of our mental past. The program is designed to introduce students to the debates about literature and culture that shape our intellectual lives and cultivate humanistic influence in the process of effecting change. Literature and History is a writing-intensive program of study, and as such, its mission is to enhance the skills of critical thinking, articulation, and research, providing students with one of the most useful preparations for further study in all disciplines available for post-graduate study.

Program Goals

Graduates will:

1. Acquire an overview of the historical importance of literature.
2. Demonstrate that the critical study of literature has helped them to think carefully and express themselves well.
3. Demonstrate preparedness to enter the world with critical acumen as well as compassion born of wide reading and with the skills needed to carry their convictions into action, no matter what line of work they pursue.
4. Be prepared for graduate study in a wide variety of fields, including education, law, policy studies, social work, and journalism, among many others.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students majoring in Literature and History will:

1. Demonstrate awareness of the historical context that shapes literary culture in particular times and places.
2. Demonstrate familiarity with major authors, works, genres, and movements in literary tradition.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of critical theory and documentation methods.

Minors in Literature and History will take five courses in either or both fields, amounting to 15 credits total.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates with a minor in Literature and History will:

1. Demonstrate the ability to analyze texts critically.
2. Demonstrate proficiency in college-level writing skills.
3. Demonstrate the ability to conduct research in literary studies.
4. Demonstrate relevant connections between literature and the student’s major field of study.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Mission Statement

The Human Development program guides a holistic systems approach for understanding human growth and development, addressing biological, psychological, sociocultural, and religious spheres. This program enables the student to examine the interdependence of these areas and prepares students for graduate work and professional careers in human services. Culminating in a practicum experience within a professional setting, the Human Development program provides a rigorous and challenging educational experience to develop a foundation for direct service and establish a solid base for students’ future roles in professional and academic settings in health services.

Program Goals

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of theories of human development across the life span.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of intersections of individual, faith, and spiritual development.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of human service needs and interrelationships of individuals, families, communities, and culture.
4. Demonstrate competent interpersonal skills for serving and working with others.
5. Demonstrate the ability to transfer theory to practice through community engagement and practicum experience.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate participation as team members in a professional clinical setting in health and human services (via internship and school-based practicum program participation).
2. Demonstrate and analyze their theoretical and psycho-educational learning experiences in a professional setting.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of human service needs and interrelationships of individuals, families, communities, and culture.
4. Demonstrate the ability to transfer theory to practice through community engagement and practicum experience.
Human Development Course Requirements

Students who wish to major in Human Development are required to complete the following courses in addition to the General Education Requirements.

General Psychology
- Theories of Personality: 3 cr.
- Statistics: 3 cr.
- Research Methodology: 3 cr.

Biopsychology
- Anatomy and Physiology: 3 cr.
- Psychology of Addiction: 3 cr.

Human Development Minor

Students in other programs of Hellenic College may choose to minor in Human Development. The minor requires five courses in Human Development beyond the general Education Requirements. Per the academic policies of Hellenic College, students may not use courses already taken in fulfillment of General Education Requirements toward the minor requirements.
Program Goals
Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of theories of human development across the life span.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of intersections of individual faith and spiritual development.

Student Learning Objectives
Graduates will:

1. Demonstrate aptitude concerning advanced study in the field of human development, i.e., developing concentrated study in a specific topic in the field of human development.
2. Demonstrate applied skills related to the field of human development, e.g., counseling in dyads, field work, and original research, according to course requirements.

Required Courses for Minor

Core Courses:

MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

Mission Statement

The Management and Leadership (M&L) program prepares students to manage effectively and lead in a variety of organizations, be they in the private, public or not-for-profit sectors. The focus of the curriculum is on the examination and application of M&L competencies required in settings where being in service to others is a core value.

Program Goals

During their course of study, learners will acquire knowledge of core principles and practices of management and leadership:
1. Effective spoken and written communication skills
2. Conceptual, analytical and critical thinking skills
3. Ethical awareness and Orthodox Christian values
4. Proficiency with technology

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the M&L Program will be prepared for entry-level administrative and leadership roles in a variety of organizational settings. More specifically, they will demonstrate competency in:
1. The core managerial functions of planning, organizing, monitoring, and controlling
2. The functional business administration areas of finance, marketing, operations, human resources, and management information systems
3. Leading change in the context of driving forces external to the organization, including political, technical, economic, regulatory, and societal values
4. Developing individual, team, and organizational effectiveness as Orthodox Christians in their chosen organizations and roles

Management and Leadership Major Requirements

Students who wish to major in Management and Leadership are required to complete 46.5 credit hours within the major in addition to the General Education Requirements. Typically, the following courses are taken to satisfy the M&L requirements. The Program Director may approve of a substitute course at his/her discretion.

Introduction to Management (core course) 3 cr.
Leadership Theory and Practice (core course) 3 cr.
Principles of Accounting 3 cr.
Financial Management 3 cr.
Principles of Marketing 3 cr.
Operations Management 3 cr.
Human Resources Management 3 cr.
Strategic Management 3 cr.
Economics (Micro/Macro Economics) 3 cr.
Management Information Systems (MIS) 3 cr.

Managing Change 3 cr.
Organizational Behavior 3 cr.
Management/Leadership Internship I 1.5 cr.
Management/Leadership Internship II 3 cr.
Management/Leadership Seminar 3 cr.
Total 46.5 cr.

The Internship Program

The internship program is an integral part of the M&L Program. Every M&L major is required to complete an internship in his or her senior year. The experience affords students an opportunity to put classroom learning into practice. Reflection on how the internship experience links theory with practice is an important part of the program. Management and Leadership majors spend over 150 hours working as interns in their senior year. Students undergo a semester-long preparation for their internship under the direction of a faculty member. They are also supervised by experienced professionals at the sponsoring organization. Internships are approved and overseen by the M&L Program Director.

Students who choose to major in M&L should work closely with the Program Director to plan their course of study.

Management and Leadership Minor

Students pursuing other majors at Hellenic College may choose to minor in Management and Leadership to complement their studies. Those who minor in M&L must complete 15 credit hours, six by completing two core courses and nine by completing three electives. The core and elective courses are:

Core:
- Principles and Practices of Management 3 cr.
- Leadership Theory and Practice 3 cr.
Electives:

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Mission Statement

The mission of the Religious Studies program is to facilitate our students’ learning about Orthodox Christianity, and appreciating critically - with fairness and respect - its distinctiveness in relation to other Christian and religious traditions by providing a curriculum in the three areas of study: the Bible in the Orthodox Church, Christian Theology and Spirituality, and Religion, Philosophy, and Service. Students will be prepared to contribute to society and the Church through helping professions, ministries within the Church, or to further their studies in graduate programs. Students who are enrolled as Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America will also complete an additional curriculum of courses in language, sacred chant, and theology to be eligible for the three-year Master of Divinity program offered by Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology.

Program Goals

1. Students will be prepared for careers in the helping professions, including ministry in the Church, and further studies in graduate programs.
2. Seminarian students will be prepared for ordained service in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America or other Orthodox jurisdictions.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:
1. Demonstrate the impact of the Bible on Orthodox Christian theology.
2. Apply various critical and historical approaches to the study of religion.
3. Integrate Orthodox Christian theology with the mosaic of the world’s religious traditions.
4. Engage in theological discourse within the historical trajectory of Christian theology in general and Orthodox Christian theology in particular.
5. Demonstrate theological thinking that equips them to advance the gospel entrusted to the Orthodox Church, while respecting the diversity of viewpoints within the Orthodox Christian tradition and in the academy.
6. Incorporate practical competencies, including spiritual practices and theological reflection.
7. Articulate the moral and practical implications of the Orthodox Christian tradition addressing social issues and contributing to the well-being of others.
8. Demonstrate the applied skills of research, project management, and academic writing.

Religious Studies Core Program Requirements (15 Credits)

The Religious Studies program has a core curriculum made up of the following courses below. One of the courses listed below also serves to fulfill the General Education requirement, and therefore will not be credited toward the major.

1. Bible I: The Old Testament in the Orthodox Church (3 cr.)
2. Bible II: The New Testament in the Orthodox Church 3 (cr.)
3. Great Christian Thinkers (3 cr.)
4. World Religions (3 cr.)
5. Theories and Methods of Religion (3 cr.)
6. Senior seminar (3 cr.)

Capstone Project and Senior Seminar

All students will complete the Religious Studies Capstone paper during their senior year. The Capstone paper demonstrates the student’s competency across at least three of the program learning outcomes. This research paper will adhere to standard academic writing standards, and will be 15-20 pages. The paper is written as part of the fulfillment of the Senior Religious Studies Seminar.

Cross Registration in the Graduate School of Theology

Seniors and juniors may register for courses in Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. Students must have a GPA of 3.3 or above. Students may register only for classes for which all prerequisites have been completed. Students who desire to take a graduate class and who do not meet the above qualifications may petition the Director of their program for permission to register.
Religious Studies Sub-Programs

All Religious Studies majors will choose one of three sub-programs. Each sub-program has its own requirements. The sub-programs are:

1) Seminarian Studies Greek Orthodox Archdiocese (GOA)
2) Seminarian Studies
3) Orthodox Studies

Program Categories with Example Course Topics

The Religious Studies curriculum covers three broad categories: Category I - the Bible in the Orthodox Church; Category II - Christian Theology and Spirituality; and Category III – Religion, Philosophy and Service. All majors are expected to distribute their courses within all three categories based on the course distribution and concentration requirements in each sub-program. Except for the Seminarian GOA sub-program, all majors will also have a concentration in one of the three categories.

I. Bible in the Orthodox Church
   a. New Testament
   b. Old Testament
   c. Patristic interpretation of the Bible and Orthodox hermeneutics
   d. Bible in Orthodox theology and liturgy

II. Christian Theology and Spirituality
   a. Christian theology
   b. Patristics
   c. Contemporary or historical Orthodox spiritual writers
   d. Orthodox spiritual practices

III. Religion, Philosophy and Service
   a. Theories and methods of the study of religion
   b. Philosophy
   c. Ethics or moral philosophy
   d. Philanthropy
   e. World religion
   f. Missions and missiology

Religious Studies Sub-Program Requirements
1. GOA Seminarian Studies Sub-Program Requirements (54 credits)

This sub-program is designed to prepare students to continue their education after graduation as seminarians in the MDiv program of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology, and to complete that program in three years. It includes courses that prepare the students to demonstrate the requisite proficiency in Modern Greek language, New Testament Greek, and Byzantine chant, all of which are required courses for the MDiv program in the School of Theology.

a) Required Courses: (39 credits)

- Modern Greek language 18 cr. ¹
  - Beginning Modern Greek I-II 6 cr.
  - Intermediate Modern Greek I-II 6 cr.
  - Advanced Modern Greek I-II 6 cr.
- New Testament Greek I-II 6 cr.
- Byzantine Music I-VI 9 cr.

b) Open and Distribution Electives Requirements: (21 credits)

- Open Electives: three electives in any program 9 cr. ²
- Religious Studies Distribution Electives 12 cr.
  - Category 1:
    - Bible in the Orthodox Church 6 cr. ³
      - Introduction to the Old Testament, OR
      - Exegesis of the Old Testament, or
      - Introduction to the New Testament, OR
      - Exegesis of the New Testament
  - Category 2:
    - Christian Theology and Spirituality 3 cr.
  - Category 3:
    - Religion, Philosophy and Service 3 cr.

¹ These 18 credits of Modern Greek are in addition to the 6 foreign language credits for General Education.
² Students are encouraged to take their open electives in another program (e.g., Human Development), in order to develop perspectives from another discipline that may complement the student’s vocation. Open electives can, however, be taken in all programs, including Religious Studies.
³ Any two Scripture courses from the following four courses from the School of Theology are required. Currently the Introduction courses are taught in the Fall term, and the exegesis courses in the Spring term. They are designed to be taken in sequence.
Modern Greek Language: Students are strongly encouraged to take the summer intensive Greek courses during the two summers following their freshman and sophomore years, which will satisfy 12 of the 24 required hours of Modern Greek. Proficiency exams offered each spring will determine whether students have attained the necessary degree of competence to move to the next level of Greek or if a remedial course is required. Students with prior knowledge of Modern Greek may take a placement exam to determine the level at which their studies will begin. Students whose skills in Modern Greek qualify them to skip course(s) will have those courses waived from their required courses, and may be given a maximum of 6 credit-hours to be applied toward the General Education language requirement. In the event that more than two Modern Greek courses are waived, the student will complete his or her 24 credits of Modern Greek in domain-specific (e.g., culture, literature, history), post-advanced level courses that will be offered as needed. Students who are native Greek speakers, will receive 6 credits in the General Education language requirements, and will take 12 credits in Religious Studies electives in a concentration (in Bible, Christian Theology and Spirituality, or Religion and Philosophy), and 6 credits in Religious Studies electives not in the area of concentration.

b) Electives Requirements: (48 credits)
- Open Electives: two electives in any program 6 cr.\(^6\)
- Religious Studies Electives: three religious studies electives in any area. 9 cr.

\(^5\) Any two Scripture courses from the following four courses from the School of Theology are required. Currently the Introduction courses are taught in the Fall term, and the exegesis courses in the Spring term. They are designed to be taken in sequence.

\(^6\) Students may choose to add a minor in the area in which their interdisciplinary electives are taken by adding two more courses according to the requirements of the minor in that program. In that case, the student would use these two open electives to meet that requirements for the minor.
• Interdisciplinary Electives: three elective courses in another program (e.g. Human Development), two of which must be required for the minor in that program. 9 cr.

• Religious Studies Distribution Electives: 12 cr.
  - Area 1: Bible in the Orthodox Church 3 cr.
  - Area 2: Christian Theology and Spirituality 3 cr.
  - Area 3: Religion, Philosophy, and Service 6 cr.

• Concentration Electives: four additional Religious Studies electives in one Area (I, II, or III) 12 cr.

All courses are 3 credits except where indicated otherwise.

ART

ARTS 2163
Iconography I: Introduction to Basic Concepts of Painting
This course will begin with basic techniques of painting an icon. Students will experience the entire process by using drawing forms to construct smoothly painted passages of light and essential quality of graphic line, based in the traditional Byzantine language of Iconography. Students will paint and finish their own icons in relation to patristic iconology, on which the art of iconography was founded.
Prerequisite: Painting I: Foundations
Spring

ARTS 2345
Painting I: Foundations
This course introduces students to basic drawing and painting techniques and concepts. Color theory, linear perspective, pictorial composition, visual perception, and critical thinking skills will all be emphasized extensively. Acrylic will be the primary medium for this class.
Fall

Drawing I: Foundations
An exciting introduction to art through exploring drawing media, the use of line, plane, and volume. It will develop the student’s comprehension of pictorial space and perspective understanding of the formal properties inherited in picture-making. Class work, slide talks, class critiques and discussions will assure the beginning student of a solid introduction to the creative process.
Fall

Painting II
In this course, students will understand composition, proportion, value, perspective, colors, form, and shape of the human body. Develops accurate observation, understanding and memory of key forms, properties of illumination, and effective use of drawing and acrylic painting. Prerequisite: Painting I: Foundations
Spring

ARTS 3102
History of Art
This course presents a survey of Western art from ancient civilizations through the Renaissance to today, with emphasis on the major artists and works of art of the Byzantine period.
Fall

CLASSICS AND GREEK STUDIES

Language Placement

Students may be placed in appropriate Ancient, New Testament, or Modern Greek language courses according to performance on the examination taken at Hellenic College. To be placed into an advanced language course, a student must achieve a minimum grade of B+ on the relevant placement exam. A student may be granted up to 6 credits of Advanced Placement credit for Modern Greek. However, if the student decides to enroll in the language course for which Advanced Placement credit was granted, the Advanced Placement credit is nullified. Students whose native language is Greek do not qualify for Modern Greek Advanced Placement credit.

Ancient Greek Language and Literature

ANGK 1011
Beginning Ancient Greek I
This course, designed for students with no previous instruction in Ancient Greek, constitutes a thorough introduction to the Ancient Greek language. The goal in this class is to acquire an elementary vocabulary and to internalize basic concepts of grammar and syntax through intensive study of introductory texts and translation exercises.
Fall

ANGK 1022
Beginning Ancient Greek II
The course, designed for students with 3 credits of previous instruction in Ancient Greek or equivalent, completes the introduction to Ancient Greek grammar and syntax with special emphasis on vocabulary expansion and translation skills. Prerequisite: Beginning Ancient Greek
Spring

ANGK 3311
The Rise and Fall of Athens
This course is designed for students who wish to develop a deep knowledge of ancient Greek history and civilization with special emphasis on the rise and fall of classical Athens. All readings are in English. Classics majors are required to do some of the readings in the original, depending on their level of proficiency in Ancient Greek. The method of instruction consists of lectures and audiovisual presentations (75%) followed by class discussions (25%). Course assignments include a class trip to the MFA and biweekly reflection papers.
Fall, Alternate years

The World of Greek Heroes
This course is designed for students who wish to study ancient Greek mythology and civilization and understand their significance for our society. Through archaic and classical Greek literature, art, and religion, the course offers a comprehensive overview of the notion of the Greek hero and its echoes after the classical era. The method of instruction consists of lectures and audiovisual presentations (75%), followed by class discussions (25%). All readings are in English. Course assignments include a class trip to the MFA and biweekly reflection papers.
Fall, alternate years

ANGK 4831
Classics Thesis Proseminar
This course, designed for students who have obtained approval to work on a Classics thesis, constitutes a supervised study on the writing of a 50-page undergraduate thesis, with special emphasis on literary criticism and research methodology.
Spring, alternate years

Latin Language and Literature

New Testament Greek

NTGK 4001
Biblical Greek I
A study of the koine based on the New Testament. The basic concepts of New Testament Greek grammar, syntax, and vocabulary are studied and applied to the text of the Gospels. The course is for students who have little or no prior knowledge of Greek.
Fall

NTGK 4012
Biblical Greek II
The study of grammar, syntax, and vocabulary is continued within a more extensive selection of readings from the Gospels. The emphasis is on comprehension and translation.
Spring

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

CE 2001 (3 Credits)
CE 2002 (1.5 Credits)
Community Engagement
In this course students will enter into a community as participant-observers/volunteers over the course of the year. The lectures will discuss the topic of community from multiple perspectives in an effort to understand what it means to engage in and learn from communities. In addition to the readings assigned for the course, students will read the communities to which they are assigned, and the living human documents (i.e., the people) they encounter there. In weekly meetings, students will be asked to reflect on their experiences as they come to deeper understandings of community and service in relationship to the Orthodox Christian faith. Note: Students are responsible for their travel to community sites. Prerequisite: CE 2001 is a prerequisite for CE 2002
Fall, Spring

EDUCATION

EDUC 2021
Philosophy of Education
This course introduces students to philosophical and historical theories and ideas that have influenced the educational system in the United States. Theories, ideas, practices, and historical events from a variety of multicultural perspectives and from a number of global thinkers will be presented, discussed, and critiqued through readings, written assignments, and presentations.
Fall

Child Development
This course is designed to familiarize students with various aspects of child development. Through an in-depth study of current research, students explore practical applications of theories to the teaching and counseling of children and adolescents. Among the topics discussed are: theories of child development; social and cultural influences on child development; physical, cognitive, emotional, psychological, and moral development; language acquisition; intelligence and its measurement; cognitive and behavioral views of learning; development of gender roles; and contexts of development (family, peers, media, and schooling).
Spring

EDUC 2179
Children’s Theatre Experience (1.5 credits)
In this course students will be encouraged to develop their own viewpoints about the integrative nature of theatre and the arts in the education of elementary school-aged children. Students will immerse themselves in the multiple ideas, challenges, and creative possibilities that mediate the children’s theatre experience. We will use the time together to fully participate with children as they strengthen social, cognitive, musical, and language-based skills. Accompanying them on the journey of staging a show for a live audience will open up the educational process for exploration, excitement, and new and different ways of relating coursework and theatre arts.
Fall

EDUC 3051
Introduction to Children’s Literature
In this course students will explore a variety of genres within children’s literature. These genres include poetry, fantasy, picture books, historical fiction, contemporary novels, graphic novels, and non-fiction texts. Throughout the semester, students will analyze the texts from a literary perspective and they will also examine some contemporary trends in the field of children's literature. The class explores works by many authors including E.B. White, J. K. Rowling, C.S. Lewis, Sharon Creech, and Neil Gaiman.

Education of Children with Special Needs
This course includes fundamental and historical information related to the field of Special Education as well as a discussion of current educational practices related to inclusion. This course explores the educational needs of students with a range of disabilities such as autism, dyslexia, and speech and language disabilities. Emphasis is placed on research-based assessment strategies, instructional strategies, and interventions designed to foster children's success.

EDUC 4311
Methods of Teaching Language Arts I
This course is the first of a two-semester course and provides students with the theoretical foundations and instructional strategies to assist children in becoming literate individuals. This course will enable students to provide a balanced, comprehensive program of instruction that includes instruction in reading, writing, technology, and related literacy skills for all students, including students with varied reading levels and language backgrounds. Students will explore ways to integrate the MA Standards and Curriculum Frameworks into literacy instruction. The focus of this course is on the following areas: components of a balanced literacy approach, developmental stages of reading, assessment, planning, and classroom organization for reading instruction, cueing systems in reading, principles of phonics and phonics instruction, word study, and the teaching of literature and literary response. Attention will be given to inclusion of traditionally underrepresented ethnic minorities, i.e., special education, English language learners, economically disadvantaged, and ethnic minorities.

EDUC 4312
Methods of Teaching Language Arts II
This course is the second of a two-semester course that has been designed to provide students with theoretical and pedagogical information necessary to become effective teachers of Language Arts. Students will further explore the ways cultural and linguistic differences affect literacy development, and be able to implement literacy instruction that motivates students. The focus of the second semester is on the following areas of a balanced literacy program: characteristics of content-area reading, development of children's writing, exposure to a variety of literary genres, and deepening students' knowledge of both assessment and instructional planning and design. Continued focus will be given to inclusion of traditionally underrepresented ethnic minorities, i.e., special education, English language learners, economically disadvantaged, and ethnic minorities. Field experience is a required aspect of this course. Prerequisite: Language Arts I

Methods of Teaching Mathematics
This course will expose students to inquiry-based, hands-on approaches to teaching mathematics. Students will become familiar with math curricula, learn various teaching methods and strategies, and use resources to develop their own lesson plans. Field experience is a required aspect of the course.

EDUC 4341
Methods of Teaching Science and Health
The course will expose students to inquiry-based, hands-on approaches to teaching science and health. Students will become familiar with science and health curricula, will learn various teaching methods and strategies, and will use resources to develop their own lesson plans. Exploring the arts will be examined as an aspect of understanding an overall health curriculum. Field experience is a required aspect of this course.

EDUC 4351
Multiculturalism/Social Studies Education
This course will introduce students to the field of multicultural education. Students will engage issues from a multicultural perspective based on an understanding of the concept of culture and the importance of preparing young people for citizenship in a culturally diverse, democratic society. In addition, students will examine the field of social studies and design a social studies curriculum for the elementary classroom.

Reflective Teaching
The main goals of this course are to initiate students into reflective practice as teachers and assist them in developing a critical approach to education that challenges them to view education as uncertain, dynamic, and a rich site for teaching and learning. To do this, the course will introduce students to the growing field of teacher research, critical pedagogy, and reflective practice through readings, discussions, and course assignments. Field experience is a required aspect of the course. Prerequisite: All prior education coursework must be completed.

EDUC 4812
Student Teaching Practicum (12 credits)
Required of all students who wish to become certified as elementary school teachers, the practicum consists of supervised student teaching in grades 1-6. Student teaching responsibilities include planning and implementing daily class lessons, developing curriculum materials, and demonstrating knowledge of the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks and competence in the Professional Standards of Teaching.

Prerequisite: All required courses must be completed.
Fall, Spring

EDUC 4912
Student Teaching Seminar
This course is offered concurrently with student teaching and relates the teaching experience to additional curriculum and knowledge areas of elementary education. Its purpose is to enhance self-evaluation on the part of the student teachers and to deepen their understanding of education as a profession. Prerequisite: All required courses must be completed.
Fall, Spring

ENGLISH

The Literature and History Program offers Writing Intensive Courses (WIC). The WIC are designed to help students practice writing and give them opportunities to use writing as a tool for learning. Instructors provide detailed feedback to students for their large and small writing projects, develop informal writing and thinking projects, encourage students in the revision process, and construct peer review exercises according to the goals of the assignments.

English Composition I and II are prerequisites for all upper-level courses in Literature and History.

ENG 1101
English Composition I
Prepares students for fundamental competence in the analysis and written communication of ideas encountered in undergraduate writing tasks for all disciplines. Clarity, coherence, correct usage, and persuasive order of presentation are some of the conventions of strong, consecutive prose that will be stressed. Course includes reading of exemplary essays.
Fall

ENG 1110
Academic Writing I
Writing I is a course designed specifically for the FASP student. In it, students will gain the skills necessary to fully express themselves, with clarity, nuance, and style. Special attention will be paid to the mechanics of writing as students compose sentences, paragraphs, and essays with grammatical accuracy and structural variety.
Fall

ENG 1115

Critical Thinking and Argumentation
Being able to evaluate ideas critically and to produce strong arguments to defend one’s own ideas is a central competence for every student. This course will provide the basis for being able to analyze the structure and contents of oral and written arguments. Students will work on several texts and videos during class and at home, learn to identify common mistakes in argumentation, and produce valid arguments for their own ideas.
Fall

ENG 1202
English Composition II
A continuation of English Composition I. ENG 1202 is an introductory course in literature that stresses close readings of texts and well-written, well-argued literary criticism. Critiques, oral presentations, and class discussions will be based on assigned readings in the major literary genres. Prerequisite: ENG 1101
Spring

ENGL 2121
Topics in Literature
Key works exploring how the artistic imagination depicts human conflict and conceptualizes ways of framing critical questions about the social problems of the day. Topics may include: Utopias and Dystopias; The Idea of the Foreign; Gothic Subtexts, The Politics of Gender, among others. Science fiction, essays, fantasy literature, and other genres will be included.
Alternate years

ENG 2241
American Literature
This course is designed to familiarize students with the thought, sensibility, and vision of the world that is reflected in the works of selected American authors of the past. Through the study of literature, students gain a perspective and a deeper understanding of the United States’ social history, culture, and the development of its multicultural voices that have become part of its national identity. The class explores works by many authors including Nathaniel Hawthorne, Henry David Thoreau, Edgar Allen Poe, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emily Dickinson, and Zora Neale Hurston. Prerequisite: English Composition I and II
Fall

ENG 2432
Russian Literature
All works are chosen from the major Russian writers, and represent approximately one hundred years of authorship, from mid-nineteenth century to mid-twentieth century. In some semesters recent writers may also be included. This course aims to introduce students to influential ideological and aesthetic trends in Russia’s literary tradition against a background of a culture in dramatic transition.

Fall

ENGL 3124
Coming of Age Literature
This course explores the genre of the bildungsroman, the coming-of-age novel, in a variety of cultural, social, and historical contexts. Assigned readings will focus primarily on novels, but will also include short stories and poetry. The class will study works written by Charles Dickens, Jane Austen, Mark Twain, Sue Monk Kidd, Sylvia Plath, Khaled Hosseini, and Edwidge Danticat.

World Literature
A comparative cultural studies approach to some major texts of world literature in the twentieth century centering on literary works that present the interaction among different cultures. It begins with works from the colonial period at the beginning of the century, moves on to the literature of WWI, WWII, and Vietnam, and then to post-colonialism, concluding with the emerging globalism at the end of the century. The course also includes a genre approach to literature, using major texts to introduce students to literary types.

ENGL 3311
Shakespeare Seminar
A study of several of the major plays, spanning the early, middle, and late periods of Shakespeare’s career. The cultural context of the Northern Renaissance will be explored in conjunction with the plays.
Spring

ENGL 3320
Great Books
Great Books will familiarize students with a range of key themes found in a selection of world masterpieces in the genres of epic, fiction, and poetry. The course will demonstrate various ways in which those themes may be seen to interact with diverse strands of history and culture, while also illuminating the mythological underpinnings of the primary sources. Each Great Books semester at HC includes a study of history and religion in the literary world of Dostoevski’s Brothers Karamazov. In addition, we will investigate, for example, how the journey of the hero in Jungian tradition helps inform the experience of reading Gilgamesh, and, as another example, how Eliot’s Four Quartets is invested with meaning borrowed from the Odyssey and Dante’s Divine Comedy centuries earlier.
Fall

ENGL 3445
Literature and Ethics
This course explores some of the fundamental issues that arise in philosophical discussions of mortality and ethics. In this course we utilize philosophy and literature to deepen students’ understanding of ethics. Great literature often delves into ethical issues and awakens our minds and hearts to new possibilities; it also encourages readers to understand the moral life in unique ways. In class we explore ethical questions related to topics such as the purpose of morality, the nature of good and evil, the meaning of life, moral relativism, deontological ethics, and the importance of freedom, autonomy and respect.

HISTORY

World History I
This course is a general introduction to world history covering the period from about 3500 BC to the fall of Constantinople in 1453. Discussion and readings will cover the major civilizations of the ancient world, including Egypt, Sumeria, India, China, Greece, Rome, and the rise of the world’s great religions: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, etc. Our aim: to provide students with the opportunity to understand and appreciate the great achievements of these ancient lands.
Fall

HIST 1022
World History II
This course is a general introduction to world history covering the period from the fall of Constantinople in 1453 to an analysis of the forces shaping the late twentieth century. Discussions and readings will cover, for example, such world historical events as the Protestant Reformation, the French Revolution, Europe’s interactions with the civilizations of Asia, the World Wars, as well as the many positive achievements of modern civilization. Our aim: to afford students a fuller understanding and appreciation of the world civilization they have inherited.
Spring

HIST 2051
American History I
This course provides a topical and chronological survey of American history from the time of European settlement through the Civil War and Reconstruction. Topics covered include the Jamestown and Plymouth colonies, the Salem witch trials, the American Revolution, Federalists and Anti-Federalists, the Market Revolution, utopian societies, slavery and abolitionism, and the origins of the Civil War.
Fall, alternate years
HIST 2055
Environmental History
Environmental History explores interactions between people and their environments in historical context. The course provides an overview of major environmental developments since the dawn of civilization, but particular emphasis is placed on the last few centuries. Topics covered include the Columbian Exchange and its consequences, forestry and its relationship to colonialism, the evolution of agriculture, climate change and climatic vagaries, “high modernism” and the administrative ordering of nature, urbanization, and pollution. Students will also consider the moral and ethical dimensions of the human relationship with the natural environment.

MATH

Fundamentals of Mathematics
Provides preparation for college algebra and a solid mathematical background in a wide range of arithmetic-related topics and problem-solving skills including the set theory, systems of numerations, basic logic, a review of algebraic expressions, geometry of plane figures, linear equations with one variable, and arithmetic operations on polynomials.
Fall

MATH 2014
Mathematical Inquiry
This course offers students the opportunity to explore the ways in which mathematics can be viewed as the language of the physical world. It will provide students with the mathematical tools to analyze the world, and will teach them how to think critically and logically. Students will be provided with opportunities to develop both their reasoning skills and their confidence to solve real-world problems utilizing mathematical principles. This course will cover a wide range of topics, each relating real-world situations to mathematical calculations. Some examples of the many topics this course will explore are: number theory, geometric principles, logic and probability, and data analysis. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Mathematics or appropriate placement

MGMT 1001
Principles and Practices of Management
The Principles and Practices course is the cornerstone of the program. It introduces students to the four core management functions of planning, organizing, monitoring, and controlling. It also introduces the functional disciplines of finance, operations, marketing, human resources, and management information systems. Accordingly, the course serves as a primer of management functions that will be explored in greater depth in each respective course later in the curriculum. (Core course: First course required for all M&L students)
Annually

MGMT 1111
Accounting I
This course is made up of two parts. First, students explore the conceptual framework of generally accepted accounting principles and related applications. More specifically, the accounting cycle is examined through to the communication of results using the three main financial statements: the income statement, the statement of cash flows, and the balance sheet. The second portion of the course focuses on topics such as the time value of money, current and non-current liabilities, leases, deferred taxes, retirement benefits, stockholders’ equity, earning per share, accounting changes and errors, and statement of cash flows. The use of QuickBooks is integrated into the course.
Annually

MGMT 2232
Human Resources Management
This course examines the competencies associated with effective human resources management as defined by the Society for Human Resources Management. In doing so, the course examines HR functions to include human resource planning, recruitment and selection, training and development, career planning, job analysis and evaluation, performance appraisal, employee compensation and benefits, labor-management relations, discipline and grievance handling, and diversity and equal employment opportunity.
Annually

MGMT 2242
Principles of Marketing
This course emphasizes basic decision-making tools and analytic processes used by marketing professionals. Topics include new product development, distribution channels and systems, personal and mass selling techniques, pricing, promotion, and marketing program implementation. Students will have the opportunity to develop their own marketing plans for a product or service of their choosing.
Annually

MGMT 2351
Business and Society
This course emphasizes organizations’ social and ethical responsibilities to both external and internal stakeholder groups. The course focuses on national and global issues and on the influence of political, social, legal, regulatory, environmental, and technological issues on “corporate social responsibility.” Students analyze cases that reflect inherently conflicting points of view of stakeholders.
Annually

MGMT 2432
Operations Management
This course examines the important concepts of operations management in various organizations, such as banks, retail stores, hospitals, churches, and parishes. This course covers typical aspects of managing operations such as capacity planning, scheduling, inventory control, and quality control.
Annually

MGMT 2454
Management Information Systems
This course prepares students to use information technology effectively in the decision-making process. Students will examine business applications using spreadsheets and databases. Students will also examine management information systems and decision-support systems to understand how effective systems can enhance managerial decision-making.

Annually

MGMT 3100
Financial Management
This course explores the concepts and techniques for determining the need for the acquisition and management of capital resources in for-profit and non-profit organizations. The course includes such topics as financial analysis, forecasting, leverage, capital budgeting, time value of money, investment banking, common and preferred stock, financing, and bond evaluation.

Annually

MGMT 3113
General Economics
The focus in the first part of the course is on managerial decisions concerning demand, costs, profitability, and competitive strategies. Students analyze real-world markets and firms using the basic concepts of microeconomics. In the second half, the focus is on developing an understanding of the main forces and trends in the economy, how they are interrelated, and how policy-makers try to affect them. Students will examine how changes in the macro economy affect managerial decisions.

Annually

MGMT 3232
Organizational Behavior
This course examines the individual, groups, and structural units in organizations. More specifically, it explores human relationships within organizations through such topics as perception, motivation, conflict management, diversity, group processes, power and politics, culture, and leadership. Through real-life cases, classroom exercises, and discussion, students develop the insights, knowledge, and skills essential for understanding and managing behavior within and between individuals and groups.

Annually

MGMT 3250
Strategic Management
This course focuses on the strategic management process from a global perspective. Students will study the issues involved in the creation, formulation, and implementation of strategy and policy. Through discussion and case study, students will evaluate the risks and alternatives of strategic choices and how management philosophies can affect strategy formulation and implementation.

Annually

MGMT 3500
Leadership Theory and Practice
This course explores the complex nature of leadership in modern organizations. Through readings, discussion, and case studies, students will examine several theories of leadership and motivation and the relationship between organizational power, authority, and leadership styles. Particular emphasis is placed on values-based/authentic leadership. Students also have an opportunity to formulate an individual leadership development plan focused on leveraging their inherent leadership strengths and addressing development opportunities. (Core course: required for all M&L students)

MGMT 3501 (1.5 cr.) and
MGMT 3502 (3.0 cr.)
Management and Leadership Internship
In the fall semester of their senior year, students complete a personal assessment plan, and develop strategies on how to further their development as prospective managers and leaders. After reflecting on development goals, they then complete an action plan for their internship experience during the subsequent semester. They also embark on some practical planning by developing networking skills, updating their resumes and cover letters, as well as honing their interviewing skills. They also explore potential internship experiences at sponsoring organizations. Once they have obtained internship sites, students develop a learning contract outlining their internship learning goals and outcomes, which is signed by the site supervisor, the student, and the academic advisor. Student then spend the second semester on site, fulfilling their internship learning goals.

Prerequisite: Senior standing

Annually

MGMT 3515
Management and Leadership Internship
The Seminar in Management and Leadership is taken during the spring semester of the senior year. It is a culminating experience where the student focuses on three things. First, there is ongoing reporting and reflection on their internship experience. Second, there is an opportunity to research and analyze topics where there are “clashing views.” Here, the student selects a topic, researches the opposing points of view, and formulates recommendations based on their own point of view. Students then present their findings to the larger Hellenic College community. Finally, students have a chance to reflect on their entire HCHC experience and describe their own personal “road to character.” This final component also includes a forward-looking plan for how to continue as a lifelong learner.

Prerequisite: Senior standing

Annually

MGMT 4112
Managing Change in Organizations
In this course, students will develop some practical tools and skills for planning and managing large-scale, systemic change. Through in-class discussions, exercises, and case studies, students will learn to analyze the forces that drive change in organizations, examine impediments to change, as well as survey a range of approaches for making organizational change more effective. Special attention will be given to managing resistance and the losses and disruptions resulting from transformational change.

Introduction to the Old Testament
This course is a preparatory step, a reading guide, and a candid invitation to reading the Old Testament. The course is divided into two parts: the General Introduction deals with the Old Testament as history, literature, and part of the living tradition. The following topics are discussed in detail: Unity in diversity of the Christian Bible, Biblical Text, Biblical Canon, Relationship between Scripture and Tradition. The Special Introduction focuses on some theological themes rooted in the Pentateuch and running throughout the Old and New Testaments along with their interpretations within various hermeneutical contexts (Jewish, Christian, modern scholarship). The three themes discussed here are: God, humanity, the problem of suffering. Students are requested to read closely the entire Pentateuch, specifically the texts listed for each meeting. Perequisite: The Old Testament in the Orthodox Church

NEWT 4002
Introduction to the New Testament
This course offers the student an introduction to the New Testament in its historical, canonical, and liturgical contexts, with an eye toward the learning outcomes of the programs of the school. It is part one of a two-part series on the New Testament, the second of which is focused on the art and practice of biblical exegesis, integrating both historical-critical and patristic sources. The overall goal of the course is to provide each student with the opportunity to become better acquainted with the New Testament both in terms of general knowledge and application of this knowledge when using the New Testament for spiritual, pedagogical, and liturgical purposes. The student will have the opportunity to read the New Testament during the semester, giving attention to each book’s unique literary-historical character. Weekly assigned readings will provide relevant theological and historical material to support the student in gaining a better appreciation and use of the New Testament. This course will also introduce the student to the use of the New Testament within the lectionary of the Eastern Orthodox Church, and provide an introduction to the methods and resources for interpreting these passages. Perequisite: The New Testament in the Orthodox Church

Philosophical Search for God and Meaning of Life
This course will examine one of the most pivotal philosophical topics, the question of God in relation to the human search for meaning. By following a historical-thematic approach, we will analyze first how Christianity adopted Greek philosophy and broke away from it, and then how modernity through Enlightenment, Positivism, Materialism, and Marxism moved away from Christianity in the 18th–19th century. In our time, modern atheism and different forms of secularism tend to push religion aside because of its apparent hindering of the advancement of science, human freedom, and social justice. In the 20th century, the mainstream secularization theory inclined toward ignorance and dismissal of religion from the public sphere, claiming that religion triggered conflict, tension, oppression, and violence; a continuation of this theory is the “myth of religious violence,” based on the assumption that religion is intrinsically connected with terror. All these modern narratives present no sufficient proof for their claim about the irrelevance of religion. At the same time, they are expressions of the human agent's struggle in his/her search for meaning. Whether or not the secular human agent will treat religion and spirituality as a source of remarkable hope and consolation, opening a new transcendental comprehension of the ultimate meaning of life, remains a crucial question. At the same time, in the 21st century Christianity, with its spiritual and intellectual tradition, faces an unprecedented opportunity of presenting a new universal vision of unity between humans, the universe, and God.

Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios
The Missiology of Archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania and Practical Evangelism in Albania will study in depth the life, missiology, and writings of the greatest contemporary Orthodox missionary, Archbishop Anastasios (Yannoulatos) of Albania. We will examine how he has practically lived out his missiology through his 10-year ministry in East Africa and 25-year ministry in the Church of Albania. The course will look at the foundation and calling of missions. We will consider the resurrection of the Church of Albania over the past 25 years, examining and analyzing the success of how the church has succeeded in living out the missiology of the Archbishop, and where the church has not yet lived up to the missiology. This course will be combined with a 12 day mission outreach and pilgrimage to Albania, witnessing firsthand the resurrection of the Church of Albania, meeting missionaries and the indigenous leaders of the Church. Prerequisite: Introduction to Orthodoxy

RELG 3220
The Book of Genesis and Its Reflection on Orthodox Life
The book of Genesis with its history of Creation and the Salvation history starting from the Messianic promise in Gen3:15, is arguably a microcosm of the Pentateuch, if not of the entire Old Testament -- the overarching themes of Genesis and their theological implications are reflected in every book of the Bible. As such, about two-thirds of all the Old Testament themes in Orthodox worship relate to the book of Genesis, whereas the themes of the Old Testament are present in every divine worship service. The history of reception, ie, the reflection of "Genesis" in the life of the Church, will be mirrored in the following aspects: liturgical cycles (daily and annual), hymnography, iconography, church architecture, typology of scriptural characters and prototypes, and sacramental theology. The view of the scripture through the totality of these discrete areas will give the students an integrated perspective on the life of scripture in Orthodox life and worship. This course will be built as a counterpoint of two streams: the analysis of the scriptural and liturgical themes united by subject-matter.

Prerequisite: The Old Testament in the Orthodox Church

Christ in the Greek Patristic Tradition
This course examines the Christological questions that developed primarily among Greek speaking Christians from the first to the eighth centuries. In doing so, it identifies various understandings of Christ’s identity, and the best way to understand the relation between the divine and human in him. Emphasis will be placed on the practical implications for the Christian way of life created by such theological thinking. Attention is also given both to creedal statements of Orthodox councils as well as the works of individual saints such as Athanasius of Alexandria, Gregory Nazianzus, Cyril of Alexandria, Leo of Rome, Maximus the Confessor, and John Damascene. The class will situate each text in its historical context, and identify its specific technical terminology, along with the scriptural texts informing it.

Prerequisite: All general education religious studies requirements

Ancient Christian Spiritual Practices
This course is a brief guided tour of some of the spiritual practices (or exercises) developed by early Christians. Such exercises were for them potent technologies, powerful bearers of Christian wisdom, and arguably the primary form of self-care in antiquity. A wide variety of practices will be discussed, but we will pay particular attention to what was done with scripture, prayer, liturgy, food, and community. Rather than emphasizing what early Christians believed, we will examine how they believed what they did and how those beliefs became for them a way of life in the world. Readings will include passages from the Desert Fathers, St. Athanasius, St. Basil, St. Gregory of Nyssa, St. Augustine of Hippo, St. John Cassian, Origen of Alexandria, and Evagrius. Special attention will be given to how retrieving such practices can contribute to a robust contemporary Christianity.

World Religions
A survey of major religious traditions of the world, from the religions of India and the Far East to the more familiar religions of the West. Students are introduced to the origins, history, scriptures, and fundamental tenets of each faith, as well as the modern transformations and manifestations that currently characterize them. The course includes practical visits to various places of worship, observing their ritual of worship and listening to a practitioner of each faith studied. It is designed to enable students to begin the journey of their own personal study of religions in greater depth.

Biblical Books of Wisdom and their Heroes
As wisdom itself, biblical Wisdom Literature tends to escape formal definition, and yet is vividly present in the Old Testament and deuterocanonical books. How do you see God, if He does not manifest Himself? And what is Wisdom but the ability to see God, when He is apparently absent, as in the book of Job? And when is Wisdom more needed than in such circumstances, both tragic and day-to-day? God’s invisible presence, conspicuous absence, and the art of divine discernment on the part of humanity constitute the underlying theme in the great diversity of Wisdom books.
Wisdom themes run through the entire book of Proverbs, embracing wisdom as practical and moral advice, and culminating in Wisdom’s part in Creation as a divine companion, a mystical hypostasis. Wisdom Literature comprises poetry and prose, from the archetypal book of Proverbs and “Wisdom Psalms” to the narrative Wisdom of Tobit, Daniel, Esther, and Joseph; from Ecclesiastes and Ecclesiastics to the Wisdom of Solomon; from the Song of Songs to the book of Job and Fourth Maccabees. Amidst the wide array of issues raised in this corpus of literature where God’s presence is hidden are: the correlation of Wisdom and experience; knowledge of God from natural theology; limits of human knowledge; God as providence; the divine quality of discernment; practical Wisdom; the relevance of happiness;
love between a man and a woman; the view on immortality;
sagacity in martyrdom, and the issues relating to the hypostatization of Wisdom, reflecting Orthodox Trinitarian theology. Students will engage with the themes, theological subject matter, and Christian implications of this rich biblical tradition. In the second portion of this class, the student will more directly focus on the reception history of this corpus of Wisdom writings, including their main themes and protagonists as they are reflected in the manifold “mirrors” of Orthodox life and worship, including their use within the writings of the New Testament.

St. Paul: His Legacy, Life and Epistles
This course will study many of the epistles of St. Paul in their historical contexts, seeking to understand both the life of the saint who wrote these letters and what they espouse for the life of the Church then and now. The student will become much better acquainted with the Pauline corpus as a result of close reading, exegesis, and group discussion of the legacy St.
Paul gave us in his epistles, and preserved as Holy Scripture by the Church. We will endeavor to keep the image of Paul the saint in our mind’s eye throughout the semester, and will give a privileged position to the preaching about Paul by our Father of the Church, St. John Chrysostom, by reading the seven sermons he preached "In Praise of St. Paul."

Anatomy and Physiology Human Physiology is the study of the normal functions of the human body. Physiology integrates knowledge gathered from the fields of cell biology, anatomy, biochemistry, and physics.
We will begin with lessons on the cell and proceed to the major organ systems of the human body. The learning objective of the course is to gain understanding of how multiple organ systems work tougher for the health of the body and mind. It is the instructor’s hope that through the study of human anatomy and physiology, we come to appreciate and agree with the Prophet-King David, who chanted: “For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalm 139: 13-16)

Introduction to Biology
Biology is the study of living organisms. Twenty-first century biology is a vast and changing science that ranges from the study of ecology to the study of the genome. In Introduction to Biology we will learn from the most up-to-date scientific data on essential topics of biology, such as the structures and functions of the cell, genetics, energy metabolism, photosynthesis, inter-cellular communication, viruses, bacteria, plants, and ecology. Ample time will be spent on the cell’s biochemical makeup, metabolic pathways, blueprints for making proteins, and messaging systems. We will marvel at the circular relationship between photosynthesis of plants and energy metabolism of animals. We will also venture into the cutting-edge fields of genomics and epigenetics which potentially will avail us of paradigm-changing conclusions in the fields of biology and medicine. The Virtual Simulation Biology Lab provides an online educational resource that simulates natural environments with the way life responds to changing conditions. Background information and technical instruction help students learn by experimentation. Parameters and conditions adjust easily for observable effects and consequences. Because these are stochastic simulations, no two runs are identical. The data generated are biologically realistic and are displayed numerically and graphically. Typically, students will design experiments and conduct them using these simulation models, and collect and analyze their data systematically. The in-depth study of human biology will be covered in a separate course: SCIN1201 Anatomy and Physiology. Prerequisite: Anatomy and Physiology is recommended but not required.

An introduction to psychology through an examination of cognition, emotions, learning, motivation, perception, personality, and physiology. Attention is given to psychological issues in view of the student’s understanding of personal growth. This is a survey course, examining major topics in psychology. Students will be introduced to the study of behavior and the factors that determine and effect behavior. This course will acquaint students with the diverse field of psychology, methods of research used and how it contributes to the body of knowledge in psychology, promotion of critical thinking, generation of new ideas, and consideration of alternate explanations when evaluating information. In addition, this course will demonstrate to students why scientific and critical thinking are so important in the decisions they make. Lifespan developmental psychology is a study of how and why people change over time as well as how and why they remain the same from conception through the aging process. The course is described through three perspectives: physical, cognitive, and psychosocial. Emphasis will be on the major transitions from fetal development through middle childhood in the physical, cognitive, social, and emotional domains. The impact of ethnic, gender, and cultural factors on development will be examined. The course is a survey of major themes and recent findings in the area of human development across the lifespan of fetal development through middle childhood. This course is presented with an interdisciplinary perspective, focusing on physical, psychological, and sociological aspects of development throughout the lifespan between fetal development and middle childhood. Lifespan objectives are emphasized. and discussed. Why do we behave as we do? What roles do biology, environmental influences, and unconscious processes play? What are personality disorders and what causes them? How can we achieve greater well-being? Emphasis will be given in this course to an integrated biopsychosocial-spiritual perspective that emphasizes the centrality of relationships in motivation, emotion, cognition, behavior, development, diagnosis, and treatment. Trauma-Informed Practice
This course is focused on evidence-based practice models for healthcare practitioners. The goal of this course is to provide information on the overall enhancement and maintenance of psychosocial functioning of individuals, families, and small groups. This course presents current and contemporary material that is application oriented. The overall goal of the course is to help students develop beginning level knowledge and skills related to the special topic area. The course reinforces the person-in-situation perspective, which is essential to health services work practice. Evidence-based practitioners acknowledge and respect diversity in all forms of practice. Diversity is expressed as differences among individuals, groups, and populations (age, class, culture, disability, gender, political ideology, race, religion, sexual orientation). Cultural Competence Psychology “Cultural competence” is one of public health’s primary tools to closing the disparities gap in health service professions. It encompasses behaviors, attitudes, and policies that are integrated in a system, agency, or group of professionals that enables effective work in cross-cultural settings and situations. While "culture" is commonly associated with race/ethnicity, it encompasses the language, thoughts, communications, actions, customs, beliefs, and values of any social group. This course will examine both analytical and practical approaches to cultural competence in health services. Concepts, models, frameworks, and communication that occur in cross-cultural health situations will be discussed, but also the application of these concepts in real interventions and programs. Each class will generally include a short lecture, practical activities, and discussion. The lecture will review pertinent concepts for the week’s topic area. Activities will include readings, student-led discussions, guest lecturers, and other in-class exercises. The course’s major projects include: 1) research (via readings and interviews) of a particular ethnic culture; and 2) a culminating presentation and paper on a specific topic relating to cultural competence in healthcare. Advanced Qualitative Research
This course is designed to explore a variety of qualitative research approaches, taking into account issues of epistemology (ways of knowing), methodology (ways of examining), and representation (ways of writing and reporting). Qualitative, non-statistical research can form the basis of surprising and profound discoveries about individuals, groups, and how themes and ideas are generated. A particular emphasis of this course is introducing students to ethnography and providing students with opportunities to come face-to-face with how various contexts inform people’s lives. That knowledge can then inform how students integrate their faith, knowledge, compassion, and skills into their personal and professional lives.

MISSION STATEMENT

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology is an Orthodox Christian seminary and graduate school of theology centered on the Trinitarian faith as revealed by Jesus Christ and as preserved in its fullness, genuineness, and integrity by the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. The school embodies the historic and specific educational mission of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople and its Archdiocese in the United States. Holy Cross educates its students to articulate and understand the biblical, historical, dogmatic, ethical, and liturgical traditions of the Orthodox Church. Students are prepared to become future Orthodox clergy and lay leaders who demonstrate faith, sensitivity, and compassion as they cultivate an attitude of offering a service of truth and love in the world. Through its graduate degree programs, Holy Cross offers men and women the opportunity to become spiritually mature persons through immersion in worship, theological studies, and service to community.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION FOR LEADERSHIP IN MINISTRY AND SERVICES

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology is a unique community of Orthodox faith and worship, learning and service. Centered upon Jesus Christ and His Gospel, Holy Cross is a graduate school of theology and seminary founded in 1937 and supported by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, a province of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople. The mission of Holy Cross is to provide theological education and formation for future clergy and lay leaders of the Church and society. We are a community of faith and learning, of heritage and service. Men and women from all parts of America and the world come to Holy Cross each year to pursue graduate study in the various disciplines of Orthodox theology. This study takes place in an atmosphere of prayer, shared convictions, and common values which are rooted in the reality of Jesus Christ and the saving truths of the Gospel as received and proclaimed by the Orthodox Church.

Holy Cross has educated over a thousand clergy and lay leaders who are serving, or who have served, in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese and other Orthodox jurisdictions both in this country and in other parts of the world. Graduates of Holy Cross are leading the Church here in North America as well as in South America, Europe, Africa, and Asia. Holy Cross embodies the historic educational mission of the Ecumenical Patriarchate and its Archdiocese in America.

Holy Cross has the responsibility of preparing future clergy for the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese and a number of other Orthodox jurisdictions. This is a sacred responsibility. The mission and well-being of the Church requires clergy who have a strong devotion to Christ, nurtured by theological education, spiritual disciplines, pastoral insights, and leadership skills.

Holy Cross also provides education and formation to men and women who desire to serve the Church and society with the benefit of theological education and spiritual formation. Many look to serving in positions such as chaplains, theologians, missionaries, parish administrators, religious educators, counselors, iconographers, and church musicians. The call to ministry has always been viewed as a vocation. Each vocation must be nurtured and supported in a community of faith, learning, and worship.
THEOLOGICAL AND PASTORAL PROGRAMS

Holy Cross offers exceptional opportunities for graduate-level Orthodox theological education and formation on a beautiful campus in Brookline, Massachusetts, overlooking the city of Boston. The school offers three graduate degree programs to qualified students who have completed undergraduate studies. Each of these programs includes courses in Biblical Studies, Church History and Ecumenism, Patristics, Dogmatic Theology, Ethics, Liturgics, Canon Law, Pastoral Theology, Church Music, and Ancient and Modern Languages.

The Master of Divinity (MDiv) is a three- or four-year program designed for students seeking comprehensive theological and ministerial education, as well as those who seek to serve the Church as clergy or as lay leaders. A supervised Field Education Program is part of the degree requirements. This degree program is required for seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese who sense a calling to the priesthood.

The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is a two-year program designed for students seeking an introduction to the various disciplines of Orthodox theology.

The Master of Theology (ThM) is a one-year program of advanced theological studies including a thesis in a specialized discipline. It is designed primarily for students who already have the MDiv degree.

Holy Cross also offers two certificate programs. The Program for the Diaconate is designed especially for those who sense a call to serve as ordained deacons. Courses are offered during three summer sessions and relate to additional programs offered at the Metropolis and parish levels. This program is not designed for those who sense a call to the priesthood.

The Certificate in Byzantine Music equips students with a mastery of the skills required for chanting the sacred hymns of the Orthodox Church. The program provides thorough knowledge of the psaltic notational system, the theoretical framework of the modal system, the ability to sight-read musical scores at all levels of complexity, and an extensive familiarity with the contents and usage of liturgical books and the rubrics of the Orthodox Church.

Holy Cross also offers special lectures and conferences during the academic year. They are open to clergy and laity as well as to scholars and non-degree candidates. Our library, containing over 65,000 monographs, over 400 active print journal titles, and various electronic databases, is a significant center of research for our faculty, students, and visiting scholars.

Through our community life and academic programs, Holy Cross emphasizes the intimate relationship between the study of Orthodox theology, worship, and service to others. Our community is centered upon Jesus Christ and His Gospel as it is known, lived, and taught by the Orthodox Church.

FAITHFUL AND WELL-PREPARED LEADERS FOR CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The education of future clergy and lay leaders at Holy Cross is multidimensional. Through worship, graduate theological studies, and community life, students are challenged to deepen their understanding of the various areas of Orthodox theology, to cultivate an attitude of faithful service to others, and to be persons of prayer.

We expect our future clergy and lay leaders to be persons of faith who appreciate our rich heritage of Orthodox Christian faith, learning, culture, and philanthropy. We also expect them to be caring persons who are well aware of the pastoral needs of all God’s people. We expect them to be thoughtful people who are aware of the realities of today’s society. The expectations of our clergy and lay leaders are great because the needs are great.

OUR STUDENTS AND COMMUNITY

We have a remarkable student body, both men and women, in our three graduate degree programs. These students are bound together by their devotion to Jesus Christ and a desire to serve as His ambassadors. Many are ‘second career’ students with families. The majority of our students are preparing for ministry in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, yet they come from a variety of backgrounds and have different degrees of preparation. The makeup of our student body reflects the changing demographics and missionary activity of the Church.

We also have students from other Orthodox and Oriental Orthodox jurisdictions in this country, including the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese, the Orthodox Church in America, the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, the Serbian Orthodox Church, the Malankar Orthodox Syrian Church, and the Coptic Orthodox Church.

International students come from Orthodox Churches in a number of countries, including Greece, Kenya, Uganda, Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Lebanon, Canada, Georgia, Serbia, the United Kingdom, and China. The presence of these students enriches our community and contributes to cross-cultural understanding. The presence of international students indicates that Holy Cross is recognized throughout the world as a renowned center of Orthodox theological education and formation.

THE FACULTY

Holy Cross faculty members are widely recognized for their teaching and their contributions to theological scholarship, conferences, and retreats. Many are involved in ecumenical and interfaith dialogues. A number contribute to the ministries of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, to the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, and to the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America. All the members of the faculty are called to be faithful teachers, mentors, and role models. Serving as a faculty member at Holy Cross does not simply require scholarly credentials. It also requires a commitment to Christ as known through the Orthodox Faith, a dedication to the students and the well-being of the community. Our small classes encourage close interaction between faculty and students.

HISTORY AND MISSION

Holy Cross was founded in 1937 and first located in Pomfret, Connecticut. Its initial purpose was to prepare future priests and teachers to serve the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese. Since that time, Holy Cross has served as the only seminary and school of theology of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese in the Americas. In 1946, the school moved to Brookline, Massachusetts, where the students and faculty could take advantage of the unprecedented educational and cultural opportunities of Greater Boston. In response to the emerging needs of the Church, and by virtue of its own academic maturation, in 1966 Holy Cross expanded its collegiate division into a full four-year liberal arts college, a distinct undergraduate institution known as Hellenic College. Today the faculties and students of the undergraduate and graduate schools continue to form one community, sharing the same campus and facilities. However, the two schools are academically separate entities. Holy Cross has developed into an accredited graduate school of theology, and as such has become one of the most important institutions of the Orthodox Church in the Western Hemisphere.

At Holy Cross, education is viewed as an integration of learning and faith. While committed to providing excellence in teaching, learning, and scholarship, the Holy Cross programs also reflect the religious and cultural values of the Orthodox tradition, values expressed in the historic witness and mission of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople.

The school is engaged in a variety of teaching, scholarship, service, and worship activities directed toward developing the intellectual and spiritual potential of its students, as well as enabling the faculty to pursue teaching and scholarship in their various disciplines with academic freedom. The school is a community which encourages personal maturity, faith commitment, and a desire to contribute to the well-being of the Church and society.

Holy Cross is located in the Greater Boston area, known as the “Athens of America.” It is well known for its numerous colleges and universities as well as a center for theological education as reflected in the Boston Theological Institute, a consortium of eight theological schools within close proximity to Holy Cross. As a center of learning, the city is rich in religious, cultural, educational, artistic, and athletic opportunities. The underlying source of all of our experiences is our deep commitment to our Orthodox Christian faith and learning, to heritage and service, which allows us to blend a unified vision of the past, present, and future in all that we do.

Theological education involves much more than purely academic endeavors. In the true spirit of Orthodox Christianity, formal educational growth, academic excellence, and spiritual formation are inseparably connected. Worship is central to the life of our community. Prayer and the sacramental life are indispensable to spiritual nurture. Holy Cross is thus concerned not only with the academic, but also with the spiritual and moral development of students. The theological student is one who strives not only to gain a deep understanding of the faith, but also to live this faith with all its transformative power and practical implications in the course of daily life.

INSTRUCTIONAL LOCATION

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology’s instructional location is on the Hellenic College Holy Cross campus located at 50 Goddard Avenue, Brookline, Massachusetts 02445. All administrative and academic offices are located on the Brookline campus.
ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Our academic programs are intended to provide the student with significant exposure to the various disciplines of Orthodox theology. While courses are offered in each of these areas of theological inquiry, the faculty of Holy Cross seeks to keep the disciplines integrated and related to life in the contemporary world. The thread that unites the major disciplines is the apostolic faith, life, and witness as it is lived and interpreted in the liturgical tradition of Orthodoxy and in the writings of the Fathers of the Church. The faculty is committed to bringing the example and the teachings of the Fathers to bear upon the issues and challenges of contemporary life. This constitutes more than an academic principle of organization. It is a spiritual perspective, an ethos that permeates every aspect of the educational endeavor at Holy Cross.

The study of Orthodox theology is undertaken within the lived witness and fulfillment of the teachings of Jesus Christ, the participation in the holy sacraments, and the life of prayer. The faculty of Holy Cross, therefore, encourages students of theology to study the content of the Christian revelation and to appropriate, in a personal way, that saving revelation. While specific expectations are placed upon those students who are preparing for ordination, all Orthodox students at Holy Cross are expected to share in the liturgical life of the community and to contribute to its well-being under the guidance of their spiritual fathers and their academic advisors.

Required courses are arranged in set patterns for both pedagogical and scheduling reasons. Because most required courses are offered only once during the academic year, students are encouraged to follow the sequence of required courses so as to avoid scheduling conflicts.
MASTER OF DIVINITY

The Master of Divinity degree (MDiv) is the preferred graduate degree in theology for those interested in all forms of ministry in Church and society, and especially for those preparing for ordination in the Orthodox Church. The program is open to qualified students who have a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. The program is designed primarily for students who are preparing for ordination or other expressions of ministry in the Orthodox Church, giving students a foundation in both academic theological disciplines and practical ministry through field education. Consequently, this program of study is required for students preparing for ordination in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese and is strongly recommended for students who are preparing for ordination in other Orthodox jurisdictions. Applicants who are preparing for ordination (seminarians) and who have recently joined the Orthodox Church are expected to have spent a minimum of two years living an active life in an Orthodox parish community prior to enrolling in the MDiv program. In addition, other students are encouraged to enroll who are not candidates for ordination (non-seminarians) but who desire to obtain a professional degree in pastoral ministry.

The degree of Master of Divinity is awarded to regular students in good standing who have satisfactorily completed the course of study with an average grade not lower than C (2.0), and these requirements:

- A minimum number of credit hours as required by the particular version of the MDiv program in which a student is enrolled
- Supervised field education as prescribed by the faculty
- One elective in the area of ecumenical studies or in a religious tradition other than the Orthodox Christian tradition
- If elected, the successful completion of a thesis in accordance with the “Guide for the Preparation of the MDiv Thesis.” A copy of the guide may be obtained from the director of the MDiv thesis program. This replaces 6 credit hours of electives.

There are three categories of students in the MDiv program. These are outlined below, together with their particular version(s) of the MDiv program.

MDiv Learning Outcomes

1. Understand and articulate in a pastorally sensitive manner the Orthodox tradition in its biblical, patristic, dogmatic, canonical, ethical, and missionary aspects with an ecumenical sensitivity, an awareness of the present realities of life, and commitment to the Church.
2. Identify and analyze the issues involved in various dimensions of pastoral ministry by incorporating learned practical competencies, spiritual integration, and theological reflection.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of, and sensitivity and faithfulness to the Church’s liturgical life and become faithful liturgists.
4. Develop a theological mind grounded in a critical and ecclesial interpretation of theological texts, contemporary thought, and materials, with faithfulness to their historical and linguistic context and the challenges of a global world.
5. Demonstrate the skills needed to be an effective teacher, catechist, pastoral preacher, and collaborative leader.

Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese

Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese are admitted to one of two versions of the MDiv program according, to their qualifications. Those who are graduates of the Religious Studies seminarian track program of Hellenic College enroll in a three-year program, while those who have received their bachelor’s degrees from other institutions enroll in the four-year program. The difference lies in certain courses, which graduates of Hellenic College will already have had, but which are unlikely to have been taken by graduates of other schools. These courses include New Testament Greek, Modern Greek (which fulfills an important pastoral need within the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese), Byzantine music, and introductory courses in the Old and New Testaments.

Seminarians of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese are required, in addition, to fulfill the following:

- Take a voice review during orientation and at least one semester of voice class before graduating.
- Participate in the Holy Week Seminar during the student’s first year of study.
- Participate in the St. Helen’s Pilgrimage and Study Abroad program, which is normally held at the end of the student’s middler year.
- Participate in the Archdiocesan Seminar held at the headquarters of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America in New York City during the spring semester of the senior year.

Modern Greek Language Requirements for GOA

Modern Greek language preparation is a central element in training for ordained ministry in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. To that end, non-native Greek-speaking seminarians complete 24 credits in Modern Greek language instruction regardless of their knowledge of Modern Greek at the time of matriculation. The typical course of study is as follows:

<table>

<td>Beginning Modern Greek I-II</td>
<td>12 cr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intermediate Modern Greek I-II</td>
<td>6 cr.</td>
</tr>

</table>
Advanced Modern Greek I-II 6 cr.

Proficiency exams offered each spring will determine whether students have attained the necessary degree of competence to move to the next level of Greek, or whether a remedial course is required first. Students with prior knowledge of Modern Greek will take a placement exam to determine at what level their studies begin, and they will continue their studies in domain-specific courses (e.g., culture, literature, history, post-advanced level language courses).

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

INTRODUCTION

The program leading to the degree of Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is open to any qualified student who has a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. This program is designed primarily for students who seek graduate study of the various disciplines of Orthodox theology, but who are not candidates for ordination in the Orthodox Church. The program may serve as part of the preparation for further studies in theology or religion. The program requires a minimum of two years of full-time study.

MTS LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Demonstrate a broad familiarity with Orthodox theology and history as expressed in the various fields of Church history, dogmatics, ethics, scripture, patristics, and canon law.
2. Demonstrate basic competence in New Testament Greek.
3. Articulate a concentrated understanding of the Orthodox religious heritage and cultural context of one of the basic areas of theological education:
   - Biblical (Old and New Testaments)
   - Historical (Church history and patrology)
   - Systematic (dogmatics and ethics)
   - Practical (liturgics, canon law, and pastoral theology)
4. Think theologically and critically about the Orthodox Christian tradition both historically and within contemporary Church and society

The Master of Theological Studies degree is awarded to students in regular standing who have satisfactorily completed the two-year course of study with an average grade not lower than C (2.0). The MTS program consists of 60 credit hours of coursework, which includes 15 required courses (45 credits) and 5 elective courses (15 credits).
Total Credits  60

NOTE: A student who already has a Master of Theological Studies degree from Holy Cross and who wishes to enroll in the Master of Divinity degree program may receive a maximum of 30 credits advanced standing towards fulfillment of the Master of Divinity degree requirements. In consultation with the faculty, the Dean will determine which requirements need to be satisfied. A minimum additional residency of one and one-half years is required.
MASTER OF THEOLOGY

Introduction

The Master of Theology (ThM) program is an advanced course of studies, which builds on the first graduate-level theological degree, normally the Master of Divinity. The primary goal of the program is to provide scholarly concentration in a particular area of theology in the context of an Orthodox community. It is intended for candidates who: (a) may later pursue studies at the doctoral level; (b) seek some form of teaching in the future; (c) desire scholarly enhancement of their priestly or ministerial practice; or (d) are interested in personal theological and spiritual enrichment. While it is of particular interest to Orthodox students who have received their first graduate theological degrees from Orthodox theological schools in the United States and abroad, it welcomes all qualified applicants.

Newly Adopted ThM Program Requirements for Students Beginning on or after Fall 2018

Admission Requirements

Admission into the program requires the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent, such as the Licentiate of Theology awarded to graduates of Orthodox schools of theology abroad. Applicants who hold only the Master of Theological Studies degree (MTS) or its equivalent are normally required to complete an additional four theology courses (12 credits) prior to their matriculation into the ThM program. Applicants must have demonstrated previous academic work of high quality (3.3 grade average or better) and an aptitude for critical thinking and independent study under faculty supervision. Language requirements include intermediate knowledge of New Testament or Patristic Greek, proficiency in English, and a reading knowledge of one of the following languages: French, German, Modern Greek, or Russian. All applicants must complete the Graduate Record Exam (GRE; the school code number is R-34496). Students should bear in mind that GRE scores are viable for only five years after the date the exam is taken. International applicants must show competence in English by scoring at least 550, or 80 for the computer-based testing, on the TOEFL exam (Holy Cross code number 9794).

Program Administration

The ThM program is under the supervision of the faculty, which works through the ThM Committee appointed annually by the Dean. The Director of the ThM program, also appointed by the Dean, chairs the committee. The Director’s duties involve providing information to applicants on all matters pertaining to the program, advising them regarding courses and registration, keeping appropriate records on behalf of the Committee, and generally overseeing the entire program. The ThM Committee deliberates on all policy and curricular changes, and recommends proposals to the faculty for final decision.
ThM Learning Objectives

1. Knowledge of the area of concentration
   - Assimilate and critically analyze the data in any of these subjects by taking 6000-7000 level courses.
   - Articulate how the proposed topic relates to current scholarly discussion acquired in the 6000-7000 level courses.
   - Undertake and complete a project (ThM thesis) of specialized research within the prescribed time framework.

2. Acquirement and integration of scholarly tools and skills
   - Read ancient / modern theological texts of moderate difficulty, using the dictionary.
   - Perform thesis research and gain admittance to a doctoral program for those who want to continue their academic work.
   - Produce a bibliography in the subject of a specific area of concentration.
   - Use efficiently library and online resources in the area of research.
   - Produce standard forms of graduate-level scholarly works (e.g., seminar papers and oral presentations) consistent with the requirements of a 6000-7000 level course.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Theology degree is awarded upon the successful completion of:

- 24 credits of coursework with a grade average of 3.3 or better
- A thesis of 75–100 pages in length
- One-year residency

The program is also open to qualified part-time students. However, all candidates must complete the program, including the acceptance of the thesis, within a period of up to four years.

Course Requirements

ThM students normally enroll in upper-level courses (numbered 7000), whether lectures, seminars, or tutorials. All candidates will complete at least 12 credits or 4 courses at the upper level. Courses at the 6000 level may be taken according to a student’s program needs and under the supervision of the Director. Candidates without a previous degree in Orthodox theology are required to complete two additional core courses, one in patristic studies and one in dogmatic theology, beyond the 24 required course credits. Students will be expected to meet all the requirements for these courses and will receive a Pass/Fail grade. A minimum of 15 credits or 5 courses must be completed at Holy Cross, while the remaining 9 credits or 3 courses may be taken through member schools of the Boston Theological Institute (BTI) or other accredited theological schools.

Concentration

Upon enrollment in the program candidates must choose a concentration among the basic fields of theology:

- Biblical (Old and New Testaments)
- Historical (Church history and patristics)
- Systematic (dogmatics and ethics) and
- Practical (liturgics, canon law, and pastoral theology)

4 courses in any of the above fields is considered a concentration. The remaining 4 courses are to be selected from fields other than one’s area of concentration.

International Students

For foreign national students, immigration status is granted only for a period of two years when enrolled in the ThM degree program. No extension will be granted beyond the two-year degree program. Optional Practicum Training (OPT) is not available for ThM degree recipients.

Thesis Seminar

A Thesis Seminar for all ThM candidates will be convened twice each semester. The initial meeting in the fall semester will provide an opportunity to review the program requirements and to hear progress reports from each ongoing ThM candidate. At subsequent meetings, an ongoing student will present his or her latest research for discussion. When possible, the reporting student’s advisor and members of the ThM committee will be asked to attend.

Thesis

The thesis will be written in the area of concentration in close collaboration with a faculty advisor chosen by the student from among the faculty teaching in that field. The student and the advisor are primarily responsible for the substance of the thesis project. The thesis, which is to be no less than 75 pages and up to 100, must demonstrate critical understanding and competent research at an advanced level. All the appropriate forms and information regarding the thesis may be obtained from the Director who oversees the whole process. Requirements include the writing of a prospectus, to be approved by the ThM Committee, defining the thesis topic, methodology, and organization. The thesis is read by the student’s faculty advisor and by one other individual approved by the faculty advisor and the Director of the ThM program. The thesis must be completed within the four-year period allowed for the fulfillment of all requirements. Beyond the one-year residency, candidates must register each semester to continue in the program and are charged a continuation fee of $50.00 annually until the acceptance of the final version of the thesis. For a May graduation, the completed thesis is due by the March 15 to allow for reading by the other individuals chosen by the Director in consultation with the advisor, and for subsequent revisions by the student. The final version of the thesis is due by April 30, at which time the advisor and the second reader will each submit a brief evaluation and a grade to the Director.

Financial Aid

Candidates are eligible for financial assistance. Students seeking financial aid should apply through the Student Financial Aid Office.
FIELD EDUCATION PROGRAM

Theological Foundation

The theological foundation upon which the field education program rests is the conviction that theological studies cannot be separated from or unrelated to church life. There is an intimate and necessary relationship between theological study, worship, and loving service to others. As an integral part of preparation for service to the Church in today’s world, the Field Education Program manifests the relationship between worship, theological study, and service to God’s people. The supervised field education experiences offered have one fundamental concern: to assist students in deepening their relationship to God and to nurture their vocation to serve God through the Church.

Structure

All students in the MDiv degree program are required to complete six semesters of supervised field education in order to be certified for graduation.

In an effort to strengthen the educational aspects of the field education program, all field education courses are integrated into three-credit courses that include a field placement. The 6 field education courses are:

Religious Education: The focus of this field education course is on religious education across the lifespan. Students are placed in a religious education setting, either at a local parish or a local university campus.

Youth Ministry: Youth ministry focuses on ministry to adolescents. Students are placed in local parishes and given the opportunity to participate in youth retreats, lock-ins, and camping programs for adolescents.

Pastoral Care I/Hospital Ministry: This field education course serves as the introduction to pastoral care with a specific focus on ministering to the sick and infirm. Students are placed in local hospitals, hospice care facilities, or nursing homes.

Social Ministries: The focus of this field education course is on social ethics. Students are placed in area social service agencies, including prisons, food pantries, homeless shelters, etc.

Parish Leadership and Administration I: This is the first of a two-course sequence focusing on parish leadership and administration. Students are assigned to shadow a priest at a local parish and participate in parish ministry and leadership opportunities.
Parish Leadership and Administration II: This course is the second part of a year-long program on parish leadership and administration. Students remain in their assigned shadowing placement for this second semester.

In addition to the specific requirements of each course and each respective placement, students are required to complete a list of pastoral tasks over the course of their time in the field education program. Students may arrange to complete these tasks at their assigned placements, at their home parishes, or make special arrangements with the Field Education Director.

Further information is available on the Field Education page of the school’s website.
PROGRAM FOR THE DIACONATE

Introduction

The Program for the Diaconate is an educational and formational initiative of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology offered in conjunction with the Holy Synod of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

The on-campus certificate program is designed to prepare a candidate for the ordained diaconate. The candidate must be a committed and mature Orthodox Christian who has been active in a parish, and who senses a calling from the Lord to serve the Church in the diaconal ministry. The program is the basis for other meetings and studies required by the local Metropolitan, and complemented by service in a parish under the mentorship of the local priest.

The program is designed especially for persons who are members of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and who have the blessing of their Metropolitans to participate. Persons from other Orthodox jurisdictions may also apply to participate in the program. This program is not designed for persons who sense a calling to the priesthood.

Students will receive a Certificate of Study from Holy Cross upon the successful completion of the Program of the Diaconate.

Further information is available on the Program of the Diaconate page of the school’s website.

CERTIFICATE IN BYZANTINE MUSIC

The Certificate in Byzantine Music program equips students with a mastery of the skills required for chanting the sacred hymns of the Orthodox Church. The program provides thorough knowledge of the psaltic notational system, the theoretical framework of the modal system, the ability to sight-read musical scores at all levels of complexity, and an extensive familiarity with the contents and usage of liturgical books and the rubrics of the Orthodox Church. Upon completion of its requirements, students will be able to perform all musical parts of the daily liturgical cycle and the sacraments of the Orthodox Church.

Further information is available on the Certificate in Byzantine Music page on the school’s website.
SPECIAL PROGRAMS

BTK Certificate Program

The Boston Theological Institute, a consortium of ten theological schools in the Boston area of which Holy Cross is a member, offers two certificate programs to students registered in one of the BTI schools. The Certificate in Religion and Conflict Transformation and the Certificate in International Mission and Ecumenism are awarded to students who have successfully completed particular course and seminar requirements of the respective certificate programs. The certificate programs encourage students to take advantage of the academic, theological, and pastoral resources of the BTI member schools. For more information about these certificate programs, visit the BTI website at www.bostontheological.org.

St. Helen’s Pilgrimage

During the summer between their middler and senior years, students enrolled in the Master of Divinity Program participate in a study and travel program in Greece and at the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Istanbul, Turkey. The trip is an educational excursion and pilgrimage to various sites of historical, cultural, and ecclesiastical significance in the worlds of Hellenism, early Christianity, Byzantium, and the Orthodox Christian heritage. As part of the program, students take part in intensive Modern Greek language instruction.

Middler Year Abroad in Greece

As a recognized school of theology by the government of Greece, Holy Cross is the recipient of a limited number of annual scholarships for its students to study at the schools of theology of the Universities of Athens and Thessaloniki. These scholarships are provided by the Government Scholarships Foundation in Greece (commonly referred by the acronym IKY). Each scholarship covers full tuition, provides a monthly stipend for an entire academic year, and covers part of the cost of the airfare between Boston and Greece. Normally, the IKY Scholarship is awarded for study in Greece during the second or third year of a three- or four-year course of study at Holy Cross. To be eligible for the scholarship, a student must be of Greek descent, demonstrate proficiency in the Greek language, and petition the faculty of Holy Cross for its approval. Information and application materials can be obtained from the Office of the Dean. The availability of scholarships depends on funding from the Government of Greece. Students should inquire through the Office of the Dean to confirm funding availability.

Exchange Program with St. Vladimir’s Seminary

Holy Cross and St. Vladimir’s Orthodox Theological Seminary, located in Crestwood, NY, offer an annual student exchange program for interested and qualified students. The exchange program allows the exchange student to spend one semester (fall or spring) at the host institution. The exchange student pays all applicable tuition and fees for the semester to his or her home institution. Interested Holy Cross students should speak with the Dean for more information. Students normally participate in the program during their middler year.

Holy Cross and Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki Educational Cooperation

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology and the Theological School of the Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki have created a formal educational cooperative for the purpose of the mutual enrichment of the advanced theological programs of studies offered at the two institutions. This collaboration allows for the formal exchange of faculty and students between the two institutions. Specifically, graduating students of Holy Cross are encouraged to continue their postgraduate specializations through this program. Additionally, the two schools publish proceedings of their joint theological conferences and the results of their theological research.

Holy Cross Fellowship

The school makes available a limited number of fellowships for international scholars from canonical Orthodox Churches who wish to experience theological education and Church life in the United States, audit advanced courses at Holy Cross and the BTI, and pursue theological research. Each Fellow works out a plan of study with the Dean and a personal faculty consultant. The Fellow, in addition to the programs of studies, may be asked to offer lectures, lead group discussions, and participate in other activities of the school. An applicant is required to submit a curriculum vitae, a letter verifying his or her status, and a brief statement describing the plan of study/research for the time of residency at Holy Cross.

Resident Fellow Program

Holy Cross seeks to assist the advancement of Orthodox studies by accepting established scholars as well as doctoral candidates as Resident Fellows to engage in research, teaching, publications, and other scholarly activities related to Orthodox studies. Inquiries may be addressed to the Office of the Dean. A cover letter, two recommendations from colleagues or former instructors, as well as a proposal of five pages or more presenting one’s scholarly plans and objectives, must be submitted to the Office of the Dean. The Dean and the faculty will make recommendations to the President, who will make the final determination of the award. Normally, one Fellow is appointed at a time, either for a period of one semester, or for an entire year. The appointment ends with the completion either of the semester or the academic year. The Fellow is offered housing, limited board, and a stipend. In return, he or she may be asked to give one or more lectures in his or her area of specialization, sharing the findings of his or her research with the faculty and community.
Introduction to the Old Testament
The Introduction to the study of the Old Testament is not, and cannot be, a substitute of the Old Testament, but rather a preparatory step, a reading guide, and a candid invitation to reading the Old Testament. The course is divided into two parts. The General Introduction deals with the Old Testament as history, literature, and part of the living tradition. The following topics are discussed in detail: unity in diversity of the Christian Bible, biblical text, biblical canon, and relationship between Scripture and Tradition. The Special Introduction focuses on some theological themes rooted in the Pentateuch and running throughout the Old and New Testaments along with their interpretations within various hermeneutical contexts (Jewish, Christian, modern scholarship). The three themes discussed here are God, humanity, and the problem of suffering. Students are requested to read closely the entire Pentateuch, specifically the texts listed for each meeting.

Old Testament Exegesis
The course focuses on the Book of Psalms as a literary and teaching collection. A general introduction to the Psalter is followed by the exegesis of selected psalms, based on the Hebrew (the Masoretic Text) and Septuagint versions. Special attention will be given to how the psalms were interpreted at the time of their translation into Greek (the Septuagint), in the New Testament books, and during the golden age of patristic literature. In addition to these ancient interpreters, modern commentators will be discussed. Given the length of the Book of Psalms, we are going to examine only the most representative psalms. Priority will be given to the following categories: psalms that reflect the theology of the Psalter; psalms quoted in the New Testament; Messianic psalms; and psalms used in Church worship. Prerequisite: Introduction to the Old Testament

Syriac
This course is designed to introduce the student to the fundamentals of the grammar of the Syriac language. This will be accomplished by working systematically through an introductory grammar. Class work will consist primarily of formal grammatical drills and simple reading passages from the Syriac Bible and early Syriac Literature. Emphasis will be placed on acquiring the vocabulary and the grammatical structure of the language, while some time (at the end of the year) will also be given to introducing the student to Syriac literature and culture.

Christ in the Old Testament Christ’s birth, life, crucifixion, and glorious resurrection were all prophesied centuries earlier in the Old Testament times.
The prehistory of Christ in the Old Testament, as taught in patristic tradition, will be examined in the light of modern biblical scholarship. Current methodologies will be used to analyze selected Messianic texts in the Pentateuch, Psalms, and Prophets. Knowledge of the original languages is not required and students of all backgrounds are welcome.

The Prophets
This course is a historical, literary, and theological introduction to the Hebrew prophets designed to aid the students in understanding the biblical prophets and the forces that shaped their sayings. We will examine various dimensions of biblical prophecy including the nature of prophetic revelation, the stylistic forms of Hebrew prophecy and the theological, ethical, and social ramifications of prophetic message. While we will examine the overall context for prophecy in the ancient world our predominate emphasis will be reading the biblical texts focusing on particular prophets in Israel and Judah in their specific contexts.

Book of Hosea
This advanced exegesis seminar is a detailed interpretation of the Book of Hosea. Emphasis falls on Hosea, chapters 1-3, 6, 11, 12, 14, containing significant theological themes such as reconciliation, redemption, and God’s tender love. The methodology followed in this course is that used by Ecole biblique (Jerusalem) in their digital study Bible project B.E.S.T.
(La Bible en ses traditions / The Bible in Its Traditions). The instructor of this seminar is a main contributor and team leader working on the Book of Hosea for this international ecumenical project (more on B.E.S.T. at www.bibest.org).

St. Paul: His Legacy, Life, and Epistles
This course will study the epistles of St. Paul in their historical contexts, seeking to understand both the life of the saint who wrote these letters, as well as the theology they espouse for the life of the Church then and now. The student will become much better acquainted with the Pauline corpus as a result of close reading, exegesis, and group discussion of the legacy St. Paul gave us in his epistles, preserved as Holy Scripture by the Church. We will endeavor to keep the image of St. Paul in our mind’s eye throughout the semester, and will give a privileged position to the preaching about Paul by our Father of the Church, St. John Chrysostom, by reading the seven sermons he preached “On the Praise of St. Paul.”

Exegesis of the Sunday Lectionary Readings

This is a course on Advanced Exegesis Methods focused on the Sunday lectionary readings within their liturgical context. The students will present their exegeses orally to the class. They will show a balance between historical, academic sources and a history of tradition approach, utilizing patristic and hymnological writings. This course builds on the skills learned in the required exegesis course which is a prerequisite for this advanced course. Exegesis will be based on the Greek text with English translations. This course will focus on the art of interpreting Scripture, both as it has been done historically, as well as how it might be done in the Church today. The course seeks to integrate three complementary areas of approaches to exegesis: to gain an appreciation for the weekly cycle of Gospel and Epistle readings within the lectionary of the Greek Orthodox Church; to be introduced to theories and methods of biblical interpretation, both contemporary academic and patristic; and to provide a structured environment in which the student will be encouraged to practice each week these foundational skills used in biblical exegesis, practicing this art within the larger context of equipping the students to use these skills for teaching, preaching, and personal spiritual formation. The course, therefore, has a very practical side, as it explores how these diachronic interpretations might be useful models to teach the stewards of God’s word today. Prerequisite: Introduction to The New Testament or permission of the instructor.

NEWT 7241
Romans and Galatians
This course will study two of St. Paul’s epistles (Romans and Galatians). These letters distinguish themselves among Paul’s epistles since they both treat the boundaries of Christian identity, including issues concerning continuity with the covenants of Israel and the law given at Sinai. The course will focus closely on the interpretation of the texts from both historical and patristic perspectives. One major topic of the course will be the role of the Torah within early Gentile Christianity, including the rationale for its transformation, and its ethical implications for praxis within the Orthodox Church today. The student will be encouraged to utilize the Greek text. Prerequisite: Introduction to New Testament or permission of the instructor

The Philokalia

The Philokalia is a collection of Orthodox spiritual writings consisting of both extracts and whole works of thirty-six Church Fathers and ecclesiastical writers from the fourth through the fifteenth century. Compiled on Mount Athos in the eighteenth century, it was soon translated into Slavonic, after which a number of Russian translations appeared. It has exerted profound influence on modern Orthodox spirituality—in Russia from the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and in Western Europe and the United States, especially from the 1950s—and is now generally recognized as a definitive expression of the ascetic and spiritual tradition of the Orthodox Church. Taking advantage of recent scholarly breakthroughs in the study of the Philokalia, this course begins by considering the collection’s historical background, followed by a close reading (in English translation) of select works from the Philokalia, with special attention to the Prayer of the Heart.

_Experiential Theology of the Elders_
In this seminar, the embodied experiential theology of the Elders (Elder Joseph of Vatopedi, Archimandrite Sophrony, St. Silouan, Elder Paisios of Mount Athos, Cleopa of Sihastria, Fr. Arseny, Elder Porphyrios, Ephraim of Phoenix) will be studied. These elders presently influence and guide in a substantial way the spiritual life of many Orthodox Christians. The seminar will focus on the spiritual discipline and ethos that guided these elders in their journey toward God; the theological and liturgical underpinnings of their experiential theology; and the historical antecedents of their monastic ethos. Given the fact that these elders lived and developed their experiential theology in monastic communities, the seminar will reflect on how their ascetical practices can guide those who espouse to live an authentic Christian life.

ETHICS

ETHC 5001
_Orthodox Christian Ethics_
Christian moral theology is concerned with virtue not as an end in itself, but as an indispensable, challenging, and rewarding dimension of the Life in Christ. As such, a proper aim of Orthodox ethics is the attainment of Christ-likeness. Good and evil, moral law, rights and responsibilities, and ethical decision-making therefore will be considered in the light of the ascetic concern for the acquisition of the Holy Spirit.

_Ethics and Literature_
This course explores some of the fundamental issues that arise in philosophical discussions of morality and ethics. In this course we utilize philosophy and literature to deepen students’ understanding of ethics. Great literature often delves into ethical issues and awakens our minds and hearts to new possibilities; it also encourages readers to understand the moral life in unique ways. Students are encouraged to reflect upon the perspectives and ideas that emerge from the literary selections and to analyze philosophical texts representative of major ethical theories. We explore ethical questions related to topics such as the purpose of morality, the nature of good and evil, the meaning of life, moral relativism, deontological ethics, and the importance of freedom, autonomy, and respect.

Holy Week Seminar

This one-week seminar will comprise an in-depth look at the liturgical form and hymnology of Holy Week in the Greek Orthodox Church. Special emphasis will be given to the interpretation of the hymns and themes of each day during Holy Week in order to ascertain what message the Church wants to communicate to the faithful. Some attention will also be given to the actual historical evolution of these rites.
This is required for all MDiv seminarians in the first year.

The course offers an analysis of the structural elements of the divine services and instruction on the use of the liturgical books of the Orthodox Church. The course is especially concerned with helping the student develop skills for the proper conduct and celebration of the divine services. The class allows for role-playing and analysis. Teleturgics II deals specifically with the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil and St. John Chrysostom as well as the Pre-sanctified Liturgy. Special attention will be given to how one conducts the liturgy when a hierarch is serving. After this, the class will deal with

Religious Education
This course will explore basic questions related to the ministry of education in the life of the Orthodox Christian parish in North America. We will use the following questions as the basic organizing principles: Why do we teach in the Church? What is the goal of education in the Church? Does the Church have a curriculum? What can we learn from Acts 2:42-47 for parishes today? Whom are we teaching? What are some approaches to the education of Christians? Who is going to teach? What is the role of the teacher? Because the class also has a field component through the Field Education program, where it is assumed that the students are teaching Sunday school, presenting the faith to OCF groups, or working in educational settings, students will have the opportunity and will be expected to apply these skills in their field setting. Finally, there will be ample opportunity throughout the semester to reflect theologically on the experience of handing forward the Orthodox Christian faith.

Ministry for a Changing Orthodox Church
There is a growing body of literature about the changing realities of religion in the United States and the Orthodox Christian Church. This course intends to engage students with this conversation, both the demographic data and personal stories, from mixed marriage to conversions, from liberal to ultra-conservative trends, the rise of the “nones,” emerging adults, and “millennials,” as well as the theoretical understandings surrounding the sociological developments within the Church. Students will be asked to review the relevant literature on American religion and Orthodox Christianity in particular, interview individuals, and engage in their own research. Students will be asked to formulate proposals for ministry to meet the changing realities.

Theology of Pastoral Care I
Theology of Pastoral Care I/Hospital Ministry is intended to help students integrate and apply the knowledge acquired in other seminary classes into their own lives and in pastoral care situations. As a Field Education course for hospital ministry, students will be placed in local hospitals for the semester. Specifically, we will explore hospital ministry as one aspect of pastoral care, as we develop a theology of pastoral care. The intent of this class is not to provide students with the right answers for pastoral situations. Rather, this course is designed, with the readings, class discussions, and assignments, to develop their hospital ministry knowledge and skills as well as their personal identity as Orthodox Christian seminarians and future ministers or priests. Course is cross-listed as FLED 6101.

Theology of Pastoral Care II
Theology of Pastoral Care II is intended to build upon Theology of Pastoral Care I by presenting a framework for understanding contemporary pastoral issues through the lens of Orthodox theology of the person, sickness, healing, and salvation. This class is not intended to provide students with the ‘right’ answers for pastoral decisions. Rather, this course is designed, through the readings, class discussions, and assignments to develop their understanding of Orthodox pastoral care and their thinking as Orthodox Christians and future ministers/pastors. The models of Orthodox pastors/saints explored in the first semester class serve as witnesses to the Orthodox pastoral care framework we will develop and discuss this semester as we explore contemporary pastoral issues, basic helping skills, and secular theories and research. Particular attention will be placed on understanding how to access and integrate current secular knowledge into an Orthodox worldview to develop an appropriate pastoral response.

The course will examine the Orthodox theological understanding of marriage and family. It will include a focus on the characteristics of both healthy and unhealthy relationships. Issues which negatively affect marital and family relationships, such as addictions, as well as psychological, verbal, physical, and sexual abuse, will be examined. Attention will also be given to clergy marriages and the issue of clerical ‘burnout.’ The role of the pastoral caregiver in ministering to marriages and families will be emphasized.

Advanced Pastoral Care for Couples
For most people, their marriage is the context for living out the Gospel call to become perfect, as God himself is perfect (Mat 4:48). Yet we live within a culture and society with widely different ideas about the nature and purpose of marriage. In this course, we will take an in-depth look into the dynamics of couples and explore how to pastor couples within their marital journey. Beginning with a review of an Eastern Christian understanding of marriage and its implications for ministering to couples, we will explore different contemporary theoretical approaches to working with couples and some specific pastoral issues that couples face. Special emphasis will be placed on the role of the minister/pastor in working with couples.

Pastoral Counseling: Theory and Practice
Pastoral Counseling is a course intended to help students develop basic helping skills and a theological framework for pastoral care through readings, lecture, discussion, observation, and peer helping sessions. This course is designed for individuals preparing for ministry interested in exploring the connections between a theology of pastoral care and basic listening skills. Learning the basic skills and theological underpinnings of a helping relationship risks shifting the student’s understanding of the nature of pastoral care from a personal encounter with another person to the application of techniques. While this is a common hazard of learning and evaluating how we attend to the other, the purpose of this course is not to develop helping skills per se, but to learn helping skills as a step towards developing a greater self-awareness of our own capacity to attend to the other and a greater proficiency with pastoral care and counseling.

Spirituality and Addiction
This course will approach addiction with a broader understanding of the term. Students will learn that the addictive process is an expression of progressive, spiritual disease. This has profound and inter-related ramifications in the psychological, emotional, cognitive, and physical domains. The addictive process also has serious consequences within relationships: at home, within the society, at work, and in the Church. Resources from Orthodox theology, spirituality, psychology, and the addictions field (with particular emphasis on the 12-step self-help movement) will be studied. Opportunities for personal reflection and expressions of pastoral response will also be explored.

We will examine how he has practically lived out this missiology through his 10-year ministry in East Africa and 25-year ministry in the Church of Albania. The course will look at the foundation and calling of missions. We will consider the resurrection of the Church of Albania over the past 25 years, examining and analyzing the successes of how the Church has succeeded in living out the missiology of the Archbishop, and where the Church has not yet lived up to the missiology. This course will be combined with a 12-day mission outreach and pilgrimage to Albania at the end of the spring semester, witnessing firsthand the resurrection of the Church of Albania, meeting missionaries and the indigenous leaders of the Church.

Creating a Healthy, Vibrant, Missions Minded Parish
In order to create a healthy, vibrant parish, which implies being a missions minded parish, we will begin by discussing the proper theology and ecclesiology of our Church, which requires a healthy understanding of the role of missions and missiology in the Church. We will evaluate the present reality of our churches, and ask the question, ‘How are we living out, or failing to live, the authentic theology of our Church?’ This course will help one catch a vibrant vision for a parish to become healthy and ‘missions minded,’ which will include: 1) how to teach and equip the faithful in our churches, 2) how to reach out to the lapsed and unchurched Orthodox; 3) how to understand and reach out to the unchurched of America; 4) how to offer a witness to non-Orthodox Christians; and 5) how to fulfill our ‘apostolic’ identity in a global outreach to the world at large. All of this will be discussed from the setting of an established parish, a dying parish in need of a “turnaround”, as well as starting a new church from scratch. We will study dynamic parishes and ministries throughout the country, and will have a guest speaker from one of these churches.

Missionaries and their Impact Throughout the Ages
Missions and Evangelism is central in our ecclesiology and Orthodox worldview. The need for Christians and churches to continue the work of Christ, welcoming and reaching out to those outside our Christian faith is paramount. We need Churches which cultivate a spirit to raise up, train and send out missionaries and witnesses locally, nationally and globally. This course will help students understand the central spirit of missions and evangelism in the Church through a study of some of its greatest missionaries. The first part of the course will focus on the lives, ministries and methods of missionaries from the Apostle Paul and the early Christians, the first monastics, Patrick of Ireland, Cyril and Methodios, Kosmas Aitolos, Innocent Veniaminov of Alaska, Nicholas Kasatkin of Japan - along with contemporary missionaries like Archbishop Anastasios of Albania, Lynette Hoppe, and Themistocli Adamopoulo. The latter part of the course will apply the studied missionary methods to evangelism and witness in the contemporary American context.

World Religions
We will look at humanity’s quest for God from the beginning of time, and how five of the world’s major religious traditions - Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism developed. Together with their history, we will study their main teachings, worldview, and practice. Part of the class will include visiting the temples or places of worship of these other faiths. We will also look at the phenomenon and contemporary growth of humanism/atheism as a world philosophy/religion. With each of these different religions, we will discuss Orthodox Christianity’s understanding of these religions, and how we are to dialogue and interact with them, trying to discover bridges on how to share our Orthodox Christian faith.

Introduction to Orthodox Missiology
We will study the biblical, theological, liturgical, and historical perspectives of Orthodox missiology, emphasizing how missions should be an essential element of the Orthodox Church’s identity -- on the individual, local parish, and archdiocesan level. We will discuss the various missiological methods and characteristics throughout the centuries. We will be introduced to the latest concepts and debates in missiological circles, looking at world statistics on unreached peoples, the 10/40 window, tent-making, evangelism to closed countries, and mobilizing the local church to respond to the needs of today.

Orthodox Ethos (2 cr.)
The goal of this course is to explore the ethos or phronema of the Orthodox Christian Church. According to Fr. George Nicozisin, phronema is not merely the external forms of Orthodoxy, vestments, icons, candles, incense, etc.—but its inner spirit, its way of thinking, its way of living. Phronema is the lived life of an Orthodox Christian within and without the Church. Students will explore the rich ethos of the Orthodox Church through readings and in conversation with Holy Cross faculty and selected alumni. One of the goals of the course is for students to make connections between the phronema of the Church and their own vocational goals and aspirations as they prepare for further theological study and ministerial preparation.

Jews, Christians and Muslims Interacting: An Inter-Religious Course
An inter-religious seminar bringing together Jewish, Christian, and Muslim students to interact, share, learn, and engage theologially on fundamental theological topics important to all three religious traditions. The course will be broken up into three overarching modules: Sacred Scriptures, The Divine, and Humanity. The module on Sacred Scriptures focuses on the relation between revelation and scriptures, views on scriptural inspiration, sacred languages and their role today in conveying the scriptural message, and scriptures and traditions. The module on The Divine (including worship) focuses on God’s essence and attributes (love, power, creation, and judgment), God’s court, God’s plan for creation and humanity, and encountering God in worship. The final module, Humanity (that is, anthropology, which will include ethics and ecology), examines the genesis of humanity and its place in God’s creation (ecology), God-humanity relationship, and human freedom (rights and responsibilities). The course will be team-taught and consist of faculty from Holy Cross, Hebrew College (Newton, MA), and The Islamic Society of Boston (Roxbury, MA). The class is limited to 15 students and efforts will be made to have a representative balance of students from each of the three religious traditions. The course will meet primarily at Holy Cross but some meetings will be held at Hebrew College and The Islamic Society of Boston.

Students enrolling in the ThM Program on or after Fall 2018 follow the newly adopted format for the program outlined below. The goals, admissions requirements, and administration of the ThM program remain the same.

Upon enrollment in the program candidates must choose a concentration among the basic fields of theology:

- Biblical (Old and New Testaments)
- Historical (Church history and patristics)
- Systematic (dogmatics and ethics)
- Practical (liturgics, canon law, and pastoral theology)

The Master of Theology degree, requiring one-year residency, is awarded upon the successful completion of 24 credits (12 credits per each semester), of which

Option A
- 9 hours (3 courses) minimum in field of concentration
- 9 hours (3 courses) in same or related areas of study
- 6 hours credit for Th.M. thesis and oral examination (i.e., thesis defense)

Option B
- 12 hours (4 courses) minimum in field of concentration
- 12 hours (4 courses) maximum in same or related areas of study
- Extended paper

The program is also open to qualified part-time students. However, all candidates must complete the program, including the acceptance of the thesis or extended paper, within a period of one year from the date of matriculation into the program.

For international students, immigration status is granted only for a period of two years when enrolled in the Th.M. degree program. No extension will be granted beyond the two-year degree program. Optional Practicum Training (OPT) is not available for Th.M. degree recipients.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete the ThM program will be able to:

- demonstrate deepened knowledge and understanding pertaining to a specific theological discipline beyond the first-level master’s degree; and

- demonstrate a capacity to conduct original research on a chosen topic of interest with appropriate resources and to write a scholarly paper/thesis.
Course Requirements

ThM students must complete a minimum of half their required coursework at the upper level (7000-level courses). Courses at the 6000 level may be taken according to a student’s program needs and under the supervision of the director of the ThM program. For Option A (thesis), a minimum of 12 credits or 4 courses must be completed at Holy Cross, while the remaining 6 credits or 2 courses may be taken through member schools of the Boston Theological Institute (BTI) or other accredited theological schools. For Option B (extended paper), a minimum of 15 credits or 5 courses must be completed at Holy Cross, while the remaining 9 credits or 3 courses may be taken through member schools of the Boston Theological Institute (BTI) or other accredited theological schools.

Thesis Requirements (Option A)

The Th.M. thesis is an advanced research paper written in the area of concentration. It is intended to demonstrate competence in a theological field beyond the M.Div. level. The topic of the Th.M. thesis should be treated with some notable scholarly depth within the usual scope of 50-60 pages. In consultation with the Th.M. director, the student selects a thesis advisor from among the Holy Cross faculty teaching in that field. Exceptions to this policy may be granted by the Th.M. program director if there is a special need. The thesis advisor works with the student to develop a thesis proposal and recommends a second reader. The thesis advisor assists the student in the research and writing and schedules the oral examination (i.e., thesis defense). If the thesis advisor is a Holy Cross faculty member, the second reader may be from outside of Holy Cross.

Students are required to submit a written thesis proposal (5-6 pages) that presents the topic, describes the problem or area of research and its significance, and lays out the methodology of the thesis. The proposal provides a table of contents and a preliminary bibliography. The thesis proposal should be approved by the thesis advisor and the second reader and is submitted to the director of the Th.M. program by October 15 for fall admission or March 1 for spring admission.

The student registers for Th.M. Thesis for 3 credits in each semester. Credit will be granted upon successful completion of the oral examination (i.e., thesis defense).

The thesis is due three weeks prior to graduation.

Extended Paper Requirements (Option B)

The Th.M. extended paper is an extended research or thesis-driven paper on a special research topic of the student’s choice as an extra assignment in one of the student's courses, under faculty supervision. This extended paper carries no additional credit. The extended paper (30-40 pages) must be completed as an “extended” or enlarged adaptation of the requirements of a seminar or other 7000-level course or reading and research course. It can be written in either the fall or spring semester. The topic of the extended paper is worked out with the professor. The paper is given directly to the professor; it may be submitted at any time while the course is in session, but no later than the last day of class for a given semester.
