

Fr. Bartholomew, who has most recently been serving as the Director of the Archives Department of the Archdiocese, received the Archbishop's blessing as he commences his new responsibilities as Chaplain, instructor of Canon Law and Advisor for the HCHC Diaconate Program for the School of Theology.

An alumnus of the beloved 'scholi,' in 2014 Father Bartholomew completed his undergraduate studies at Hellenic College and earned both an M.Div and Th.M (the highest degree awarded by HCHC) at the School of Theology before proceeding to Rome, Italy to pursue doctoral studies at the Pontifical Oriental Institute.

He was ordained to the Diaconate in June 2017 by the laying on of hands by Metropolitan Evangelos of New Jersey.

Ordained to the Priesthood December 11, 2021 by the laying on of hands by His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America and was appointed the parish priest of Sts. George and Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church in New York City
